

ENTHUSIASTIC JOYFULIFICATION
The Scandinavian Club Addressed by Delegate Cairns and Prof. Paul.
The Scandinavian political club met last night in the Fourteenth Ward assembly room to celebrate the first anniversary of their organization. The club consists of about thirty members and is made up of the following members:...

THE NINETEENTH DAY.
The Land Case Drags Its Slow Length Along.
Mr. McCormick, C. E., was under cross-examination by Major Bird when the News report of the beach land cases closed yesterday afternoon. In the course of his answers the witness said that the beach land, as he understood it, was that enclosed in an area near the lake and running, as a rule, with the original meander line inside or out. His testimony throughout the afternoon's cross-examination was almost entirely of a purely technical character, and was of interest only to those directly interested in the case.

FREIGHT RATES.
Last evening the transportation bureau of the Chamber of Commerce again met to perfect the arrangements for securing a reduction in freight rates. Vice-President Stinson presided and stated the object of the meeting was to see that Mr. Lowe said he believed the first thing that should be done was to secure a reduction in local tariffs from Salt Lake to points in Montana, Idaho and Western Colorado, where the rate at the present time was $1.25 and $1.40. These rates related Salt Lake's progress very much. Only a short time ago a large manufacturing concern in the East wanted to make their distribution point, but when they learned of the high local tariffs they gave up the idea. He thought that there should be some change made in rates from Missouri River points here. All present they were four times what the rates from Chicago to the river is, and the distance is only double. He believed something should be done regarding coal. Salt Lake was paying more for that commodity than she ought to, and it was a matter that needed immediate attention.

DEATH OF THE RAILS.
An Unknown Man Crushed to Death by the Wheels of an Engine.
Eleven days ago, Mike Brady came to Provo, from Thistle, where he had been working on the R. G. W. Railway extension. He had not been in the city long before he was "run over" by the engine. It was his first day on the job and he was starting on his journey toward some of the saloons of the city, and became intoxicated. While in this condition, about 7 o'clock, he attempted to mount a flat car that formed a part of a Union Pacific freight train, which was being switched at the crossing. He was not aware of the fact that the engine was on the track and several car wheels had passed over him. His legs and arms were completely crushed. He was picked up in an insensible condition and carried into the station house where he remained until he was taken to the hospital. He died at 11 o'clock on Friday. He was a native of Ireland and had been in this country for several years. He was about 35 years of age.

THE STOWAWAY.
The Popular and Powerful Melodrama.
Next Friday and Saturday nights, "The Stowaway," an English melodrama that has been enormously successful on both sides of the Atlantic, will be revealed to local play-goers on the large and handsomely appointed stage of the Salt Lake Theatre. This popular and powerful melodrama has produced the chief dramatic events of the current season. "The Stowaway," in its original setting, is a grand and stirring sea story, together with the "Inferno" and "The Judgment," which have made the name of the Salt Lake Theatre so prominent. The play is set in the time of the California Gold Rush, San Francisco, which closes strictly at night. The organization comes to Salt Lake direct from San Francisco. The company that portrays the play is said to be the finest that has ever been seen in melodrama in this country. It includes such prominent actors as Mark Lynch, Wallace, Harry H. Hines, Joe G. G. G., J. J. Hays, William McKay, and Miss Maud Edna Hall, Libbie Kirke, Maude Carr and Margaret Johnson.
Students Society.
"The Isles of New Zealand" was the subject of a lecture very ably delivered last evening to a large and appreciative audience by instructor J. J. Walton, chairman of the society. The speaker began by narrating the early discovery of the islands by Captain Cook, which occurred in 1770. The islands were named by the principal explorers in the South Sea, and finally the discovery of the islands was made in 1840. A song was next rendered by Miss Libbie Kirke, who sang "The Isles of New Zealand" in a beautiful voice. The lecture was very interesting and was well received by the audience.

Remarkable Faculty of a Mule.
Little more than three years ago a man named Axel Amundson came to Ephraim from the old country bringing a deaf and dumb son with him, who had enjoyed the advantage of a good school for such unfortunate in the old country. He attended the school until he was able to talk in the simplest of sentences, and then he was sent to the State Normal school at Salt Lake, where he was educated in the usual manner. He was a native of Sweden and his father had given him $5000 in English and never made a mistake in using the words of the two languages or substituting one for the other. How about the power to hear, and without instruction, he has been able to "pick up" a part of a language is a marvel.

Scored Another.
The long list of burglaries in this city is being augmented every night. Shortly after 12 o'clock this morning unknown thieves entered Edington's store on First West Street between Third and Fourth Streets. Cash to the amount of $450 was taken from the till and an overcoat from the hall. An attempt was made to break open a door leading into the store from the alley. The movements aroused a young man who was sleeping in an adjoining apartment. He hastily armed himself with a revolver and prepared to receive the intruders, but they took to their heels. However, by the time the gate was reached, the young man had fired three shots at the fast retreating thieves. The overcoat was dropped on the sidewalk where it was picked up by an officer who happened to be on duty at the time. The scene of the shooting on hearing the discharge of firearms. The thieves made good their escape. There is no clue as to who they were.
