

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

A meeting of the Hook and Ladder Fire Co. to-morrow night, at 7:30. T. GILLESPIE, Secy.

Mr. Margolis has received another shipment of School Basket and Cup and Sauce Tins. See advertisement.

To-morrow will be the ladies' regular semi-monthly meeting, in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms. All are invited.

Mr. Russell is to be seen here in the popular play of "Edgewood Folks," which has made a genuine success, and is filling the largest theatres, wherever presented.

The members of the First Quorum of Elders will please take notice that the regular monthly meeting will be held in the 14th Ward school house to-morrow night, August 25, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

Some anxiety was created at Firemen's Hall to-day by a dense body of smoke rising from a field some distance south by east of the city, near Bishop R. A. Woolley's farm. It was probably the effects of burn-brush and stubble, although its extent at first raised a suspicion of burning buildings.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Priesthood Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Priesthood of the Stake will be held in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, on Saturday, Sept. 1st, at 1 a.m.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk of the Stake.

Corner Stone Ceremonies.—Arrangements have been made for the ceremonies connected with the laying of the corner stone of the new Baptist church to be conducted at four o'clock next Sunday afternoon. Governor Murray will be the presiding genius of the occasion and will make an address. Speeches will also be made by others.

Sol Smith Russell.—This eminent comedian will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre shortly. The favorable manner of his reception in all the larger cities is a guaranty that the performance will be worthy the full support which he will receive here. Mr. Russell is supported by an unusually well-balanced and strong company.

Death of William Hickman.—By letter from R. H. Gillespie we learn that William, better known as "Bill" Hickman, died at Lander, city, Sweetwater County, Wyoming Territory, at 3 o'clock on the morning of Monday, Aug. 21st, after an illness of 15 days, from diarrhoea. At the time of his demise he was surrounded by a number of his friends and relatives.

An Infant Settlement.—Charles Jarvis writes from Nutrioso, a new settlement in Apache County, Arizona, that the crops are looking exceedingly well, although somewhat late. Showers of rain were descending almost daily, and vegetation flourishing in consequence. From the encouraging comments of Bro. Jarvis we should judge the location to be an excellent one.

Shot in a Saloon.—At Vienna, Idaho, early on the morning of the 19th, while James Kennedy and others were gambling in a saloon, he suddenly pulled a pistol. One barrel discharged accidentally and went through the floor. He presented it at one of the players—Frank Canfield—and pulled, missing the intended mark, but hitting Peter Woods, a bystander, the tall passing nearly through his body, entering a short distance above the navel. Kennedy escaped. The wound would probably prove fatal.

A Southern Trip.—This afternoon Hon. John P. Caine left for the South, and expected to be joined at Provo by Counselor John W. Young, when the two gentlemen proposed making a tour of Gen. Pete Sevier and probably some others of the Southern Counties. One of the leading objects of Delegate Caine's trip is to become more familiar with his constituents and their wants in relation to mail and other facilities.

More Murders at the Park.—At Park City, on Wednesday, Matthew Brennan rode upon Scott Hill, adjacent to the town. He sat upon his horse a while, to the near vicinity of Mr. William Gorham and his assistant, who were surveying, when a shot was heard and Brennan dropped from his horse and expired in a few seconds, a bullet having torn through his body. No other person except the man named Brennan was in sight, but a small body of smoke was seen arising from a clump of brush, the cowardly deed having been done from under cover of an embankment. Suspicion at once rested upon John Murphy, with whom Brennan was at loggerheads about the ownership of some mining property. Both men expected trouble and went about armed. An inquest was held over the body, resulting in a charge of willful murder against Murphy.

The Manner of His Death.—There appeared at first to be some doubt as to the manner in which William Redmon, who was found dead near Ordway, Utah, a short time since, came by his death. The details of his surroundings when discovered, appear to place it beyond doubt that he committed suicide. His pistol was found between his knees with one chamber empty, and he had spread his blankets where he would fall on them. In the end, directly in front of him, he had traced his name with a pointed stick while pinned to his saddle with his knife was a piece of paper on which his name was clearly written.

Redmon was a red handed murderer, having taken a leading part in a fearful tragedy enacted in a little valley in Lake County, Oregon. He had evidently intended to die rather than be arrested, being probably aware that his pursuers were on his track, which was the case.

Found Dead on the Street.

Last evening Edward Pettit observed near his residence in the southwest extremity of the city, an old man passing on the street, apparently much exhausted and depressed. He did not speak as he passed. Shortly afterwards William Garbett called upon Mr. Pettit and informed him that he had seen a man in the same old man lying in the ditch a short distance away, that he had raised him up and held him by the arms, but finding him unable to walk had concluded to obtain a team. The two men then proceeded to the spot where the old man was lying and found him quite dead. The body was placed in Mr. Pettit's wagon and conveyed to the City Hall, where an inquest was held by Coroner Taylor and a jury, at which the foregoing facts were elicited.

No papers were found on the person of the deceased to give a clue to his identity. He was evidently a foreigner, of medium height, and at least seventy years old. His clothing, which was considerably worn, consisted of a blue coat with brass buttons, pants and other garments of coarse material, and new shoes, the latter being nearly new.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that the deceased, who was to the jurors unknown, died from general debility, superinduced by old age.

Since the foregoing was written we have learned from Benton Taylor that the old man had been identified as John Schild Knecht, a native of St. Gallen, Switzerland. He had resided for several years lately in the northern portion of the Eighteenth Ward, and occupied his time in gathering rags. He was addicted to habits of intemperance, which probably hastened his death.

Ladies' Conference.—The Conference of the Relief Society of this Stake will be held in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, on Friday, Sept. 21st, commencing at 10 o'clock a.m., and 2 p.m. Secretaries will prepare written reports and send to the Stake Secretary of the Society as early as September 5th. It is desired by the President, Mrs. M. Isabelle Horne, that each branch of the Relief Society in the Stake should be represented by the President or one of her Counselors. As there is some business to be transacted in which all should be interested, it is hoped there will be a good attendance from all parts of the county. The brethren are cordially invited, especially the Bishops of the several Wards.

The Primary Conference will be held on Saturday morning following, September 22d, in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, and it is desired that there should be a large representation of children present as well as the officers.

The Y. L. M. I. A. Conference will convene in the afternoon at 2 p.m., in the same place. Secretaries of these organizations will please send in their reports as early as possible.

Strong Combination.—Mrs. Bates and Miss Hinchey, two stars celebrated in the theatrical firmament, and particularly well remembered in this city, arrived this morning from California, where they have been playing in the new play of the Red Pocket Book. They are en route to New York, where they open Booth's Theatre on September 15th with the same drama.

Through the endeavors of Mr. H. B. Clawson and a number of other citizens who remembered the highly successful engagements formerly played here by both Mrs. Bates and Miss Hinchey, a conference was held last night in the Green Room at the Theatre, between the Home Dramatic Club and Mr. Lord, the ladies' agent and manager. The result was that a combination was agreed upon for the purpose of putting on the "Red Pocket Book" here next week, and on Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon, Salt Lake will have the pleasure of seeing the last reigning success, and witness our Home Club support foreign stars for the first time since their organization.

More Burglars Tramps.—Some tramps, evidently inspired with sinister motives, paid another visit, last night, to the premises of Brother Isaac Emery, of the Sixteenth Ward. It will be remembered that the gentleman's house was burglarized while he was with a recent Black Rock excursion party. Last evening if the intruders had not scampered, there would probably have been several good tramps strewn around the lot. Henry Parry happened to be near, and on discovering the presence of the vagabonds in the rear he at once started hunting tramps with a gun. Not wishing an interview with him they decamped.

Died away from Home.—A little over three weeks ago Brother David V. Baungett, of Moss, Johnson County, brought his invalid wife, Mrs. Amanda A. Baungett, up to the city in the hope that her health would be benefited by the change, she being afflicted with consumption. The lady gradually sank, however, and expired at the house of Brother Thomas Mitchell, of the 3rd Ward, this morning. The funeral will be conducted at the 9th Ward school house at 10 o'clock to-morrow. Deceased was a native of Sweden, having been from near Stockholm.

Homicide at Beaver Canon.—A Beaver Canon correspondent of the Ogden Herald sends word to that paper that a shooting affray occurred there at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Ephraim Watson and James Thompson, who were working for Van Noy & Co., got into a quarrel in which they grappled each other, and Watson was thrown to the ground. Watson got up and went away and procured a pistol, came back and shot Thompson in the right breast. The character of the wound was not definitely known, but a surgeon had been summoned from Dillon. Watson surrendered himself and was arrested.

CANVASS COMPLETED.

THE RESULT AS ANTICIPATED.

The work of canvassing the returns of the general election was completed to-day, demonstrating, as everybody expected beforehand, that candidates of the People's Party had been elected throughout, without exception. We are enabled now to publish the full list of the members elected to the next Legislature, which is as follows:

CONGRESSMEN.
Franklin S. Richards, Edwin G. Woolley, Wm. W. Chaff, Luther T. Tuttle, James T. Hammond, Robert W. Heybourne, Joel J. Grover, Jonathan S. Page, Heber J. Grant, Heber J. Richards, Wm. W. Taylor, Joseph Barlow.

REPRESENTATIVES.
David H. Peery, Joseph Stanford, John Elder, Aaron Hato, John Boyden, Rees R. Llewellyn, Albert D. Thurber, John Houston, Benjamin F. Cummings, J. J. Howell, Philip F. Farnsworth, Joseph V. Robinson, Oliver G. Snow, Willam H. Dusenberry, Samuel R. Thurman, Wm. Greer, Geo. Webb, J. B. Barr, John Morgan, John Clark, Don Carlos Young, Caleb D. Brinton, Samuel Francis, Chas. L. Anderson.

Theatre.—The Congress of Wonders continues to draw large numbers of both adults and children to witness the curiosities which are presented to the admiring gaze of the attending public. They are all worth seeing, and opportunity is still afforded to all who wish to behold. To-night at 8 o'clock, to-morrow at two and at 8 p.m. will be the remaining chances to see this entertainment at the Theatre.

Ogden Against Salt Lake.—The decisive game of base ball between Ogden and Salt Lake comes off in this city Thursday the 30th. The result of the games played thus far is as follows: in favor of Salt Lake two; in favor of Ogden two; so that Thursday's game will settle the championship.

Excursionists Expected.—Those who have friends in the Cache Valley excursion party who purpose coming home within the limits of the original ticket, may expect them by the regular train this evening. It is more than likely that a goodly number of the excursionists will extend their stay several days.

Only Two Exceptions.—In the matter of Curtis E. Bolton, candidate of the People's Party for the office of Clerk of Platte County, the canvassing board certified to his being elected. As a communication had been received, however, charging him with being a polygamist, his case was referred back to the Commission, for their action and decision.

In the precinct of Granger, this County, the count of votes for Justice of the Peace resulted in a tie between two candidates. The matter was referred to the Commission, and the parties have been notified to appear and have the subject decided by lot.

These were the only instances in which the count did not make matters decisive in the first place.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success.
The success of the John W. Lowell Wagon Co. in making sales of the J. I. Case Agitator Threshers has been most remarkable. Their traveling agent, Mr. E. A. Keeler leaves for Nephi to-day, for the purpose of making a delivery of Eleven of these famous Machines, destined for Sanpete and Sevier Counties.

From all parts of Utah, Nevada, Idaho and Montana, orders are being daily received for the Agitator. Although the sales for 1883 were unprecedentedly large, the sales for 1884 thus far show an increase of over thirty per cent, and from present indications an increased sale of fifty per cent can be looked for ere the season closes. No other threshing machine ever introduced in the Territories has attained such a wonderful popularity as the J. I. Case Agitator.

After eating each meal take a dose of Brown's Iron Bitters. It helps digestion, relieves the full feeling about the stomach.

AYER'S Hair Vigor.

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scalp and dandruff, and keeps the scalp cool and healthy to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and thick, and is perfectly pure, delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O. July 3, 1883: "Last fall my hair began to fall out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been bald in the eyes of the public."

MR. A. C. FARRINGTON, leader of the celebrated "Farrington Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 18, 1883: "I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I speak of it with my own experience. It is a most valuable preparation for the hair, and I speak of it with my own experience. It is a most valuable preparation for the hair, and I speak of it with my own experience.
