

EVENING NEWS. Saturday, Nov. 23, 1883.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Mission.—Elders of the Home Mission of this State will visit the meetings of the country Wards of this State to-morrow.

Priesthood Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held in the Assembly Hall on Saturday, Dec. 2nd, 1883, at 11 a. m. W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk of Stake.

Religious Services.—Religious services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held at the Assembly Hall, to-morrow afternoon, beginning at two o'clock.

Women in Reform.—The lecture, "Women in Reform, Past, Present and Future," will be delivered at the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms on Monday evening, by Mrs. Elizabeth Lisle Saxon, a lady of intellectual standing in the nation. Tickets 25 cents, children 10 cents.

Death of Mother Wilcox.—Mother Sarah Wilcox, well known to many of the Elders in early times who traveled in Sumner, Essex, England, being notable for kindness and hospitality, died last Saturday, at her home, at Herriman. She had reached the advanced age of eighty-three years.

A Dreadful Descent.—On Thursday night, Wilhelm Tingstrom went to the Flagstaff mine, in Little Cottonwood. Not observing the open shaft he fell down it, being precipitated a distance of 300 feet, and was of course, instantly killed. The body was brought to the city last evening. Deceased was 28 years old and a native of Sweden.

The Last.—Collector J. R. Winder makes his final announcement to delinquent taxpayers. On the first day of December he will begin to levy on property and proceed to collect, as required by ordinance, as the 30 days from the date city taxes became delinquent will have expired by that time. Take time by the forelock, while the day of grace remains, and pay up your taxes. Read the notice.

A Useful Pamphlet.—The little forty-page pamphlet entitled "The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, its Priesthood, Organization, Doctrines, Ordinances and History," by Elder John Jacques, has just been issued at this office, and is on sale at 10 cents a copy. It is medium in price, comprising a large amount of valuable information in a brief space. A useful little work. Get it for yourselves and to send to your friends.

The Sugar Works.—At the sugar works of Mr. Arthur Stayer, at Farmington, the first crystallization has passed through the centrifugal machines, the last process, the result being about forty sacks (two tons) of merchantable sugar. In two weeks more it is expected that the second crystallization will reach the same point of completion. With that addition the amount of sugar on hand will reach between three tons and a half and four tons.

Mrs. Saxon.—This is what Woman's World said about the talented lady who will lecture at the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow night:

"Mrs. E. L. Saxon, of New Orleans, is a lady of widespread reputation, and was the president of the heroic band of women in that city who did so much to alleviate the distress of the yellow fever scourge during the last two years. She was the speaker selected by the Women's Suffrage Society of the State of Louisiana, in June last, which she did in a masterly speech of one hour's duration."

Snowville.—An Arnold Goodfellow writes from Snowville, Box Elder County: "We had quite an interesting time in this place on Sunday, Nov. 10th. Four of the Seventies from Malad Valley, Brothers J. Druge, Davis, Roberts and Wm. Williams, paid us a visit as missionaries. They attended the Sunday School, which is under the superintendency of Brother John Eymon. The children went down through their exercises in a very creditable manner. Held meetings in the afternoon and evening. The instructions of these brethren were good and calculated to strengthen the Saints. The health of the people is good, our settlement continues to grow, but still there is room for more."

That Chimney Business.—We have received from Mr. Ed. H. Durnford a detailed statement of the piece of vandalism perpetrated upon him the other day, by the tearing down of some chimneys and filling the flues with brick and debris that he had the contract for building. He includes in his statement a copy of the agreement he made with the latter's work was widely at variance with it. Notwithstanding the alleged wide discrepancy between the work and the special sections, as will be seen by the following extract from the statement, he offered to compromise:

"Now, I then made to him the following proposition: That I would accept the chimney built without any base, and it was on the back part of the building, and that I would accept the width, one and a half bricks instead of two bricks as he agreed upon, if he would pull down the other three to the base and rebuild them the proper height, which he declined to do."

We have not published Mr. Durnford's statement in full, because we do not consider it necessary to bring in the name of the party in a public way who took the sub-contract. Our object in giving publicity to the matter at all was to present an opportunity to condemn an act that appears to be only worthy of

More Missionary Experience.—This morning we were pleased to meet Elder W. H. Bakes, of Beaver, one of the missionaries recently back from the Southern States. He left Beaver on the 6th of November, 1880, and Salt Lake city on the 22nd. He labored in North Carolina and Virginia for one year and four months. This was the old field operated in forty years ago by the late President Jedediah M. Grant. During that time there were about twenty baptisms in that part, although, having been visited and preached in by many Elders, the work was like "gleaning after the vintage."

Elder Bakes next went to South Carolina, where he continued during the balance of his mission. The feeling was generally very favorable among the people toward the Elders. There was but one anti-Mormon meeting, of a combination of people from York County, South Carolina, and Cleveland County, North Carolina. All but about fifteen, who went to the meeting armed, and were mainly deacons of churches, were opposed to the proceedings and friendly to the Elders. Sheriff Logan, of Cleveland County, was in the chair. Threats were uttered against the Elders, but the chairman counseled that peaceable or legal means be employed in expelling the brethren from the country, and advised that they be notified to leave. Consequently a committee attended a meeting held by the Elders on the Sunday following and presented to them certain resolutions directing them to leave the country. The brethren informed the committee that their meeting in an armed body to drive peaceable people out of the State or any portion of it was illegal that they might do as they pleased. The Elders intended to remain, and if any body of men assembled for the purpose of molesting them, they should at once appeal to the Governor for protection. Some of the members of the committee had been in the penitentiary for Ku Klux depredations, and the firm stand of the Elders had the desired effect, as the matter died out.

The reason for Sheriff Logan taking any part in the matter was to gain popularity, as he intended running for office at the recent election. The position he took, however, operated against him to such an extent that he undertook to make a public denial of it, and when Elder Bakes left, his chances for re-election were very moderate.

The work in the field was in good condition, and quite a number are nearly prepared for baptism. Elder Bakes enjoyed his mission, having had good health, with the exception of a few days previous to leaving for home, when he was attacked with chills and fever, from which he is now almost recovered.

A Fine Entertainment.—Last night the beautiful new chapel in the Eighteenth Ward was crowded on the occasion of the concert for the benefit of the building fund. It was one of the most delightful entertainments of a local character ever given in this city. The performers represented a concentration of talent not often brought together. To say that the audience was delighted would scarcely express the appreciation sufficiently strong. Miss Olsen sang with great brilliancy. Miss Louie Wells pleased and astonished everybody by her precision of execution and general excellence. Miss Kittie Haywood's recitation, "Weaving the Web of Life," indicated marked elocutionary ability, the rendition being highly creditable to that young lady. The piano solo by Mrs. Helena Wells was masterly, manifesting brilliant ability in the artistic manipulation of that queen of instruments. Mrs. McIntosh sang with delightful sweetness, with Mr. Whitney, "The Sailor's Song." The singing of both Mr. H. G. Whitney and Mr. J. D. Spencer left nothing to be desired. The accompaniments of Mrs. Faunty Thatcher and Mr. C. S. Burton were highly commendable, aiding materially to the quality of the entertainment.

It is scarcely possible to speak in too high terms of the artistic playing on the violin of Mr. Willard Welthe. His performance created an irrepressible burst of enthusiasm. He played "Home Sweet Home" for an encore. His struck home to the popular heart, being pathos with exquisite touch and melody. He had a masterly accompaniment from Prof. Krouse, who is as much at home with the piano as a scholar with the alphabet.

Messrs H. M. Wells and J. B. Toronto created a great deal of merriment by excellent humorous readings. Miss Ada Dwyer's recitation of "Jamie," one of the most deeply pathetic pieces ever written, was apparently beyond criticism. She received one of the most marked compliments that can be awarded an elocutionist, the tears of the audience, who were mostly carried away with the depth of the feeling she so vividly depicted. We have not heard her reading surpassed, especially in expressing the more tender emotions, by any lady who has ever given a similar rendition in this city.

A number of persons in the audience expressed a wish that the concert be repeated. Much credit is due Messrs. H. G. Whitney, B. S. Young and J. D. Spencer, the managing committee.

Salt Lake Theatre.—On Thanksgiving night and next Saturday the Salt Lake Dramatic Combination purpose presenting the "Colleen Bawn" and "Under the Gaslight," respectively. It will be remembered that the performance of the last named piece was deferred the last time the Combination purpose playing it, on account of the news arriving of the shooting of the late President Garfield, the Theatre being closed from respect to him. Miss Colebrook, Miss Della Clawson, Miss Platt, Mr. McKenzie, Mr. Lindsey, Mr. Graham, and many others will be in the cast of both pieces.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph office for Jno. Parkin, James Moffat, Ross Carlin.

Grading Contracts.—We understand that Conde & Bart have been awarded a large grading contract on the Denver & Rio Grande Western R. R., between this city and Ogden. Considerable work will also be done by farmers along the line through whose land the road will pass.

Perforated His Proboresis.—Wednesday's Cheyenne Sun says: "A young man while riding across the prairie near the city limits yesterday was struck by a ball from a pistol or small rifle. The ball struck him on one side of the nose and passed out at the other, making a painful wound. He was taken to Dr. Corey's office and the injury was dressed. He did not hear the report of any firearm either before or after he was struck, and the inference is that some boys, while out shooting at a mark, caused the injury sustained by him."

Dumped Out.—Last evening a two-wheeled conveyance of Messrs. Bowring Brothers was being driven up Main street, with three boys in it. When the outfit struck the excavation being made for the Z. C. M. I. new crossing, the whole conveyance was capsize, horse, vehicle and boys. Mr. James Currie rushed to the horse's head and held it down to prevent the lads getting hurt. Other assistance soon arrived and the whole arrangement was soon set on end. One of the boys thought from the nature of the tumble that he ought to be hurt and uttered a few groans. Finding he was in error he stopped making a noise and the three lads drove off, seemingly very little the worse for having been unconsciously dumped out upon the road.

Carelessness.—Wednesday, on the State Road, within the corporate limits of the city, a trio of youngsters put a tin can on a fence and were about to engage in rifle practice. One of the three was in the act of raising his gun when a gentleman driving along the road observed a couple of men standing conversing directly in line with the boy's aim and within twenty-three rods of the weapon. Seeing the danger, the gentleman shouted to the lad and succeeded in making him desist from firing. Had it not been for this interposition there might have been another necessity for an inquest, caused by careless shooting.

Too many boys in this city are allowed to carry firearms about. It is astonishing that their parents permit them to do it.

Appointed.—The Millennial Star of the 6th inst. announces the following appointments: Timothy Gilbert and Samuel R. Western are appointed Traveling Elders in the Birmingham Conference; Charles H. Rhee in the Bristol; Robert Hunter and John McGarrick in the Glasgow; George Brough and James Wrathall in the Leeds; Joseph Graham and George Wilson in the Liverpool; John L. Bunch, Joseph A. A. Bunot, Leo H. C. Clawson, Francis Gibbons and George C. Lambert in the London; James Briggs and John R. Holt in the Manchester; Henry Green, J. D. Hirt, Wm. Wagstaff, Ephraim H. Williams and John Williams in the Nottingham; Benjamin Bennett and Hyrum Davenport in the Sheffield; and John Jenkins in the Welsh Conference.

W. Willie is released from being Traveling Elder in the Liverpool Conference, and is appointed Traveling Elder in the Bristol Conference.

Arrived at Liverpool.—The Millennial Star of November 6th says: "The B. S. Wyoming, of the Galun Line, which sailed from New York Oct. 24th, and arrived at Liverpool Nov. 3rd, brought the following named missionaries: George C. Lambert, Joseph A. A. Bunot, A. Amundson, Leo H. Clawson, C. H. Rhee, George Brough, John Olsen, C. H. Stenstrom, Olaf Jorgensen, Peter J. Lamson, Gustave Anderson, John R. Holt, John Jenkins, Carl A. Ek, John McQuarrie, John W. V.
