The people of Hot Sulphur Springs are inclined to the belief that it is a are inclined to the belief that it is a coal fire. For several months men have been prospecting for coal in that region, and it is thought that pros-pectors discovered a deposit, and in order to test its quality, set some on fire. This theory is supported by the fact that since the heavy snow fall last night the fire is scarcely visible from

Salt Lake Hotelman Will Not Manage the Famous Fairmont.

Landlord G. S. Hoimes of the Knutsford hotel returned this morning from San Francisco, where he went in connection with the proposed Fairmont hotel deal. Mr. Holmes says that before he cares to consider the matter further, the street approaches will have to be cut down, as the present condition of the streets places the hotel at a disadvantage with the other hotels; and moreover, the other hotels are faand moreover, the other hotels are fa-vored by having street cars run direct from the Market street ferry, while to reach the Fairmont, a transfer is nec-essary. This, too will have to be chang-ed. Mr. Holmes states that he called the attention of Mrs. Oelfichs to this last summer, but it is only lately that the force of his suggestions was rep-ognized, and now Mrs. Oelfichs is after the city council and the traction com-pany.

Saturday's San Francisco Examiner saturday's san Francisco Examiner has quite an article on the Fairmont, and states that Mrs. Gel-richs will manage the hotel herself, rejecting all offers, and has appointed a manager at a handsome salary who will act under Mrs. Gelrichs diraction. The Evanting area for these chiraction. The Examiner says Gereiche-diraction. The Examiner says further: "She has had talks with Colonel J. C. Kirkpatrick of the Palace hotel, with G. S.
