

CLIPPINGS.

—A San Francisco pedestrian, John Jones, recently offered to walk from there to New York in 100 days, drawing a hand-cart; then, after crossing the Atlantic, to walk from Liverpool to London in 45 hours; and afterwards, via Dover and Calais, to Paris. All he wants is a well provisioned hand-cart.

—The sexton found a $100 bill, while sweeping the church at Plymouth, Mass., recently; one of the deacons claimed it, and they have gone to law to see whose it is.

At the last distribution of public charity in Cork, Ireland, the town clerk says "he got sick, giving out blankets to drunkards."

—A catholic priest at Foix, France, has been recently fined $20 for planting potatoes in the cemetery. On appealing to the Imperial Court, at Toulouse, the fine was doubled instead of remitted.

—Rats, Goats, Camels, and Jackasses, having taken the place of actors on the Paris stage, the indignant successors of Moliere and Racine are petitioning the Emperor to interdict the menagerie mania.

—Sweden contains 80 cotton mills, running 180,000 spindles, which produce every year about 12,000,000 pounds of cotton thread, being three-fourths of the entire national consumption. The tariff on the cotton thread is 15 per cent., affording adequate protection to the native manufacturer.

—Mr. Whitworth lately assured an English M. P. that he could build a ship impregnable against any guns—a ship perfectly unsmashable by fire arms—which could be taken within six miles of a fort, and thence pour into it molten iron at discretion.

—The Opinione of Turin states, that Count Ercole Mastai, a nephew of the present Pope, and late captain of the Staff in the Pontifical army, has offered his services to the King of Italy, who has accepted them, granting him the same rank in the Italian army.

—The New Suspension Bridge at Grand Falls, N. B. has been opened for travel. Its length is 204 feet; from bed of river, 110 feet. The bridge is suspended by two cables of 1,000 wires each, from towers 25 feet in height. Each wire capable of sustaining 1,200 pounds. The bridge was loaded with 65 tons for several days to stretch the wires. Its entire cost $28,000.

—It is "next to impossible" to levy the taxes in Hungary. The goods and chattels of debtors to the state—nobles as well as plebeians—are day by day brought to the hammer, but no one in Hungary dares purchase property taken in execution.

—Henry Wilkins, a tanner in London, C. W., died recently from hydrophobia, having, it is supposed, taken the infection from hides while in the process of tanning.

—In St. Louis, recently, a man and his wife were engaged in arranging for a separation. The principal difficulty was the baby, which the woman tearfully begged to be allowed to keep, while the man angrily refused. At length the wife almost threw the child into the husband's arms, and exclaimed, "take it, I can soon have another!"

—A pack of 100 wolves chased the mail carrier between Dennison and Decatur, Iowa, coolly in the winter. He threw away all his clothing to aid his flight, and took refuge in a tree; in the morning he was found by a passing traveler, insensible and frozen, having fallen out of the tree.

—The abolition of the penny stamp duty in England has created great competition among newspapers. The London Times has reduced its price from ten to four cents per copy.

—A physician in Cincinnati, Ohio, had, for some time been much annoyed, by depredators, who drank up the milk left at the door-step at an early hour. One day recently he left an emetic in the pitcher, and soon after the milkman had passed, the doctor found a policeman in a neighboring ally, "making his returns."

—Mr. Bowlby, of the London Times, who was killed by the Chinese, will live in the history of journalism, as he was the first correspondent of a daily paper who has received the crown of martyrdom while engaged in his professional duties in a distant land.

—The people of Warrenton, N. C., not satisfied with compelling Mr. Christian King, an old line Whig, to vote for Breckinridge, recently treated him in a most brutal manner, because, pleading his age—65 years—he refused to enroll his name as a military volunteer. They went to his jewelry store, clipped half of his hair, stripped part of his body, and gave him a coat of tar; they then tarred his wife's head. Having packed up his stock of valuables, he, with his wife, started North next morning.

—The boring of Artesian wells have been carried out with great success in the province of Constantine, in Algeria, 50 wells have been opened since 1856, which yield, altogether, about 13,000,000 gallons in the course of 24 hours. These borings were executed with three sets of boring apparatus only, at an expense, exclusive of the cost of the apparatus, of about $500 for each of the 50 wells.

—Twenty patriots of the Revolution died during the past year, 82 are all that are now left.

—During the last session of the English House of Commons, it is said that 19,173 speeches were delivered. The leading men, like Gladstone, Russell, Palmerston, etc., spoke seldom. Lord Stanley only nine times. The lesser lights sparkled often. For instance, Mr. Ayrton spoke 217 times; Mr. James, 196; Mr. Newdegate, 123; Mr. Bouverie, 120; Mr. Hennessey, 109; Mr. Malins, 103; Mr. Griffiths, 101. Nine Metropolitan members made 950 speeches.

—Mrs. M. A. German, widow of Obadiah German, U. S. Senator for New York, from 1803 to 1815, died in great destitution, at Syracuse, on Sunday. Robbed of $70,000 at her husband's death, by his brother, she struggled on, spotless in character, neglected and unbelieved, trying to eke an existence by fancy work. Mrs. German was over 70 years old.

—The Charleston Mercury advises the immediate importation of a couple of million of Africans, whom it calls "cannibals," into South Carolina. Prentice asks if there isn't some danger that so many cannibals might some morning eat up for breakfast, all the white folks in that little State, and then start off for Florida for their dinner?

Save your Paper Rags.

The inhabitants of Utah are requested to gather up and save their worn out wagon covers, and every description of cotton and linen rags for paper making, and deliver them, from time to time, to the Bishops of the several Wards, or the 'News' and 'Mountaineer' Offices or their agents, for which, when clean, they will be allowed five cents a pound. The rags can be sufficiently cleansed in pure water, without soap.

It is expected that, in a few months, all who wish can receive paper in exchange for rags.
