SENATOR ZACH. CHANDLER.

Further Particulars of His Death, and Preparations for His Funeral.

CHICAGO, 1.—The Western branch of the Republican National Committee, Republican State Central Committee, Cook County Republican Central Committee and Republican Campaign Executive Committee of Cook county, speaking on behalf of the republicans of the North and West, and of Illinois and of the county of Cook, recognizing in the sudden death of Senator Chandler, of Michigan, chairman of the National Republican Committee, a great public calamity, have adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

Resolved, That the death of Senator Chandler has been a great loss to the republicans of the North and West, and of Illinois and of the county of Cook, and that the republicans of the North and West, and of Illinois and of the county of Cook, recognize in the sudden death of Senator Chandler, of Michigan, chairman of the National Republican Committee, a great public calamity, and that the republicans of the

and of the county of Cook, recognize in the sudden death of

Senator Chandler, of Michigan,

chairman of the National Re-

lic calamity, and that the republicans of the North and West, and of Illinois and of the county of Cook, recognize in the sudden death of Senator Chandler, of Michigan, chairman of the National Republican Committee, a great public calamity, and that the republicans of the North and West, and of Illinois and of the county of Cook, recognize in the sudden death of Senator Chandler, of Michigan, chairman of the National Republican Committee, a great public calamity,

Senator Chandler, of Michigan, chairman of the National Republican Committee, a great public calamity, which will appear in the Register to-morrow, Gov. Palmer says: "The Register is willing to state that his error of action arose from a mistake as to the theory of government, and that his stern opposition to the unity and fraternity of the North and South was the result of honest conviction. In public life Mr. Chandler was honest and never charged with using political for private gain."

The last words of the distinguished man were spoken at about 11.30 last night to his friend, Jesse Spaulding. He said on bidding him to-night: "Well, Mr. Spaulding, I am glad to see you. After I have delivered my speech in Detroit on Monday night, I shall be through. We have had a pleasant trip together and met a great many pleasant and prominent gentlemen, and I hope before long we shall see each other again."

News of Senator Chandler's death reached the headquarters of the Republican Central Committee at a time when the room was filled with republican leaders from all over the North and South, as might be expected, and the intelligence created a profound impression. The Michigan

Senator, while in this city two weeks ago, was a frequent visitor to the rooms, and became personally acquainted with all the members, and learned to admire and love him for his warm-hearted disposition and sterling qualities. Secretary Johnson said that the Senator's death is a fearful blow to the republican cause, which can ill afford to lose such a man at this time. Suitable action will be taken by the committee and the republicans of this city in relation to his death soon.

News of the Senator's death created almost as profound a sensation at the Robinson headquarters as at the rooms of the republican opponents. The majority, while opposed to the principles of "Old Zack," admired his pluck and "backbone."

Chicago, 1.—The friends and relatives of deceased objected to a complete post mortem examination. The body has been placed in a suitable casket and ordered prepared for burial. Leonard W. Volk, the sculptor, took a cast of the head this afternoon, which he made, it being a cast of the entire head instead of the face as is usual.

Portland, Me., 1.—Mrs. Eugene

Hale, daughter of Senator Chandler, started for Chicago to-day, accompanied by Clarence Hale, her husband being too ill to make the journey.

Washington, 1.—Secretary

Schurz on hearing of the death of his predecessor, caused the flag of the interior department to be placed at half mast and ordered the building draped in mourning.

The President this afternoon sent a telegram of sympathy to Mrs.

Chandler.

Tilden's Taxes.

NEW YORK, 1.—The examination of James B. Colgate & Co. in the suit brought by the government against Samuel J. Tilden for arrears of income tax, was continued today. Judge Choate, before whom the question of the production of the books of the firm was pending, gave a decision that the United States Commissioner could not compel witnesses to produce his books as they were only required to refresh his memory.

The case was then resumed before the United States Commissioner, and witnesses said his firm was a trading house with Mr. Tilden, the nature and extent of which he did not know.

Witnesses were then questioned as to what they were, and he replied he had no recollection or impression about them, and could not answer the question.

A great many orders had been taken from Mr. Tilden in the way of business of which no record was made, but witness supposed some
