

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

The week opened with a notably pleasant breeze in the way of the breakfast given on Monday at the Commercial club by members of the Reviewers in honor of Mrs. C. G. Plummer, the retiring president of the club. The decorations were carnations in pink and dark red, the club colors, and favors in hand-painted designs in the two colors were given each guest by Mrs. W. F. Adams, Mrs. F. A. Vincent was hostess, and Mrs. Hal Brown toastmaster, and preceding the breakfast Mrs. Brown sang several selections. Mrs. E. O. Lee responded to the first toast in a complimentary speech to the retiring president, who responded, and introduced the new president, Mrs. C. D. Moore, who spoke on "Club Fraternity." Mrs. Wightman responded to the toast "The Woman Who Does." Mrs. Royce to "Black Numbers," Mrs. Wedgewood, "The Reviewers," Mrs. Richards, "Good Fellowship," Mrs. Jones, "The Breakfast," Mrs. Adams, a humorous review of the work of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickey gave a delightful reception on Monday night in honor of Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Koepsel, who leave shortly for Kansas to make their home. Mr. Koepsel has been pastor of the Third church, and the affair was given by the members. A large number were present to enjoy the pleasant affair.

Mrs. Hal W. Brown and Miss Drew entertained at a delightful reception this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Brown. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the hostesses were assisted by a number of their intimate friends. A large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hooper Dunbar was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Arthur Shepherd. The tables were beautifully decorated in red and green, these colors being also carried out in the refreshments. The guests numbered thirty, and were seated at seven small tables.

Mrs. E. O. Lee entertained the members of her Sunday school class at the home of Mrs. W. A. Price on Thursday night, the evening being most delightfully spent.

On Wednesday night the members of the Twelfth Infantry band gave an enjoyable hop at the post.

Mrs. F. N. Hess gave a pretty appointed luncheon on Tuesday for her mother, Mrs. Shaw, who leaves in a short time to make her home in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomas entertained at dinner on Tuesday night in honor of Y. and Mrs. Fred Harris and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ferrell of Boise. The decorations were in pink and white and the others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Horrocks of New York, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Croil and Miss Beatrice Thomas.

Miss Grace D. Davis entertained at dinner on Monday night in honor of Dean Henry L. Southwick, at whose college she was at one time a student.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Wilkes entertained at a Welsh rarebit supper on Monday night.

Mrs. Jack Keogh on Tuesday gave a luncheon at the Knutsford in honor of Miss Katherine Leonard. The table was laid in the private dining room and was decorated with white carnations and ferns. The place cards were in hand painted designs and the favors silk American flags. Besides Miss Leonard the guests were Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. William Manning O'Brien, Mrs. James Neill, Mrs. Keryn, Mrs. Myers,

Miss McCormick, Miss Rookledge, Miss Noble, the Misses Kinney.

The returned German missionaries tendered an informal reception last Thursday evening in honor of their esteemed friend, Miss Emma Ramsey, renewing old friendships and bringing up pleasant reminiscences of delightful times when all were working together in "Alt Deutschland." Mr. A. H. Schultze announced that they would have one of the old time "good times" just as they used to have in far away Germany. Mr. Schultze made a neat speech, welcoming home Miss Ramsey, one of Utah's song-birds, after which an impromptu program of pleasing merit was carried out, consisting of German songs, humorous recitations, etc. Miss Ramsey sang two beautiful selections, playing her own accompaniment and singing into the hearts of her friends. Lewis Ramsey, who is an artist painter, also gave "The Mocking Bird" with variations. Light refreshments were served, consisting of German ice cream, "Zwieback" and "Kuchen," after which all joined in a delightful dance. Every one present pronounced the affair a genuine success.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Byron B. James, of New York, president of the women's home missionary board of the Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and a large number called during the afternoon.

The school leopards and other functions have been among the week's notable affairs.

Mrs. Rachel Miller entertained at a delightful dinner on Thursday night. The decorations were pinks and pastels, and were exceptionally pretty. Covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Arthur Bird entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday.

Mrs. Don Carlos Roberts entertained informally at tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Ridgeway of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles Wilkes entertained informally on Thursday in honor of Mrs. McClintock.

Mrs. C. H. McCoy was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. Newton of Boise, who is a guest of Mrs. L. M. May.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rookledge entertained a few friends informally on Wednesday evening.

The Misses Sherman entertained at a lawn party this evening, in honor of Miss Donnellan.

Major and Mrs. Smith entertained delightfully at cards last night at the fort.

Miss Louise Moyle entertained at a pleasant afternoon affair on Monday in honor of Miss Katherine Squires.

The engagement of Miss Ruth Winter, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Winter, and Francis B. Davis of Denver is announced, the wedding to take place this month.

Col. and Mrs. J. W. Donnellan announce the engagement of their daughter, Edna, to Lieut. Moor N. Falls of Fort Douglas. The marriage will not take place till some time in November.

Mrs. C. E. Leith announces the engagement of her daughter, Ella Leone, to Mr. William St. Clair Theobald. The wedding will take place on Wednesday evening, June 10, at the home of the bride's mother, at 15 West Eighth South street.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Broughall entertained at a most delightful dinner at the Kenyon hotel on Tuesday evening, in honor of one of New York City's most eminent surgeons, Dr. Clement Cleveland, and wife, who have been their guests.

Invited to meet the guests of honor were Bishop and Mrs. Leonard, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Daly.

Dr. and Mrs. Clement Cleveland of New York City, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Broughall at the Kenyon hotel, left on Wednesday afternoon for their home, after an extended visit throughout the west.

On Sunday evening last, an elaborate dinner was given at the Alta club by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Daly in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Broughall, and their guests, Dr. and Mrs. Clement Cleveland of New York City.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Miss Norma Dickert and Joseph Greiss Sawyer on Wednesday night was celebrated in one of the most elaborate of home weddings. The rooms were decorated lavishly and most artistically, a large window, the drawing room served as a floral altar before which the bridal party stood. Across it hung a curtain of smilax, and on each side was a pedestal twined with ferns, one surmounted with a vase of white roses, and the other with a palm. In the window above stood a cabinet covered with white roses and ferns and holding gold candelabra, and all about the rooms were snowballs, white carnations, and ferns. Great numbers of ponies made the library brilliant, and the diningroom was exquisitely done in green and white. A lattenberg spread covered the table which was clouded in tulle. From two corners extended streamers of green ribbon to the chandelier, and at the two opposite corners were cut glass vases of white carnations and plumosa.

The lace curtains had large green leaves in hour shape turned on them adding in the pretty effect. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Bishop Leonard, with Rev. Charles Perkins assisting, the bride being attended by her sister, Miss Dickert, and the groom by his brother, Mr. A. B. Sawyer. The bride wore a handsome gown of white embroidered chiffon and the bridesmaid white and lavender gingham. A large reception was held and afterward Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer left for the coast. Assisting the bridal party in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sawyer, Mrs. Wilcox, of Spokane, Mrs. M. E. Sowles, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Rachel S. Miller, Mrs. Terhune, Mrs. Theodore Meyer, Miss Thorne presided in the diningroom. Others assisting in serving were Mrs. A. B. Wilcher, Mrs. Percy G. Perkins, Miss Alta Miller, Miss Majorie Miller, Miss Lucy Gaby, Miss Sude Sawyer, Miss Edna Terhune and Master Dilbert Dickert.

Another charming home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Katherine Squires and Sidney C. Smith, which took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Squires, Bishop O. E. Whitney officiating. The parlor in which the ceremony was performed was done in pink carnations and ferns and the bridal party stood under a large floral bell done in carnations. The sitting room was prettily decorated in white and green and the diningroom in red, white green predominated in the hall. The ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock in the presence of near relatives and friends, and afterward a large reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home to their friends after July 1, at 124 Canyon road.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Gittinger announce the engagement of their daughter, Rowena, to Mr. Abram Hatch, Jr., of Heber City, the marriage to take place June 17.

Miss Elizabeth Bain and Miss Mabel Corbin left this week for Denver, where they will visit for a short time before going on east.

Miss Palma Corlies of Minneapolis is in the city and will be the guest for a short time of Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson.

Mrs. Alma Denbigh Katz is down from Boise and will spend a short time with relatives and friends in the city.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and Miss Salisbury have returned from their trip to the coast.

Mrs. A. M. McGuire of Bingham left this week for Calena, Ill., for a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Harding Martin of Cody, Wyo., will arrive in the city next week to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Henderson.

Mrs. E. L. Drake leaves shortly for the East to spend the summer.

Mrs. S. H. McDowell has gone to Denver to spend a month with her daughter.

Henry Kerwin, son of Mrs. Patrick Kerwin of this city, will return to Salt Lake from Georgetown university next week to spend the summer with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Warren left this week for a two months' visit in the east.

E. P. Shaw of Ontario, Ore., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Druhel have sailed from New York. They will go direct to London, and later will visit all over the continent. They will be gone the better part of a year.

Mrs. Robert G. Smith, who has spent the past few months in San Francisco, will be home tomorrow.

Miss Starling of Rowland hall leaves this morning for her home in Kentucky.

Mrs. Richard Stevens Eskridge of Seattle returns to her home in that city the latter part of next week, after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. David Keith.

Mrs. Howland Hansen and daughter of Belmont, Wis., have gone to Idaho to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Dubois, after a pleasant stay in Salt Lake City.

Richard A. Keyes has returned from his trip to California.

Mrs. Fred Simon and children leave shortly for California to spend the summer.

Charles H. Joy of Mercur left yesterday morning for his home, after a visit of several days with his sister, Mrs. E. W. Wilson of this city.

Mrs. George Matthews is in the city for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Delyard M. Bailey. Mrs. Matthews has many friends here who will be glad to see her once more.

Miss Winifred Smith of Beaver is a guest of Miss Lucy Latimer.

Mrs. Lowther and daughter, Miss Edith, leave shortly for the east, to be gone some weeks.

Mrs. J. J. Judson and son will leave shortly for the east to pass the summer months.

Rev. and Mrs. John Richelson are now at home to their friends at 137 North Main street.

Mrs. Pardee of Fort Douglas left Tuesday morning to spend the summer in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Barth is expected home from Leavenworth next week, after a pleasant visit of some weeks with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher are back from the east where they have been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger left on Thursday evening for a two weeks' visit in Portland, Ore.

Miss Jessie Goddard leaves today for Portland, Ore., to visit her parents before starting on her European trip.

Mrs. Castleman and Miss Lashbrook of Mercur are guests of Mrs. Charles H. Lashbrook of this city.

Miss Kate MacKenzie will spend the summer in California.

Mrs. Allen B. Sopris of Denver left on Wednesday evening for her home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aldous and daughter have returned from their visit to California.

Mrs. William C. Jennings and son left yesterday for New York, from which port they will sail on June 13, for Paris.

Ernest Wencott of California, is visiting his father, W. M. Wencott, at his home on Ninth East street.

Mrs. J. E. Williams and daughter Ruby have been for Baltimore, where they will be guests of Dr. W. S. Evans and family. Miss Ruby intends taking a course of music at the Peabody institute.

Mrs. Sam Porter left Wednesday for Chicago, where she will visit her parents for about a month.

Walter Trent, who has been attending Stanford university during the past year has arrived in the city to spend the summer.

Miss Beta Kahn leaves today to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kahn, who are visiting in San Francisco.

Mrs. S. T. Pearson has returned from a year's visit in England and is at home to her friends at the Knutsford.

Mrs. E. P. Le Compte and Mr. Edward Le Compte are the guests of Mrs. W. I. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver have moved to the Miller flats where they are at home to their friends.

Miss Ida Hanauer will spend the summer with friends in the Adirondacks and will not return to Salt Lake until fall.

Miss Griffin of Denver is in the city for some time, the guest of Mrs. Edward Richards, on Eighth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are at home in their new apartments in the Miller flats.

Mrs. John W. Donnellan and the Misses Donnellan have returned to Salt Lake to spend the summer.

Mrs. C. P. Overfield, Mr. John Van Brunt and Mr. Gordon Rutelins left Tuesday for the east. Mr. Van Brunt leaves Salt Lake permanently, but the others go only for brief trips to Denver and St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rookledge and Miss Blanche Kimball left Wednesday for a week's visit in Denver.

Miss Rose Homer, teacher of Domestic science in the B. Y. college, Logan, and Miss Matilda Peterson, training teacher of the same school spent a few days in Salt Lake this week en route to Europe, where they expect to spend four or five months making a tour with their brothers.

Mrs. J. H. Jones and Mrs. Francis Tate and mother have gone east for an extended visit among relatives.

OF ORGANDIE AND LACE.

Charming costume of black and white organdie, with applications of black Escorial lace. First made with circular flounce. Waist trimmed in bolero effect, with deep yoke over shoulders of the lace. The sleeve opens over undersleeves of white soft muslin. Girdle of black ribbon. Hat of white straw, trimming of tulle lace and jet.

Miss Mercy R. Baker went to Logan this week to assist in the commencement exercises of the B. Y. college.

Miss Beta Kahn leaves today to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kahn, who are visiting in San Francisco.

Mrs. S. T. Pearson has returned from a year's visit in England and is at home to her friends at the Knutsford.

Mrs. E. P. Le Compte and Mr. Edward Le Compte are the guests of Mrs. W. I. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver have moved to the Miller flats where they are at home to their friends.

Miss Ida Hanauer will spend the summer with friends in the Adirondacks and will not return to Salt Lake until fall.

Miss Griffin of Denver is in the city for some time, the guest of Mrs. Edward Richards, on Eighth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are at home in their new apartments in the Miller flats.

Mrs. John W. Donnellan and the Misses Donnellan have returned to Salt Lake to spend the summer.

Mrs. C. P. Overfield, Mr. John Van Brunt and Mr. Gordon Rutelins left Tuesday for the east. Mr. Van Brunt leaves Salt Lake permanently, but the others go only for brief trips to Denver and St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rookledge and Miss Blanche Kimball left Wednesday for a week's visit in Denver.

Miss Rose Homer, teacher of Domestic science in the B. Y. college, Logan, and Miss Matilda Peterson, training teacher of the same school spent a few days in Salt Lake this week en route to Europe, where they expect to spend four or five months making a tour with their brothers.

Mrs. J. H. Jones and Mrs. Francis Tate and mother have gone east for an extended visit among relatives.

Miss Beta Kahn leaves today to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kahn, who are visiting in San Francisco.

Mrs. S. T. Pearson has returned from a year's visit in England and is at home to her friends at the Knutsford.

Mrs. E. P. Le Compte and Mr. Edward Le Compte are the guests of Mrs. W. I. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver have moved to the Miller flats where they are at home to their friends.

Miss Ida Hanauer will spend the summer with friends in the Adirondacks and will not return to Salt Lake until fall.

Miss Griffin of Denver is in the city for some time, the guest of Mrs. Edward Richards, on Eighth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are at home in their new apartments in the Miller flats.