OUR SAN FRANCISCO LETTER

Wedding in the Lion's Den—Fisticuffs, Takes and Fatness—A Dazed But Doughty Football Player—Notes.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 1st, 1897.—"In Gay New York" holds its pretty chorus girls who are at present monopolizing the attention of the local chappies; the Theodore Durrant murder case, and the Choynski-Jeffries fight on Tuesday night, have furnished fruitful topics for the gossips the past week.

Durrant's chances of escaping the gallows seem to grow slimmer every day as one after another the technical legal props are pulled from under him. Every point of law in which he has appealed to the state supreme court has been returned with an adverse decision and now it is doubtful if he can ever again secure a footing upon which to perfect another appeal.

The so-called boxing exhibition and physical culture entertainment, but more commonly known as a prize fight, in which Messrs. Choynski and Jeffries participated by pounding and bruising one another in true brute fashion, came off as scheduled and was probably one of the best attended performances of the kind held in San Francisco for some months. Old and young alike took an interest in the outcome of the contest, perhaps none more so Choynski's popularity than to anything else. Judging from the many thousands of dollars that passed into the pool boxes the popularity of both men is pretty well established. The battle lasted for twenty rounds and was decided a draw, which decision seems to have given general satisfaction to all parties concerned. It was a contest of science over brute strength and as neither had any decided advantage, the referee could not do otherwise than decide it as he did.

Sightseers and visitors at the Chutes last Sunday, and some attended for no other purpose, witnessed one of the greatest frauds that was ever offered to a curious public. Exhibition marriages at county fairs and such places are not uncommon occurrences, and the principals are generally excusable for the publicity attached thereto, as it often means a start in life for some of them; but when a couple become so mercenary as to enter a lion's cage with the wild beasts as witnesses, to have the wedding knot tied, and openly exhibit themselves to the curious gaze of a pork of hungry curiosity seekers for a few paltry dollars, it is time some one stepped in and put a stop to the foolish and outrageous notion. The event had been advertised as a drawing card and great preparations had been made for the thrilling scene. The principals, two old-known down variety performers who had long since lost their personal dignity and self-respect, had been rehearsed time and again, and the minister had been secured to tie the knot; but at the last minute the worthy gentleman decided he did not care for the notoriety accompanying the task and therefore failed to put in an appearance. To prevent a disappointment for the crowd a marriage by contract was finally arranged and a prize-fighter selected to read the ceremony, which was carried out. The secretary for the society for the suppression of vice attempted to stop the proceedings but was bested and kissed at and finally withdrew. The whole thing was a farce and a humbug, but it has been said the American public likes fakes and humbugs and in this respect it was accommodated.

Speaking of freaks and dime museum fakes, one was recalled to mind in the death of a woman in this city a few days ago who was sought after in life as a candidate for the fat woman honors, but to her efforts to appear in public she turned a deaf ear. Her name was Teresa Berdoz, and realizing that her enormous weight was a curse, she kept very much indoors. During the last ten years she has been steadily taking on flesh until at the age of 47, when she died, she weighed 560 pounds. It was necessary to make a special coffin in which to bury her remains and it required the combined strength of ten men to act as pall bearers.

There has been a great deal of nonsense among the cigar dealers since the nickel-in-the-slot machines were placed on the market, but the success of this gambling device has marked a decided decrease in the business receipts. When the order was issued the cigar dealers agreed to stand by one another and refuse to clear the coins to remove the machines from their counters. It was their intention to allow a couple of arrests to follow so that a test case could be made. Sure enough this followed and now the cigar dealers are collecting subscriptions toward a fund to fight the cases in the courts. About $1,000 has already been collected and a test case will be argued before the matter is finally settled.

Such a thing as a soldier sleeping on the march and in the horseback ride sleeping in the saddle while the steed was going at a rapid pace have been established beyond a doubt as a matter of fact. A University California football player is to perform a feat equally as hard if not harder and much more remarkable, though he proposes doing it for by the entire eleven. While playing at Reno, Nevada, on Thanksgiving day, Nat Gallagher, the 150-pound second eleven received a jar on the head, from the effects of which he went into a trance and he did not awaken until few hours after the game had been won. What makes the case so remarkable is the fact that while under the influence of the drug he played all through the game and made some very brilliant plays at critical moments during its progress. Two hours the game lasted and when it had taken it both and dressed himself he came to and established his ownership by inquiring how much he had contributed toward the victory they had won.

It is rumored about the steamship circles that a new steamship line will be in operation between this city and Chicago before the year is very far advanced. Some sort of an agreement has been entered into between the Japanese steamship company and the Pacific Mail and Occidental and Oriental steamship companies whereby the former company has agreed to make the city the eastern terminus of their route. This will mean considerable to the trade of San Francisco.

The following well known Lakers are registered at the Occidental: W. W. Noble and the Misses Noble and S. H. Harris at the Grand; R. Lachenmeth at the Baldwin.
