

SOCIETY

Christmas week has been a busy one, beginning with the reception given at the McCormick residence on Monday, and continuing throughout New Year's. It will witness the same festivity, and the date will be celebrated in the usual number of watch parties tonight.

A truly delightful affair was the reception given by Mrs. Bird and Miss McCormick. The handsome McCormick home was beautifully decorated, the prevailing holiday colors adding an effective note of brilliancy. Holly, mistletoe and American Beauty roses were used, and in the dining room a festive decoration was the evergreen Christmas tree in radiance on the table. Assisting the hostesses in receiving were Mrs. McCormick and her sisters, and assisting in serving the various forms of refreshment were the Misses Xaxon, Geddes, Kinney, Kirkpatrick, Judge and Salisbury. The hours were from 5 to 7.

On Tuesday a second brilliant affair took place in the ball given by the Misses Kirkpatrick at the Knutsford. The two ordinaries were used for dancing, and were effectively decorated, and Christensen's orchestra rendered the music. The men were in masks and dominoes, and the girls had the leap-year privilege of choosing partners. Refreshments were served in the dining room from tables bright with holly and lit with red candles. About 80 guests were present.

Miss Edith Sutherland entertained at a delightful evening party on Tuesday night, the amusement being "80." Red was the prevailing color in the decorations, carnations, pansies and holly berries being everywhere. About 40 guests enjoyed the evening.

Miss Stella Salisbury entertained the bridge club at her home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Evans gave a pretty Christmas-tree party on Wednesday, for their little daughters, Lucille and Irma, a number of their playmates being present.

One of the largest and most enjoyable affairs of the week was the ball given by the local members of the United Commercial Travelers in Thursday night.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger was hostess at a delightful luncheon on Thursday, given in honor of Mrs. Ernest Bamberger. The affair took place at the Alta club, the gold and red rooms being used, and beautifully decorated for the occasion. Each table had a centerpiece of a basket of maidenhair fern and violets, and violets were strewn over the cloth, while butterfly bows of white tulle, edged with pink ribbon, completed the dainty scheme. The place cards were hand-painted wreaths of violets. An innovation was the playing of a game of keno between courses, prizes being awarded at the end of the luncheon. Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. J. B. Coe, Mrs. A. E. Walker and Miss Mason were prize winners.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Everett Buckingham gave an elaborate luncheon at which they announced the engagement of their daughter, Darline, to Lynn Kemper of Omaha. The decorations were in the prevailing red and green, and present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Wing B. Allen, Mrs. A. E. Kimball, Miss Sarah Alexander, Wayne Hemphill and Ashby Cleveland.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. King entertained at dinner on Wednesday night, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lyman, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Gahan and Stanley Hanks.

About 40 guests enjoyed the evening party given by Morton Lewis on Wednesday night previous to his return to college. The rooms were effectively adorned, and "80" was the amusement of the evening.

Last night a number of college boys who are home for the holidays, gave an enjoyable dancing party at the Ladies' Literary club, the following being chaperones: Mrs. F. J. Fabian, Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, Mrs. Joseph Jennings, Mrs. J. E. Caine, Mrs. Jack Keith, Mrs. J. O. Reber, Mrs. W. A. Neiden and Mrs. Jung.

On Thursday night Miss Clara Colbourne and Mrs. George Robinson entertained at a dinner in honor of Misses Mabel Robinson, Isabel Osbourne and Amy Osbourne, covers being laid for 10. The table was decorated in white and green, and present besides the guests of honor were Miss Stella Fabian, Harold Fabian, Morton Lewis, Paul Neiden and Ralph Neiden.

Capt. and Mrs. S. V. Ham entertained the Post Card club last night.

Yesterday Mrs. H. G. McMillan gave

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Dec. 31.—The uniting in bonds of wedlock on Wednesday afternoon at the St. Mark's cathedral, Salt Lake City, by Rev. Dean Eddy, of Miss Florence Mallardine Shielk and Mr. Chas. Stout, was one of the most interesting social events of the season, and was somewhat of a surprise to their many friends, from whom their marriage had been kept as a secret. The parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Shielk, and other relatives of the contracting parties, went to Salt Lake City and witnessed the ceremony, after which they dined at a prominent hotel, and the bride and groom left on a short wedding tour. The contracting parties are among Ogden's best known young people. The bride is popular in social circles and for more than two years past has been deputy clerk in the office of County Recorder D. W. Ellis. Mr. Stout is one of Ogden's most able and prominent young attorneys. Their many friends join in wishing them much happiness and prosperity in life.

Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Paine received and entertained a number of their friends at their pretty home on Adams avenue at a 5 o'clock dinner, for which covers were laid for 15. A profusion of California violets, carnations, smilax and evergreens were artistically arranged in the parlors and diningroom, and a prettily decorated Christmas tree stood in the reception hall. The invited guests were Prof. and Mrs. F. N. Driggs, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hirst, Misses Emma Osborne, Florence Bennett, Libbie De Long, Emma Paine, Messrs. A. E. Livingston, J. W. Weaver and Brown.

One of the most pleasurable dancing parties of the season was given last Saturday evening at the Toller dancing academy by the Spanish-American war veterans. There were present nearly 500 people, who enjoyed tripping the light fantastic until the dawn of Christmas.

At the Fashion hotel Saturday last, M. J. Munger, a prominent business man of Denver, and Miss Sigrid M. Hendrickson were married by Judge Joseph Hall.

Mrs. J. W. Abbott entertained at a Kensington Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Linch of Boston, who has been spending several weeks in Ogden. There were present 30 of their lady friends, who participated in cards, vocal and instrumental music, and general chat. A dainty lunch was served. The home was prettily decorated with evergreens, holly and cut flowers, in keeping with the holidays.

The High School alumni gave a delightful ball at the Toller hall Wednesday evening, which was participated in by a large crowd. The hall was decorated in the school colors and evergreens.

A pleasant dancing party was given Thursday evening by the Volunteer Firemen of Five Points, which was well attended.

A Happy New Year To All

AND

Many Thanks to our Friends, Patrons and the Public for making this a grand season.

Of course there were short comings. They were inevitable; we prepared for a big season, but not big enough. But we did all we could to minimize them. We made every effort to cope with the tremendous volume of business that surged ceaselessly into the store. If through any one's fault in our service you suffered any inconvenience, we will satisfactorily adjust complaints if they are promptly brought to our attention. We never find it too troublesome to please our public.
