PARK CITY.

PARK CITY, - MARCH 10, 1924.

Effects of the Storm.

During the past week Park City has experienced such weather as the school children never saw before. The storm of Friday night was the worst seen in years...

City Council.

The city council met to regular session on the evening of the 10th, with all members present. Bills to the amount of $1,250 were introduced...

Still Blocked.

The Utah Central railway is still negotiating with the union, and work has progressed but slowly. The strike here the better of the right. A large force of men were sent out from the end of the line...

Notes.

Quicksilver mine cutting was begun as they said they would not work until no more of wages advanced by management. Their process were immediately filled by other men, who tonight have been experienced in this work...

Notes.

The building business is not entirely unprosperous in Park City, as the Park was treated by the storm. The night in the lower end of town, "Snowy" was captured, and the boys had-upon them in great numbers.
