

The week has been a notable one, marked by a series of brilliant events comprising several large receptions, dancing and card parties, Kensingtons and luncheons, many of these having been in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Mamie Porter, whose wedding takes place next Tuesday night. The latter event will probably be the most notable of next week. The marriage will be solemnized at St. Paul's church with Miss Holabird of Los Angeles as maid of honor and Miss McGuigan of Montreal, Miss McMillan, Miss June McIntyre and Miss Mary Kinney as bridesmaids. Mr. Sam Porter, brother of the bride, will be best man, and Messrs. Phelps and Phillips of Los Angeles, Lieut. White of Fort Douglas, and Mr. Will Hall as ushers. Little Emma Cavin and David Keith will act respectively as flower girl and ring-bearer. The color scheme will be red and white, and will be carried out in the decorations and other details. The prospective bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter of this city, and the groom is Mr. Charles Spencer Mann of Los Angeles.

An elaborate function of the week was the reception given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. James E. Jennings. Mrs. Sophia Sharp, Mrs. Walter Jennings and Miss Sharp. The decorations were among the most original and beautiful of the season. Green predominated in all the rooms, the hall being done entirely in green, palms and rubber plants being used with lights shaded in pale green, and the parlor and library in green and pink. In the dining room white and pale green were used, electric lights and candelabra having shades of green, while white flowers were used to carry out the scheme. An orchestra stationed in the hall rendered delightful musical selections. Assisting the hostesses in receiving their guests were Mrs. Phyllis Jennings, Mrs. W. W. Ritter, Mrs. Scott, Crismon and Mrs. John N. Sharp. In the library Mrs. Dalby served punch and in the dining room Mrs. L. L. Terry poured coffee. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Lucile Taylor, Leda Rawlins, Eva Thomas, Elsie Ritter and Annette Ferguson. Nearly 200 guests called during the day.

A delightful event Thursday was the reception given by Mrs. W. W. Rivers and Mrs. Abner Luman in honor of Mrs. J. B. Eddie, who has recently returned from Scotland. The rooms were beautifully decorated, each having its distinctive scheme, and the effect being most artistic. Pink and white were used in the parlors, red in the library and yellow and white in the dining room, while greens predominated in the hall which was prettily done in palms and festoons of smilax. Assisting the hostesses and the guest of honor in receiving the guests were Mrs. Abel Leonard, Mrs. Joseph Young and Mrs. R. H. Hayward. Punch was served in the hall by Miss Bird and Miss Miller. The dining room was in charge of Mrs. James Higbee and Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton and they were assisted by the Misses Crane, Tompkins, Snyder and Gridley. During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Walter Frazer, Miss Edna Dwyer and Mrs. Martha Royle King, Mrs. Graham F. Putnam accompanying the singers.

One of the pretty bridal events of the week was the dinner given on Thursday evening by Miss Mary Kinney in honor of Miss Porter and Mr. Mann. The affair took place in one of the private dining rooms at the Kenyon, and covers were laid for 14, the room and table being beautifully decorated in yellow and violet, with chrysanthemums and violets used in artistic effect, and violet shades on the electric globes and candelabra carrying out the scheme. Those present were Miss Porter, Miss Holabird, Miss McGuigan, Miss McMillan, Miss McIntyre, Miss Dorothy Kinney, Messrs. Mann, Porter, Hall, White, Phelps, George Lawrence and C. R. Aley.

Next Friday night the students of the Latter-day Saints University will commemorate the 10th anniversary of the founding of the institution in a grand ball at Christensen's, and every effort will be made to make the event a memorable one. The affair will not be limited to students but will include patrons, past students and friends of the institution. All who desire invitations should apply at once.

Miss Kathie Dougal entertained the Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon, about 14 being present. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums, and refreshments were served. Present were: Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. W. D. Ritter, Mrs. J. Patrick, Mrs. George Lambert, Mrs. Alice Campbell, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Willard Cannon, Mrs. C. M. Benedict, Mrs. Lewis Hill, Miss Julia Hays, Miss Bessie Clawson, Miss Edna Dwyer, Miss Kate Dwyer, Miss Ida Savage.

Mrs. A. B. Richardson entertained at a Kensington yesterday in honor of Mrs. Nettie Y. Easton. The rooms were beautifully decorated with long stemmed chrysanthemums, and delicious refreshments were served. Present besides the guest of honor were: Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mrs. Myra, Rossett, Mrs. W. B. Dougal, Mrs. W. S. Beattie, Mrs. E. Y. Davis, Mrs. Henry Dinwoody, Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mrs. G. D. Pyper, Mrs. John Owen, Mrs. D. S. Spencer, Mrs.

MONUMENT TO HER FRIEND.

S. H. Clawson, Mrs. W. S. Hedges, Mrs. Julia Taylor, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Mrs. W. Brother, Mrs. R. W. Young. One of the prettiest events of the week was the luncheon given yesterday by Miss McMillan in honor of Miss Porter. The guests were chiefly members of Miss Porter's bridal party and the wedding colors, red and white, were carried out in the decorations. American Beauty roses being used with white ribbons. The place cards were heart-shaped in hand-painted designs, and the entire affair carried out the bridal idea with artistic effect.

A party of 12 spent a delightful evening at the home of Miss Edna Harker on Wednesday night, enjoying old fashioned games and an old fashioned supper at its end. Present were Misses Jean Hyde, Tessie Williams, Woolly, Beatrice Hyde, Kathie Dougal, Claire Dougal, Messrs. Hollis Dale, Hiram Burgeton, Will McAllister, Albert Thomas Bruce Brown, Dr. Wherry, Arthur Gates.

the Commercial club building, was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Everyone complimented the artistic decoration and convenient arrangement of the new hall. The Wednesday evening socials give promise of becoming very popular during the season.

Wednesday was the 70th birthday anniversary of Mr. David James, and the occasion was celebrated in a delightful family gathering at the home of his son, Mr. Will James, on Third street. The children and grandchildren of 40 were present, with other relatives and a most enjoyable time was spent, a delicious supper being served at 6, and the rest of the evening being spent with music, recitations and the reading of a sketch of the life of Mr. James. The parlor was decorated in red and the dining room in yellow, chrysanthemums and smilax being used with pretty effect. The guest of honor received scores of good wishes for the continuance of his years.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Ida Hilton and Mr. Gilbert M. Williams proves to have been the work of a practical joker, who sent in the announcement to the newspapers without authorization from the young couple concerned, who state that there is no truth in the statement.

Mrs. Webber and Miss Webber gave a delightful luncheon on Wednesday, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated, each having its separate color scheme, the parlor being in yellow and violet, with buds, yellow chrysanthemums and dainty violets, the library in red and violet, and the diningroom in pink, with violets and carnations. Palms and vines decorated the hall, and here an orchestra was stationed, rendering choice selections during the afternoon. The electric globes were shaded to correspond with the colors in each room. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. C. F. Richards.

On Wednesday Mrs. M. B. Whitney and Miss Preston were hostesses at an elaborate reception, the function taking place at the home of Mrs. Whitney. Chrysanthemums in red, white and yellow, with great fluffy heads and

DIAMONDS.

IT'S NOT OUR SIGNATURE THAT MAKES OUR DIAMONDS RELIABLE
—IT'S THE QUALITY OF OUR DIAMONDS THAT MAKES OUR SIGNATURE RELIABLE.

THE value of a Diamond is determined by its color and degree of perfection and unless one has considerable experience they all look alike.

We sell Diamonds for what they are. Our first purpose is to protect our customers by giving them all information possible regarding the various grades and qualities of Diamonds, and in this way giving them the very points used by unscrupulous dealers to cheat the inexperienced. This holiday season finds us more largely in the precious stone business than ever and we invite those who anticipate buying a diamond or other gem to avail themselves of the advantages of our Stock and Experience.

We have Diamond Rings which are bright and sparkling for One who wishes to spend $15, $20, $25, $30 or $35, and will take as much pleasure in showing these goods as we will in showing the very expensive ones. This week is diamond week at Leyson's and low prices will prevail.
