

SALADS.

Mrs. Ewing's Fifth Lecture to the Class in U. S. C.

The attendance Tuesday afternoon was greatly increased, every available seat in the large hall being taken, the ladies and gentlemen, and a very interesting and profitable session was held.

Having answered a few questions following the previous lecture, Mrs. Ewing made a short address on the subject of the Sabbath, and then proceeded with the day's lesson.

The table was well supplied with apples, pears, peaches, plums, grapes, nuts and oranges, and the ladies were very much interested in the various articles.

At the close of the lecture, Mrs. Ewing made a short address on the subject of the Sabbath, and then proceeded with the day's lesson.
