STRIKING DRIVERS START A RIOT.

Attempts to Send Out Wagons Met With Determined Resistance by Pickets.

NON-UNION MAN ATTACKED.

Compelled to Run for His Life-Harness Cut-Policemen Finally Repulsed the Rioters.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Rioting occurred to. day in connection with a strike of baggage wagen drivers employed by the Frank A. Scott Transfer company. Attacks on wagons were repulsed by a squad of policemen at the barns of the company in Wabash avenue and by a force of private detectives employed to patrol the district. Attempts to send out wagons met with determined resistance by pickets, aided by sympathetic teamsters. As soon as the wagons got a few blocks away the drivers were stoned and attempts made to cut the horses' traces. At Van Buren and State streets a me-union driver of the company was stacked by the driver of an ice wagon and threatened with an axe. While this was going on several men, supposed to be pickets, cut the harness. The baging his wagon in an alley. Four arrests are made. One prisoner was J. W. Joung, business agent of the Van and Baggage Teamsters' union. Trouble was also experienced about he Auditorium hotel, where the bag-sage handlers had gone on a strike. Several express wagons loaded with tranks and vallees from the depots drove to the hotel and unloaded with difficulty under police guard.

A crowd of 20 men attacked one of the Scott wagons at the Polk street depot while the driver was attempting to deliver beggage from one of the hotels. Knives were drawn, and only the arrival of the police prevented the traces being cut. One of the company's drivers got a load of trunks as far as Clingrand. ers got a load of trunks as far as Clin-ton and West Madison streets when he was purrued by a crowd of strike sympathizers gathered by pickets. In try-ing to get away he turned a street cor-ner so swiftly that he fell off the seat, triking on his head. The crowd then

SOLDIERS' DEPOSIT BOOKS.

Gen. McArthur Issues Order Forbidding Their Transfer. San Francisco, Oct. 12.-Gen. MacArthur today issued an order aimed at discouraging the numerous usurers who for a long time have been fattening their purses at the expense of soldiers of the regular army. The order forbids the transfer, pledge or sale of the de-posit books issued to enlisted men who have deposited their savings with the paymaster. It has been a common prac-tise for men, especially when out on "ass, to fall into the hands of sharp-ers who advanced them cash on their deposit books at extortionate rates of interest. A case occurred not long ago where a soldier had to pay one of the money sharks $280 for a loan of $150.

FOUNDLING CHILDREN. Nurses Tell Their Side of the Trouble in Arizona.

New York, Oct. 12 .- Three sisters and four nurses of the New York Found-ling hospital returned from Arizona to-day and told of their experience in that territory and how their lives were threatened because the children whom they sought to place with Mexicans in the territory were taken to the homes of Caholic merchants. The sisters had gone to Clifton and Morenci, Ariz., to deliver, 40 foundlings to Mexican fami-lies under the authority of a priest of that region. The foundling hospital will appeal to the federal authorities to recover from the residents of these they sought to place with Mexicans in to recover from the residents of these towns 19 children who were taken from the nurses. The sisters say that they left some of the children with refined Mexican families, but that the citizens of Morenei took them away and put them with American families.

MONUMENT TO ANDRE.

One Erected by Cyrus Field at Tappan, N. Y., Sold for Taxes.

New York, Oct. 13.—A monument erected by the late Cyrus W. Filed at Tappan, New York, to the memory of Maj. Andre has been sold for the nonpayment of taxes.

The monument stands on Andre hill, over the spot where the British officer was buried after he was hanged.

Since the death of Mr. Field, taxes on the plot of ground 100 feet square, have accrued in the sum of $6.38, the plot finally was put up with other property by the treasurer of Rockland county, and as there were no bidders he bought it in. If not released within a certain time the shaft of stone will pass out of the hands of the Field family and become the permanent property of Rockland county. Andre was hanged Oct. 2, 1780. Forty-Andre was hanged Oct. 2, 180. Forlyone years later the body was removed from Tappan and buried with honors in Westminster Abbey. In 1778 Dean Stanley visited Cyrus W. Field and the latter caused the spot to be marked,

"As a token of those better feelings which have united two nations." In 1882 and again three years later unknown persons partially destroyed the shaft with dynamite, but it was restored, and since then remained undisturbed.
