WEBER COUNTY BUSINESS.

Want Central Experiment Station—Contract Let for Five Steel Bridges.

The board of county commissioners at its meeting yesterday awarded the contract to A. M. Blodgett of Kansas City, for the construction of five steel bridges over branches of the Ogden River in Ogden valley, his bid being $100 for the five bridges. The other bidders and the amounts of their bids were as follows: Missouri Valley Bridge & Iron company, $1,115; Minnesota Steel & Bridge company, $2,314; Wichita Construction company, $3,660. The bids were referred to Engineer Parker, who reported that the bid of Mr. Blodgett was in proper form with accompanying checks, and it being the lowest bid was accepted. The bridges are to be constructed as soon as possible.

The board of county commissioners gave considerable of their time to discussing the possibility of Weber county joining the experiment farm. The discussion grew out of the request of Judge J. T. Lusk, who is now up at the state fair next month, and it was evident from the statements made by members of the board that the county was in a position to receive the benefit of the experiment farm. The board decided to take up the matter at the next meeting, and to see if the other counties took samples from each site offered, excepting in Weber county, and from there it only took a sample from one site. ## HOBOS AS ROADMAKERS.

Vagrants Vigorously Dealt With by County City Council Session.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., Sept. 6.—The county authorities are contemplating vigorous action to overcome the tramp nuisance, there being a large number in the county, especially along the line of the Denver & Rio Grande railway in Spanish Fork canyon. Frequent burglaries and other depredations are committed by these tramps, and they require frequent attention from the sheriff's office. The plan, if carried into effect, will be to appoint a number of deputy sheriffs, who will be stationed in different parts of the county along the lines of the railroads and all hobos will be arrested and charged with vagrancy. If convicted they will be put to work on the roads.

REQUISITION DENIED.

Sheriff Bailey has returned from Springfield, Ill., without his prisoner.

Dr. Arthur Walters, for whom he had requisition papers issued by Gov. Curtis. This is about the first time "Joe" has been out of the county since he was brought back with him, and it is not to be faulted of his that the young doctor is not behind the bars at the county jail. The governor of Illinois has refused to issue papers, as the supreme court of the United States had held that the removal of a person, wanted for committing a crime, from one state to another, is prohibited, if the person involved was not in the state when the crime was committed, and Dr. Walters was in Springfield when the alleged attempt at a criminal operation on the person of Bessie Gray was perpetrated. Sheriff Bailey would not let up on the man employed an able attorney to look after the state's interests, but that was of no avail. However it is not expected that Walters will entirely escape punishment, as all the papers in the case have been turned over by Walters through the mail, were turned over to the United States district attorney, who told Sheriff Bailey he would swear to a complaint against Walters, charging him with making unlawful use of the mails, to which it is expected he will plead guilty.
