pity his mistortune in thus untimely dropping off when there was a good EVENING NEWS prospect of a flaw being discovered in Published Daily, Sundays Excepted, the supreme court to favor an entire retrial. In no part of the world has crime a better chance of escaping with impunity than in the great republic. It is rampant and defiant. The know-ledge of it is no barrier to acceptance in business circles, and a known crim-inal is ant to be regarded as a little AT FUER O'CLOCE. PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE DESERET NEWS COMPANY aal is apt to be regarded as a little above the rest. The bail system, and the theory that a suspected man should CHARLES W. PENRUSE, EDITOR. be provided with facilities for proving his possible or impossible innocence, are at the bottom of this state of things. Wednesday, · February 16, 1887.

A SPLIT IN THE RANKS.

THE other day it was stated in the THE atmosphere above and around the "Loyal League" is murky with gloomy NEWS that six classes of young men clouds and lurid with the forked Ward for the purpose of studying and lightning of red-eyed wrath. In other acquiring the ability to explain the first words there is a split in the camp. principles of the Gospel as understood The "segregation" is drawn on party by the Latter-day Saints. The movelines-Republican and Democratic. ment in the Ward named is by no Both dogs in the fight gaze with greedy eyes upon the bone of contenmeans isolated, similar steps having been taken in other branches of the tion, the prospective local offices to Church. In fact we are pleased to be be filled, according to anti-"Mormon" able to state that never at any time has | rocky islets and roaring waters, these anticipation, by the Edmunds-Tucker bill, should it become a legal reality. there been so strong a desire manifested by a large class of the youth of Instead of the brethren of the League the Church to place themselves falling upon each other's necks and in a position to give a reason for the weeping with joy unfeigned, they appear hope that is in them than now. It is to feel like getting their hands in each evinced In various ways besides organothers hair and tearing it out by fistizing for systematic study. Many of fuls, judging from the curses and imprecations low and deep, and some them are inquiring after information that are not so low, so far as sound is from various sources upon subjects concerned, that are indulged in on both which engage their attention. sides. Meanwhile the indefatigable Sometimes those inquiries are, to our personal information, incited by a Mr. Lannan is credited with flying questionable means. Occasionally around and to and fro, first on one some Elder of ladvanced age and preside and then the other, almost tearfully imploring the malcontents to reconcile sumed experience undertakes to address the youth, and unwisely protheir differences. But the gulf is wide and likewise-like the curses hurled by pounds to them some mysterious dectrine of doubtful orthodoxy. one faction against the other-deep. In this situation, the distress of the man-The age and experience of such persons causes the young men to consider that the home of that old saint so famous such expressions are entitled to con- in song and story. Brendan, the ager of the Tribune, seeing that no amount of oil he can pour upon the siderable weight, while they are in a disturbed waters of the crusade will maze as to the doctrine propounded. stay their turbulence, is very|great. It leaks out that the Republican wing They seek for explanations elsewhere. of the League have been working in Quite a number of such interrogatories opposition to the part of the Tucker have come under our own observation. amendment to the Edmunds bill which Information is sought both by letter and in person. An instance occurred forty days provisions" and started out placed enormous political prerogatives in the hands of Governor West. The recently, in which a number of young cause of this was clear. Governor men in one of the settlements were West is a Democrat, and in the event taught some mysterious things by an of his being given the extraordinary Elder advanced in years. One of the points he advanced we here give, by appointing power it was not to be supposed that he would be rushing around way of illustration. It was that Jesus with his hair streaming in the wind Christ is the father of the spirits of all hunting up Republicans in order to fill men. It is perhaps needless to state the local offices with individuals of to the ordinary Latter-day Saint that political complexion. Not the Savior himself made no such that It could be seen at claim, but informed His disciples when much.

MISLEADING THE YOUNG.

a glance that the pickings He was about to ascend to the right HOUSE OF CORRECTION, VISIBLE AT TIMES. tendered to Republicans would be hand of God that He ascended to His Detroit, Michigan, about in like proportion to those that Father and to their Father, to His God The myth must have been well fall to the lot of Lazarus, and whatever and to their God, He being our known to Columbus and may It may be asked how it is that the February 11, 1887. great body of Englishmen, with their acknowledged spirit of fairplay, and Editor Deservet News: would be doled out to that wing of the schemers would be tendered to those who would be willing to assume the role of "Mugwumps." It may be As Rasmus Neilson, of Weston, Idaho, has many friends in Northern Utah and Southwestern Idaho, we wish to say to them, through the medrum of the NEWS, that he was taken very ill the role of "Mugwumps." It may be any particular doctrinal point, but to There (so the Portuguese faucied) preachers and added here that Bennett is a Repub- direct attention to the unwisdom of Sepastian was hidden from men. ast Saturday night, and na lican, and it is rumored that the upso- any Elder taking a conrse to lead the of Alcazar. The West Indies, when LYING OFFICE HOLDERS represented the Irish peasant as a bephisticated Baskin was led to believe minds of the young away from the they were first seen, were surely St. that the making of the offices elective study of the simpler principles of the souted slave to a vile superstition called religion. These Irishmen who went across the channel to represent Brondan's Isle; and the Mississippi would be generally acceptable to the Gospel. It should be plain to the most may have been, in the eyes of such old adventurers as De Soto, when he their country were the meanest of crea-tion. Low, designing politicians, ready to sell kith and kin, God and country, for office. Englishmen were disgusted with them. Now it is different. Mr. Leaguers. unsusceptible mind that they must On the other hand, the Democratic sought for the Fountain of Youth, the very river which St. Brendan found parting in two the Land of Promise." progress by adding line upon line and precept upon precept, in accord with wing of the League are wild over the Nor can the scoolar gaze on the rock-bound coast without being reminded of quaint yoa. elimination from the bill of the clause the revelations and the law of naiversal Stead, of the Pall Mall Gazette, Mr. Stead, of the Pull Mall Gazette, Mr. Labouchere, of Truth, Mr. Wilkinson, of the Manchester Guardian, Mr. aul, of the Daily News, Mr. Fare, of the Liverpool Daily Post, Mr. Byles, of the Bradford Observer, and Mr. Cameron, of the Newcastie Leader, all these have visited Ireland and have studied the Irish question on the spot. That is why Englishmen will yet en-dorse Gladstone. which would have made Governor nature. the poet Spencer. Benind these deso West a veritable autocrat. They ima-We advise the young men to adhere late headlands was written the "Fairy Queen." It was along here that Spento the study of the aimpler principles cer, in company with Lord Grey, witgine they see a sort of dimness between and not be diverted by the considerthem and the prospect of filling all the nessed the massacre of Smerwick. Here 600 spaniards were massacred ation of matters for the contemplation local offices. In their flery denunciaof which their minds are not prepared. tions they mix up in an interminable IN COLD BLOOD. By all means study the first principles jumble the names of O. J. Hollister, Strange to say, the poet applauded the author of this diabolical deed. It. was ESTRAY NOTICE. District Attorney William H. Dickson of the Gospel and acquire the ability That is why Englishmen will yet en-dorse Gladstone, If our journalists would take the trouble to investigate the Utah ques-tion at home, we would be spared the disgraceful spectacle of the Edmunds-Tecker "combine." Perhaps not more than two members of Congress have and Chief Justice C. S. Zane, with an here in 1589 that Raleigh, after HAVE IN MY POSSESSION: to explain them in private or public. got inside of him in the affection of occasional contemptuous fling at Wil-The success of the Preceptor system the Virgin Queen, came to rusticate. Releigh found Spencer at Klicolman One sorrel HORSE, S or 10 years old, brand esembling JB on left thigh, and bind of liam McKay, all of whom are Reas an aid in that direction has been publicans. There are significant demonstrated. It provides the plan and both went on an excursion. Spen-One sorrel HORSE, 8 or 10 years old; no CET SAVE : charges of treachery and similar asperfor systematic study, and when a fr not claimed and taken away within So to the sea we came; the assistant is A world of waters heaped spon high, Rolling like mountains in wild wilderness: Horrible, hideons, roading with hoarse ever seriously studied for themselves the Utah question, and yet the whole hody is willing to pass laws for some-thing that they know nothing about. wider range of Scriptural proofs than sions, all of which makes the situation exceedingly raspy. 10 days from dats, they will be sold to the highest responsible bidder, Friday, Feb-ruary 25th, 1887, at 10 o'clock a. m., at Her-riman estray pound. isit Lake County, U.T. WM. H. FREEMAN, t contains is desired, the Ready Rereace can be utilized to advantage. One feature of this quarrel is likely crie. to disturb Mr. Hollister especially. It JUNIUS. What a splendid and - realistic des-A RED-HANDED DEPUTY RE-Poundkeeper. Herriman, February 15, 1887. will probably interfere with the cription of the wild Atlantic as it tolls payment to him by a certain APPOINTED. LATEST DISPATCHES. against those tremendous cliffs of, the class of members of the League south and west coasts of Ireland WE are informed as a fact that Marshal But, nerrible thought! and fain of the monthly fifty cent dues. If Dyer has re-appointed Wm. Thompson, would the poetic student dispel it, but there are those in the association who he can't, Spencer was a carpet-bagger. Yes, Spencer, the source of inspiration to so many succeeding poets, was Jr., the murderer of Edward M. Dal-PHYSICIANS consider him capable of treachery they MINISTERS, VOCALISTS, PUBLIC Speakors and the professions gen ceally recommend SATA ABLE as the best of all medicines for all diseases of the THROAT, CHEST, LUNGS, ton, to the position of chief United would probably not wish to entrust pany by Utah Men. States Deputy in the Second Judicial him with the manipulation of their A CARPET-BAGGER. District. In performing this official four bits, upon the regular tender of act Marshal Dyer has executed a com-He was sheriff of this country at the PHILADELPHIA'S ELECTION which their good standing in the back of these cliffs, and he lived in one plete summersault, having formerly of the confiscated castles of the Des-monds. In the revolution of 1508 the castle was destroyed, one of Spencer's children burnt, and the poet himself had to fry the country. He reacher's Longround died of starvation in King Stronground the starvation of Spencer's BEWARE OF IMITATIONS League depends. dismissed Thompson in the first place, on the ground of his having unlaw-See that the trade mark SANTA ABIE I on every bottle. Satisfaction guaranteed o money refunded by all druggists. That these "great and good" men Terrible Condition of Lyons should fall out is a sad commentary fully killed Mr. Dalton. To use Michigan. upon the frailty of human nature. almost his own identical words, BIPERS THAN OUP !! These large hearted "self-seekers," as the offense with which Dalton Sr. eet, Westminster, as Ben. Johnson says. Horrible carpet-baggery! May perdition hold the man that first in-vented thee! Even by thee, gentle Minister Phelps designates the class to was charged being a misdemeanor OTHER EVENTS OF IMPORTANCE. which they belong, have been posing as Thompson had "no right to short." GREENS Utah redemptionists, and been gon- That position was correct, and remains y Telegraph to the NEWS.] poesy is degraded. An eye-witness to what is now going UNG RESTOR stantly engaged in announcing their unchanged. What's This! ou, under what is called the 'Law of the Land,' says of this place. As sad and dismal as those corridors of own virtues, patriotism and gene-There will be a despread belief to the effect that the Marshal has suf-fered hunseld to be coerced into his CHICAGO, Feb. 16 .- Times' Omaha ral disinterestodness. True these self assertions have been the only special: A new railroad company un sad and dismal as those corridors of suffering through which the spirit of Dante walked; as outraged and vio-lated as the valley of Gience, over-which the muse of Scott mourped, this Kerry Gien has been filled by the der the name of the Nebraska and proofs they have offered in respect to later action by the Utah political plot-Western, has filed articles of incorpo-Western, has filed articles of incorpo-ration. The line in Nebraska is to cross the northern, half of the State, from Covington on the Missouri, op-posite Sioux City, to a point on the western boundary of the State. The capital stock is $6,000,000. The incor-porators are Orand J. Hollister, M. M. Kaigha, John Q. Packard, Donaid Mc-Lean and James D. Negus, all of whom are unfamiliar in road circles here, but it is intimated that they are working in the interest of the Central Pacific. The acknowledgment of the articles of inthe elevated qualities they claim to be possessed of but it is humiliating to will, a " who had it to be a proper act to .ormon." It is not unlikely that see even such meagre proof as that office swept away. It is sad to think that of HAND OF OPPRESSION and non-official endorsement such bloody deeds may lead to the the present bitter strife is but another with associations as depressing, re- such bloody deeds may lead to the perpendicular of grave perpetration of others of a similar murderous character. In that case it is possible for others than the victims of such dastardly work to get into trouble. Justice may be tartly, but it generally claims its own in course of time.
INESS.
THE RECENT DECISION. repetition of that class of grav spectacles the anti-"Mormon". saders have been in the happ nishing for the delectation 1900 people. acknowledgment of the articles of incorporation was taken before a notary in Salt Lake City. JUDIO AL TARDINESS. Austrian Military Regulations. VIENNA, Feb. 16 .- Questions asked "Poor old Pat Diggins tettered out into dayhight sick nigh to death with his seven-ty-five years written distinctly on his frame, and on his face the reflection of the eviction curse that had A DECIP .ION was expected from the U THE Chicago Herald makes the follow the government in the Reichsrath For a better or more pleasant ream dy for the cure of Consumption, Congas, Asthana, 8. S apreme Court in the Hopt case on ing sensible comment on the recent deyesterday in relation to the proposed ramp, Whooping Cough and Breachial frontiles than SAN TA Akts, the Calt ornin 2006/11 CUEE. Not a Secret Compound fleasant to the taste and death to a cough uonday last; the matter has been becredit for military purposes, elicited the information that Hungary would only enroll in the Landsturm such men as already had military training or were likely to make good soldiers. Numerous exemptions would be made. cision in the Snow case: fore that body, as a submitted case "By the judgment just rendered by the Federal Supreme Court in the BANNED AND BLASTED : his fathers before him and his own four bonces more than once. The furniture was pitched out in the customary style, the poor evected wretch stood a moment looking around, and then with a little child stood over by the ditch. Then the devilry began. The roof in a few moments was in flames, and every crackle of the oil saturated thatch met a responsive groan from the aged outcast, whose tears reflected the fire-recalled the worst phases in our tear-blot-ted history. It was hard to realize, as one stood there in the light of the smoking, burning roof, that it was the infine-teenth century, with men and women walk-ing Christ's world to preach His Gospel of peace, that statesmen were shaking, Samp-son-like, the pillars of iniquitous State BANNED AND BLASTED and under advisement, for several months, and this delay, in view of the case of Snow, convicted of unlawful ALIFORNIA cohabitation under the Edmunds act, fact that the case was expedited in orcohabitation under the Edmunds act, the courts in Utah will be given a check in the infliction of penalties which will not militate in the least against the administration of justice. As advised in the past, the territorial courts have been using their own discretion in trying men for unlawful cohabitation, making the offense consist of anything augreeting such cohabitation. and der that it might be heard and deter-In Austria the enrollment of men in Austria the children of the second be al-most universal. Ex-officers up to the age of sixty years would also be en-rolled. Men who are only fitted for simubalance or office work will be exmined out of the regular order, is somewhat singular if not inexplicable. Not that there is any particular desire to have anything take place which would CURECEL unsettle the stability of the judicial suggesting such conabitation, and dividing it up into periods so as to structure, or that there is any pressing The "Wisconsin, Stranded. NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The Guion line steamship Wisconsin, from Liverpool for New York, is ashore at the outer har, fifteen miles east of Fire Island. The stranded vessel was discovered at $:15 this morning, when the fog which had prevailed during the night lifted. She is hard on the beach and a heavy yet been had with the vessel from the beach, but her passengers and malls The "Wiscousin" Stranded, CAT-R-CURE necessity for any man, even though dividing it up into periods so as to inflict the extreme penalty in continu-ing sentences, aggregating in some cases several years of imprisonment, whereas, under the law-the maximum punishment is prescribed as six mouths in the penitentiary and $300 flue. The Supreme Court now holds convicted of murder four consecutive times, paying the penalty one day before the proper time; but that there is a necessity that such cases be con-FOR JUSTICE SAKE; that in every London alley and shum popu-lar princes and fashionable divorces were appealing on behalf of the pour and the wretched; that there was indignation for Burmese atrocities and sympathy for Bus-sian rebels; in fine, that we live in days when there was a shibboleth for every fad and a defense for every defaulter." cluded one way or another without making them a continuous and severe that the effense complained of in each burden upon the State year after year. Another case of similar nature of all unlawful acts up to and includ-ing the one for which the prosecution

CHICAGO LETTER. The Emerald Gem of the Sea and the solitaire Diamond of the Union-The Horrible State of Aff irs in

"If amongst hs in England the Goverh-ment of the conntry, no matter in obedience to what infernal laws the landlords have pro-duced and passed in their own interest-if the Government of the country sent in evictthe Former, and the Attempts to Establish the Same Order in the Latter-The Curse of Carpet-bag Rule-Poor Kate Field, Etc. ing force amongst us, sent men with crow-bars, and parafine oil, and matches in order NEWS Special Correspondence.] CHICAGO, Feb. 12, 1887.

bars, and paramine oil, and matches in order to burn down the homesteads of our miners and other people, I tell you before heaven, men, that I would be the first to head the biggest crowd of stalwart Englishmen 1 could gather round me, and I would not stop for one moment until 1 had at any rate done something to sweep the curse of Voyagers from America to Europe by the Atlantic steamers, when nearing the British Isles, are on the lookout done something to sweep the curse of landiordism which oppresses us almost as badly as it does yourselves." for land with the anxiety usually attending unaccustomed ocean travelers

It may be asked why do able-bodied If at night the vessel happens to come near the land, a revolving light is the of this kind? Why not bury the knire had been organized in the Twenty-first first indication that the ocean voyage in the bosom of these > is soon to terminate. This light is on MURDEROUS DEPUTIES.

Skellig's rock, a little islet a mile or No, they stand idly by out of reverence two from the mainland. Here the Attwo from the mainland. Here the At-lantic dashes with its wildest fury. of law obstructed, and then by a wo-Here might dwell the genius of desola-man. Here it is:

Here might dwell the genius of desola-Once, and once only, the constitutional regularity of the proceeding was disturbed by an incident that would have thrilled the legal sensitiveness of the Chief Baron with tion. Here can be witnessed nature in her grandest aspects. Beetling cliffs, frowning mountains, bare headlands, rocky islets and roaring waters, these are the scenes which meet the eye. And yet this place is not without its legends, its traditions and its history For the American it ought to have a peculiar interest. But above all, for the citizen of Utah it has more than a passing interest at the present time. THIS LAND IS IRELAND, a mere little island. but yet with a hisfrowning mountains, bare headlands, a mere little island. but yet with a his-

TAUGHT MANROOD tory more interesting and more in-structive than that of China with its mill to the men. With one wild rush they scat-tered the police like chaff, and in a second more the girl was safe again in the midst of her friends. May GOD prosper her for that brave blow, struck in the honest heat of her woman's heart at the sight of outrage done to a meter and her dying child! For that blow may hanny children call be ions of inhabitants, or of Russia with its incalculable acres. And just inside of these coasts at present is being enacted a drama so sad, so miserable, and so sickening that modern civilization has to blush for the actors thereblow may happy children call her mother in the good time coming in the cheerful secur-ity of a law-protected home!" in. This drama is the result of penal laws and carpet-bag rule, and that is why the Utah citizen and the Utah cos fruit

neglect

And to this every honest heart will say, AMEN. May happy children call her mother, and may her home be semorants should dwell with interest on these shores and on their history, present and past. Not far from here is Monat Brendan. cure. And above all, may not the doom of the old maid await her as, it does Kate Field-that heartless, hypocritical creature, sapless, indurated, tasteless as an apple from the Dead ses shore, no child will ever call her mother; no pitying heart will ever utter for her a prayer. Childless and sterile SAILOR MONK, who in the sixth century is said to have penetrated even into our Ameri-ca, here built "him a coracle of wattle, and covered it with bides tanned in she will sink into the cold ground, a oakbark and softened with butter, and forcible illustration of the Roman poet set up in it a mast and sail, and took | Catelius' on his voyage of discovery. The rec-ord left of this voyage has formed the basis of many a legend and many a ro-manco. Sebastian Evans has written a poem on it; so has Matthew Arnold. Charles Kingsley says of it : "This tale was so popular in the middle age, that it appears, in different shapes in almost every early European language. It was The lonely vine, nor cherish nor protect.

ular man in search of St. Brendan's Isle, which is not found when it is sought, but was said to be because he has not he must die. Mr. members of the House of Commons, at Conybeare, M. P. for Cornwall, hap- a conference to-day, adopted & resoa conference to-day, adopted a feso pened to be present at this little drama. Here is what lution to call the attention of Parlia-ment, next week, to the alleged pack-ing of furies in cases ardinst the nationalists in Ireland. HE SAYS OF IT.

8:400.000 Fallure

BUFFALO, Feb. 10.-Brock & Wiener. wholesale elothing manufacturers, made a general assignment to-day. Liabilities, $200,000.

Eviction Row.

ired.

DUBLIN, Feb. 16 .- A conflict occurred to-day between a force of police on their way to execute a number of eviction orders and a part of the popu-lation of Deuglein, County Kerry. The people barricaded the roads and in some cases ibuilt stone walls across them. The police were at first driven away but they re-formed and then charged with batons and clubbed rifles upon the populace, compelling them.

A WARM WELCOME.

after a severe struggle, to give way A number of men and women were in-

fenry Dinwoodey, | SPRINGVILLE, Feb. 14, 1887. On Tuesday, Feb. 8th, at 6 p. m., was released after a six months' im prisonment in the Utah penitentiary for violation of the Edmunds law with Office: 40 East Temple St., Salt Lake City.

RARE OPPORTUNITY. DUNFORD'S Farm, located on East Bench, five miles from Temple Block, containing 117 in one hour after my arrival, all of my brothers and sisters had col-lected there to bid me welcome acres; good fence; fifty acres in lucern sixteen shares water right. Price, $3,500.00 to warmest embraces and joyful hearts. My brother John's wife prepared sup-per, of which all partook freely. Sup-per over they plied me with questions as to prison life, and expressed intense For further information call at DUNFORD'3, dtf 124 Main Street, Salt Lake City pleasure at again seeing their brother CALL AT We thus spent the evening hours till midnight. Next day I took train at 10:50 on the D. & R. G. for "home, sweet home," the memories of which seemed dearer than ever before. I H. REISER'S, THE WELL-KNOWN JEWELER,

No. 12, E. First South Street, - FOR - arrived at 1:30 and found all well. the train halted at the station th BARCAINS IN WATCHES, JEWELRY, ETC Springville brass band pealed forth the sor Repairs neatly done and warranted.

most soul-stirring strains of music, bidding me welcome again te my happy home and to the dear faces of old and well-tried WATSON BROS. riends. To me the occasion (was one of the most appreciative I ever with nessed. Children and friends warmly grasped me by the hand while the gushing tears tell thick and fast, until my feelings, in spite of effort, over-came me and I was a boy again. May God bless them for this mani-festation of kindness, and may those free from the bondage thereof on the naked field the vine's weak Nor lifts its languid stem, nor glows with words spoken by Him who spoke as never man spake—"Inasmuch as ye did it to the least of my brethren ye have done it unto me," afford them But by itself weighed down it lowly strays, And on its root its highest tendril lays; The herdsmen then, the passing hinds everlasting joy in those realms where sorrow never, enters, is my earnest prayer. N. H. GROESBECK.

not only the delight of monks, but it So scorned the maid who files the fond prayer.

OLD MAID:

Subscribed Capital, Paid Up Capital, HEBER J. GRANT, JAMES SHARP, ILLIAS A. SMITH, President HARP, Vice-President, SMITH, Secy. and Treas. DIRECTORS.

John Henry Smlib, John C. Cutler, David Eccles, George Romney, John G David P. T. Farnsworth, H. J. GRANT & CO., Agents.

regard to cohabitation. My brothe

CHICAGO

FINEST PAINTS

SPECIAL SALE!

FIVE THOUSAND YARDS.

Manufacturers' Short Lengths, of

IN WHITE, CREAM AND ECRU,

4 to 9 Yards at 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 and 40 Cents per Yard, by the PIECE ONLY.

This is a Great Bargain. Call Early for Choice Selection.

NEW AND ELEGANT

Elegant Oriental & Valenciennes

Twenty-Five Cents per Yard! Stonecutters and Builders Tombstones, Monuments, Mantels, Iron The GREATEST BARGAIN ever offered Mantels, Grates and Hearth Stones. 1278 & 1280 SOUTH TEMPLE ST.

38 Broad and 34 New Sts., New York Oily daw

BROS.

20cts. per Package

THE -

HOWARD & DAVIS, 30 West, First South St REMOVAL

We have removed our Coal Office from H. Dinwoodey's Furniture Store to No. 40 MAIN STREET, Nearly opposite Z. C. M. L.

WEBER COAI From the Wasatch and Crismon Mines, and PLEASANT VALLEY COAL

From the Utah Central Ry. Co's Mine, constantly on hand. We are prepared to furnish in any quan-tities at the yard at the Utah Centrai Railway Depot, or delivered to any part of the city, at regular rates. Telephone Ne. 384.

HOME COAL CO.

F. A. MITCHELL, Secretary and Manager

TOR

SIMMONS

Unusual and Exceptional Bargains! DRESS GOODS. 75 pieces of 24 inch Spring Dress Goods, at 10 cents.

1 case 42 inch Ceahmere, in Dark and Tan Shades, at 25 cents, worth 40 cents. 50 Dress Patterns, containing 12 to 14 yards, 24 inch, Handsome English Dress Goods, at $2.00 and $3.00 a pattern. Few Combination Patterns, at $3.50. Ladies' Cloth Tricots and Cloth Suftings, at Cost.

> KID GLOVES

4 Button Kid Gloves, at 55 cents. Embroidered Back, at 75 cents, reduced from $1.00.

5 " Scalloped Tops, very superior Glove, at $1.85.

> CORSET SALE.

We offer the Brighton a Coraline Corset at 50 cents, worth $1.00. We have reduced several styles of $1.25 Corsets, to 75 cents. he "Bridal," made of the Best French Sateen, beautifully stitched and embroidered, at $1.00.

BALL'S HEALTH, at $1.00. WARNER'S HEALTH, at $1.25. WARNER'S CORALINE, at $1.00.

learing Out several styles BUSTLES, at 25 cents.

$5000--REWARD--$5000

