

GREAT GAMES
FOR THEATER.University of Colorado vs L. D. S.
University.

CHAMPIONS OF THE WEST.

Finest Tournaments in Basket-ball
Ever Played Here to Come Off
On March 27 and April 1.

What promises to be one of the finest, cleanest and most interesting of inter-collegiate athletic contests, will shortly come off in the Salt Lake Theater. For some time past the champion basketball team of Colorado, has looked with longing gaze at the Utah games, and has requested the opportunity of measuring arms with the Utah champions. The basketball team of the Latter-day Saints' University of this city has now reached an unparalleled record, having won 29 out of 30 games played in the last three years.

The fame of this team having reached the Colorado champions, the latter have taken a keen interest in bringing about a meet between the teams for the championship of the West. The manager of the team of the University of Colorado has several times written to Mr. Bassett, the athletic director of all the L. D. S. U. basketball teams, to get a series of games between the respective state champions. At the close of this season's practice, the L. D. S. U. boys think they can meet the great athletes from Colorado and have so notified them.

The result is that the L. D. S. U. athletic association has made arrangements with Manager Bassett to have the floor game on the parquet in the Salt Lake theater for two nights, a week apart, in order that the lovers of clean, manly sport in this city might be given an opportunity to see this new and fascinating form of athletics.

The first match game will be played on the evening of Friday, March 27, in the theater, commencing promptly at 8 o'clock. The game lasts a little over an hour. After the first contest the Colorado team will visit the team of the B. Y. Academy and B. Y. College in pitched battles. Returning to Salt Lake after this diversion, the Colorado and Utah champions will engage in their final battle for supremacy on Wednesday evening, April 1, in the theater. The admission charged will be merely nominal, from 50 cents to 15 cents, as there is no expectation of making money out of the game, but only of giving to the public an exhibition of clean sport.

The contests will be played with amazing rapidity, as both teams are very strong and are in the pink of condition. Each team is confident of winning, and Manager Bassett declares that his L. D. S. U. boys, while younger than the Colorado team, will give them the most interesting game they have ever had, and will teach the great team some new things in basket ball.

A preliminary game to commence at 7:15 is being arranged for the girls' team of the Ogden High school and the "A" team of the L. D. S. U. on the same evening in the theater.

GOSSIP OF EASTERN FANS.
Doings of Baseball Notables in Big Leagues.

Katell, the big pitcher, will again be with Minneapolis this year.

"Billy" Shindle announces that he will play in Toronto, but in the event of his transfer to Providence will return to the Brooklyn. The pitcher must show him before he gives him any extra money.

TITUS TO TRY AGAIN.
His Entry For The Diamond Sculls At Henley Signed.

The entry of C. S. Titus for the Diamond Sculls at Henley was drawn up by the Atlanta Boat club, of which he is a member, and was signed by Mayor Low. The entry will be mailed within a day or two.

All details concerning the sending of Titus abroad again were thoroughly gone over at a meeting on Tuesday night, and there are no further obstacles to be encountered. This is gratifying to Mr. Titus, as his friends will know that last year he was handicapped by worry over the danger of not being able to meet all of his expenses.

Fred Kafka, president of the Atlanta Boat club, said to a World reporter that his club had the greatest confidence in Mr. Titus and fully expected him to bring back the Diamond Sculls. He said they were not in the least afraid of Juvenille, who it is announced from Philadelphia, will also row at Henley.

E. O. Kragness of No. 34 West Thirty-first street, challenged Titus on behalf of Alex W. Pape of San Francisco, who claims to be the champion amateur oarsman of the Pacific coast and the northwest.

Titus says he has received a number of other challenges but that they will all have to wait until he returns from Henley. Then he will take them all on, one at a time, and at any reasonable distances they may name.

'Frisco's Mayor All Right.
With reference to the proposal to have Jeffries, Corbett, Fitzsimmons and Ryan meet in San Francisco, Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco says:

"I am not antagonistic to any true sport, but it must be made certain that the people are not to be hoodwinked. If the boxers agree to go a certain number of rounds and the people pay their money to witness such an exhibition, that is, of course, their own business; but if the men make a secret agreement to that effect and fight under the pretense of giving an honest exhibition it would be a different matter."

"The ordinance now in effect permits of only one professional fight in a month. That ordinance will have to be enforced, and two fights cannot take place the same night."

DON'T LIKE HOLLES.
His Attack On Yale Football Team Stirs Up Trouble.

Prof. Hollis' friendly attack on football, particularly the punch at the Yale-Harvard game, is not liked at all down in New Haven. The New Haven Register thinks the professor has reached the limit of his usefulness as a Harvard athletic official; and the Register comes near to expressing Yale opinion. But reports from Cambridge indicate that Prof. Hollis has many supporters in his views on the Harvard faculty. Once in about 10 years look for a reaction against football. The first one came in 1884 or 1885, when the game was outlawed at Harvard; then in 1894-95 there was a second wave of disapproval and criticism, which resulted in a suspension of the game with Yale for a season or two and reforms in the playing rules. The 10-year cycle is nearly up again, and, let another reaction is on the way. Psychological, football appears to have something in common with business panics, which are also supposed to come around once in about 10 years.

THAT CALIFORNIA BASEBALL WAR

To An Outsider It Looks Like P. C. L. Had Best of It.

THE MONEY IS WHAT TALKS

Pacific Northwest Leagues One Chance Is With the National Association—Utah Out of It.

The fight on the coast between the Pacific Northwest league and the Pacific Coast organization goes merrily on and as such new phase of the war is developed the fact is demonstrated clearly that Utah fans may as well give up the idea entirely of securing a place in the Northwest league this year and the next, too, for that matter. The league will have enough business on its hands before the present fight is over, and after, for that matter, to keep the magnates guessing for many months to come. The placing of teams in Seattle and Portland by the P. C. L. was a natural proposition with them as indicated by this statement made to President Sexton by Harris:

"We were forced to take in Seattle and Portland. The people here have become tired of seeing the same teams come around year in and year out. They needed an added attraction, and the only solution for us was to take in the two cities north."

That explains why the Pacific Northwest's territory was invaded. But the fight will be bitter before it is ended, as the National association of Minor leagues has come to the rescue of the North league. This fact was made obvious by the letter written by Sexton to Lucas this week, and it is the one strong card of the P. N. L. The managers of the coast organization are thoroughly entrenched in the hearts of the coast fans, and it will take a big lot of influence and a whole lot more money to dislodge them.

That Butte and Helena are to be dropped goes without saying. Only a crazy man would figure a circuit extending from Los Angeles to Butte. It would break any league that attempted it. It is stated, however, that neither of the two cities will be dropped this year. But next year it's a certainty.

Wonder what the strong supporters of the P. N. L. league will then say about their "beloved Lucas"? McCloskey, the manager of Butte, has been selected to manage San Francisco. He is taken care of, so what does it matter to him whether Butte remains in the league or not?

In Seattle, so strong a paper as the Times has cast its lot with the invaders. The following from that paper, which is conservative, will give a faint idea of what they think of the fight:

"Perhaps Dug's hurried departure was brought about over the action of the P. C. L. men in Los Angeles. They met last night to fight their battles. They have also asked the league directors to change the schedule so that they will play in Los Angeles at the same time the P. N. L. plays there. Good move, too. The 'Nite Son' proposition is coming to the front strong down in California. The fans and newspaper boys all like the idea of a fight at night and they will stand by Morley, Harris and Mique Fisher. There isn't a paper there, at least not one that reaches the Times office, that isn't standing by the P. C. L. We may be away off, but we Kittredge, of the Boston Nationals, is working hard to round out a good team for Holy Cross, and says the prospects are excellent.

"Billy" Hulien is reported signed with Seattle.

President Cavanaugh, of the Southern association, has signed Umpire John P. Keefe, of Pittsburgh. He is the only member of last season's staff to be reappointed.

"Billy" Sullivan, Comiskey's catcher, Chicago, declares that he is now in tip-top shape and ready to play. He likes the foul-strike rule and declares it will help both the catchers and pitchers a whole lot.

No one was more disappointed than the foul-strike will prevail in the American than Herman Long. He counted on playing under a rule that gave a free hitter a chance to show his mettle, not under one that would operate as a handicap.

"I read what Armour said about my batting last year," said Elmer Flick to a Cleveland interviewer. "Bill said I used too heavy a bat, and I guess he hit it about right. Anyway, I am not going to be caught that way again, for I have 26 as nice sticks as were ever made. I don't think the foul-strike will bother me much. At least it didn't year before last, when I batted eighth in the National league."

Sam Crawford owes Cincinnati $1,300, which he must return. As a returner of checks, Crawford will lead both leagues when he pays up with Cincinnati, as last fall he returned a draft for $1,000 to Detroit.

Ex-Convict Pierce Chiles, formerly of the Phillies, and late of a Texas chain-gang, who was recently signed by the Portland club to play first base, was arrested in Portland Feb. 24, for a brutal assault upon a young girl named Roe, of whom he was jealous. Chiles struck her in the face, blackening her eyes and loosening her teeth. She also sustained internal injuries from the violence of the knock down.—Sporting Life.

That despicable of all diamond characters should be drummed out of the game. No club should be permitted to sign him and no club should permit him to enter its gates, even in the role of spectator.

Portland will follow suit. That will make an even $50,000 against $8,000, with Sacramento and Oakland still to be heard from. Now if there is going to be a fight, and there may be one, take the above figures and solve the problem."

Wine of Cardui is worth its weight in gold. It does more than you claim. It has saved my life and caused me to become a mother when everything else failed.

Mrs. DORA LEFEVRE.

Bryant, Va., February 18, 1902.

My daughter-in-law, Lizelle Giles, had a miscarriage. She was in very bad health, so I persuaded her to try Wine of Cardui. Since then she has had a fine baby boy.

My daughter, Fannie Hudson, also has a fine baby boy by your treatment. She highly appreciates Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. LOUISE GILES.

Vandervort, Ark.

I suffered a miscarriage, which was followed by flooding. Wine of Cardui stopped my flooding and restored my fallen womb to place. Now I am cured, after taking three bottles. I am expecting to become a mother, and Wine of Cardui will be my doctor.

Mrs. MARY L. BENSON.

CARDUI BABIES

Many homes are mere lonely abodes because no children are there. Barrenness exists in almost every case because female diseases have paralyzed the organs of womanhood, or have so drained the woman's life that she has no vitality to give another.

No medicine can cure organic barrenness, but very few women are naturally barren. Nature intends that every woman shall bear children, and Wine of Cardui, Nature's remedy for weak women, imparts health and strength to the diseased parts and makes motherhood possible in thousands of cases where barrenness is supposed to be incurable.

Wine of Cardui has brought health to 1,500,000 women suffering from every kind of female trouble. The Wine regulates the menstrual flow, which is the foundation of every woman's health. Barrenness usually yields quickly after this important function is regulated. Wine of Cardui also prevents miscarriage and cures bearing-down pains.

In any event Wine of Cardui removes the cause of barrenness by making the female organism strong and healthy. The letters from these grateful women printed to-day are the best evidence that anyone could give.

Go to your druggist and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. The use of Wine of Cardui will bring happiness to your home.

Lutcher, La., Jan. 30, 1902.

I suffered with dragging pains in the lower abdomen, and was perfectly disgusted with life. My husband purchased two bottles of Wine of Cardui. The first relieved me and the second has entirely cured me. I expect to be a mother again in April, and I don't intend to be without Wine of Cardui as long as I am able to buy it.

Mrs. C. J. ROBINSON.

Glendora, Tex., June 19, 1902.

I had womb trouble for three years, but found no relief until I tried Wine of Cardui. Now I have a fine baby boy one year and eight months old. I was married ten years before he was born and have had no other children.

Mrs. COLLIE JOHNSON.

Luna Landing, Ark.,
March 8, 1902.

Wine of Cardui was health life and strength to me during pregnancy. Before I began to use it I was not able to do anything. February 28th a fine baby weighing 12 pounds made his appearance, and I can now recommend it to every expectant mother.
