DESERET EVENING NEWS: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1904.

and should be continued. He closed by shouting, "Long live the commercial boys," which was the signal for the waving of bats and continued cheer-After Eating

Distress

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer

it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it-strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural

Accept no substitute for Hood's.

took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Have taken four bottles of this medicine performance of their functions.

cure and the

went hand in hand.

port and encouragement had not been

THE CONGRESSMAN'S STORY.

Representative Joseph Howell was the next speaker. He received a spiendid ovation and started out by felling a story of a fellow who dreamed he was in Hadrs and was much surprised to find there electric lights, street cars and all the comforts of a home. Despite his pleasant surroundings he had an awful ime until the drummers game, when worrey as a marriage bell. Cougress-man Mowell eulogized the drummers in atting terms and added that he was glind to have the senators here today, men through whose mugle touch had other hammering. His anditors aome-what perplexed, the congressman was inder the necessity of explaining that they were successful mining men and had been able to wrest riches from Mother Earth. Representative Joseph Howell was the Mother Earth.

PREST. HEWLETT'S TALK.

President Hewlett of the Salt Lake city council paid tribute to the granary of Utah and thanked the people of Cache valley for their hospitality. He then read a poem dealing with "The Drummer Pay and His Grip," attribut-ing its authorship to an unnamed Salt

After this Mayor Robinson an-nounced that carriages were in walting to drive the visitors to the Agircultural College a who which a great many took advantage of. A baseball game was scheduled for 3 p. m.

PARADE PRIZE WINNERS.

The committee on parade awarded the following prizes: Floats, first prize equally divided bé-tween the Lundstrom Furniture Co., and the Co-up Drug Co. The Cardon Jewelry Co., was recommended for a second terms special prize.

Turnouts, first prize to Shetland pony display by H. J. DeWitt, Best horseman, Brig Pyper, Best Horsewoman, Miss Lettle Har-

Best bicycle turnout, Miss Hattie Lawson. Best turnout of mechanics, Preston, Pyper & Co.

MAY MORTALITY.

Interesting Report by City Health Commissioner for Past Four Weeks.

The report of the city board of health for the month of May shows that there were 56 deaths in the city from various causes, which is seven more than for the month of May last year, but 24 less than during the month of April this year, Of the deaths reported 27 were makes and 29 females. There were 165 year, Of the deaths reported 27 were males and 29 females. There were 165 births reported the past month as com-pared to 174 for April and 131 for the month of May last year. Of the total number the past month 89 were males and 79 females. Twelve bodies were brought here for Interment during the month and nine were shipped away. There were 55 cases of contagious diseases reported to the board as com-pared to 144 for the month of April. Smallpox shows a substantial decrease this month, there being 21 cases ro-ported as compared to 54 for April, The other contagious diseases reported are other contagious diseases reported are as follows: Diphtheria 3, scarlet fever 8, measles 6, typhoid fever 6, chicken pox 3, and whooping cough 8. The reports of the various inspectors, which are inspired in the health report.

show that a lot of hard work was done in inspecting and abating nuisances, and reflects great credit upon the health and reflects great credit upon the health department. The total number of in-spections made during the month is 3,603, while 780 written notices were served, 705 nuisances abated, 695 cres-pools, vaults and grease traps cleaned. The following number of places were in-spected during the month. Meat mar-kets, 168; darics, 26; restaurants, 101; groceries, 153; commission houses, 69; bakerles, 30; hotels, 25; slaughter hous-cs, 4.

es, 4. There were 2,093 loads of garbage and ashes disposed of at the crematory and the ash dumps during the month and Sale of tickets-T. W. Partridge hairman. Entertainment-Thomas Homer, chairman. Excellent speeches were made by Manager Igleheart of the Herald, and other prominent citizens present, in sympathy with the excursion.

APPOINTMENT CONFIRMED.

The county commissioners have con firmed the appointment made by County Recorder Meeks of Joseph F. McKnight as a denuity in his office to take the place of Fred Jaques, who was promoted to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. O. Young, second deputy.

AN OLD TIMER GONE.

Charles G. Walker, son of John and Mary Walker, died at his residence, 1810 Eleventh East street, Sugar House ward, Monday, May 30, of asthma. He was born at Nottinghamshire, Gring-ley-on-the-hill, England, July 25, 1831, identified himself with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1845, and emigrated to this country and crossed the plains in 1852, experiencing the hardwhine of rightage days. He was "I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and 1445. and emigrated to this country and crossed the plains in 1852, experiencing the hardships of pioneer days. He was one of the guards in Echo canyon at the time of Johnson's army, and also at Salt Lake City at the time of the "move" to the south; was a veteran in the Black Hawk war, and has otherwise been identified with the growth and development of this valley from early days. He was a man of sterling integrity and devotion to the rights and protection of others and died as he had lived, a consistent Latter-day Saint, with great faith in the hope of a glorious resurrection, and beloved by his acquaintances and neighbors. Thursday, June 2, at 10 a. m. Friends, and especially Indian war veterans, are invited to be present. The remains may be viewed at the family residence from s.30 to $30 a. m. and can now eat almost snything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no burning and no distress," MRS. WILLIAM G. BABBETT, 14 Olney St., Providence, R. I. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and the promise.

The advance sale for Sothern'e en gagement, which opens tomorrow night, is now going on at the Theater. An excursion will be run from Ogden Friexcursion will be run from Ogden Fri-day night, and a section of the house has been reserved for Ogden patrons. It is said that Mr. David Belasco him-self will accompany Mrs. Lesile Carter to Sait Lake. If this is the case, it will be the first time Mr. Belasco has been in this city since he and Herne produced "Hearts of Oak" here, over 20 years ago.

20 years ago. The Salt Palace Theater is now open nightly, a vaudeville bill being offered to the patrons. The resort this year is being looked after by Mr. Fredrick Heath, the owner, personally. Mr. Heath says he will maintain the strict-est order about the place, and see that only respectable people visit it. When he cannot maintain the place on a high-class plane, Mr. Heath says he will close it and be proposed to be person.

room connected with the bar, and says the latter is open to the public view, the same as the bars in the city saloons.

given. However, the exchange was struggling on as best it could, and it might be relied upon as ready to extend the glad hand to the real estate men. W. G. Tuttle called attention to the fact that while the railroad companies would not allow the agents of the as-sociation to enter trains with their ex-with a few edges to match, regularly sold for 25c and

35c per yard, in this sale

15 cts.

only-

35c to 45c per yard regular-

20 cts.

ly, in this sale only----

2 to 5 inches that sold from

15c to 25c per yard, in this

10 cts.

sale only-

There will be an organ recital in the Tabernacle tomorrow, at 5:20 p. m. SIXTY-THREE Utah strawberries are just begin-ning to come into the market, and in the course of the next few days will make more of a show.

J. E. Coegciff and family have gone to St. Lonis to see the fair, and will then continue on to Eurlington, VL, Mr. Coegciff's old home where they are to second a marking are to spend a month.

The steady weather is bringing con-siderable business to the deaters in agricultural implements who report lively call for mowers and rakes, a the time for cutting grass approaches.

Chief of Police William J. Lynch leaves tomorrow morning for St. Louis to attend the convention of interna-tional Chiefs of Police. Chief Lynch anticipates a most pieceant trip, and expects to be absent for at least two weeks weeks.

Mrs. Catherine King, of 643 south Third East street, reported to the police today, that yesterday her house was broken into and $40 in gold stolen from a trunk. She left the house only for a short time, and when she returned, found that the money was gone. Fish Commissioner Sharp wishes sportsmen to keep in mind that the fishing season in this state does not open until 12:01 a, m., dune 15, and he hopes there will be no attempts to force the season as it will be likely to get somebody into the grasp of the law.

A variety entertainment will be given in the Twenty-seventh ward meeting-house on Thursday and Friday next, at 8 p. m., under the auspices of the ward Primary association. The program con-sists of dialogues, rectiations, comic and sentimental songs, drills, etc.; also an acting character entitled. "The Men-dicant." The proceeds are for the bene-fit of the meetinghouse.

Members of the national guard ex-plain the "brevity" in numbers of the two local infantry companies at the Memorial day parade, by the fact that the men were not ordered, but merely requested, to turn out; and the request did not seem to work. But if the men had been ordered out, and paid for ser-vice, there would have been a strong showing. showing.

A man, giving the name of John Christensen, reported to the police last midnight, that he had been robbed by five men at the rear of the G. & G. saloon on Second South street, of $14. At 4.45 this morning, Sergeant Hempel and Officer Williams arrested a suspect who gave the name of George Tulley. The police claim to have proof that he was one of the fellows who participated in the robbery.

George A. Taylor who resides 'at 142 Third East street, this city, is at the Holy Cross hospital under the care of Dr. Root, for an injury which he sus-tained Sunday while working in the Honerine mine at Stockton. Mr. Tayor stepped upon a rusty hail and it is feared that unless an operation is per-formed to prevent it, lockjaw may en-sue, and the man's life be placed in imminent danger.

Tomorrow will be field day for the high school cadets now encamped at Lagoon. There will be all sorts of field events, for which prizes have been ofevents, for which prizes have been of-fered by the following firms: Kelth-O'Brien's, Walker's, Z. C. M. L. Siegel's, Franklin's, J. P. Gardner, Auerbach's, J. Will Gray, Gray & Bro., Western Arms and Sporting Goods Co., George Mullett, William Rash, St. Lake, Soda Water Co., There are 100 cadets in camp and they attract hundreds of visitors daily to the popular resort.

i brief recess.

old up to $1.83.

Montaua.Tonopah, 100 at 1.80; 100 at

Star Con., 500 at 11%; 1,000 at 11%.

Postmaster A. L. Thomas is very much put out over the report that ap-peared in a morning paper in the form of an interview with Senator Dubois, stating that the postmaster would be called as a witness in the Smoot in-vestigation. "I merely desire to state," said Mr. Thomas, "that I have never talked with any member of the in-vestigation committee or any person vestigation committee or any person connected with it as to becoming a witness. The assertions made are ridiculous."

Atty, General Breeden returned last evening, from Manti where he went to deliver the Memorial day oration. He says that this was the first time such

Tratesta annenas artistan

SAINSBURY.—In this city, of premature birth, infant son of John H. and Ger-trude Sainsbury. Service and interment private.

COUNSELL.-At 258 north Seventh West, this city, June 1, 1904, of cancer of the stomach. Sarah, wife of William Counsell and daughter of John and Em-ma Smithers; born Dec. 26, 1828, in where plans for the coming excursion of real estate men for June 29, was discussed, Mr. Homer presided, "Otlum cum dignitate," and introduced the liness with which the average real estate man moves, cating and speaking Mayor Morris made a very pleasing address, expressing his sympathy with the objects and purposes of the association, and his gratification that the members were so ardently engaged in building up the city and exerting their induces in fact, for good all over the state. He hoped the excursion would be a success, and proposed to contrib-ute his mite of strength in helping push the thing through close it, and he proposes to be person-ally responsible for its conduct. He de-nies vigorously that there is any wine ute his mite of strength in helping push the thing through. Charles E. Hudson of the Stock Ex-change in his short talk, made a good impression. He said the Stock Ex-change would surely do what lay in its power to help the real estate associa-tion in its purposes and plans. But the exchange, like some other organ-fizations, was troubled by "knockers," and they were unpleasant people to get along with. Moreover, where the ex-change had felt with good reason that it should have the support and en-couragement of the banks, such sup-port and encouragement had not been

MUSICAL TREAT.

Scandinavian Drama and Operetta to Be Presented. The success of the Tabernacle concert given by the Scandinavian Musical association on April 4; has prompted this sociation on April 4; has prompted this talented body of workers toward great-er things, and in the Salt Lake Thea-ter on Monday night, June 6, the pas-toral drama "Til Sæters," and the beau-tiful operetta "Dalbonden's Dotter," will be rendered by competent talent. The scale of prices is on the "popu-lar" order, parquette and dress circle 75 cents. first circle 50 cents, and family cents, first circle 50 cents, and family circle 25 cents. The entire proceeds will be used for the benefit of the L D. S. meetinghouse at Stockholm, Sweden. Anton Pedersen has the musical part of the program in charge.

PUSHING EXCURSION. Real Estate Men Discuss Outing at Their Noon-day Luncheon. The Salt Lake Real Estate association held a well attended luncheon this afternoon, at the Commercial club,

At the crematory 39 dogs, 25 horses and 6 cows were destroyed. The fumigator, disinfected 25 houses, composed of 95 rooms, during the month.

THE STATE'S MONEY. What Report of the Treasury Shows, For the Month Just Closed.

State Treasurer Dixon filed his report for the month of May with State Auditor Tingey today. The report shows balance on hand on May 31 of $215,996.96. The receipts for the month amounted to $119,611.70, and the balance on hand at the beginning of the month was $245. 124.76, making a total on hand during the month of $364,736.46. The disburse-ments were $148,739.50, leaving the bal-ance at the end of the month as given above. This balance is distributed among the various state funds as follows:

General fund	65,978.77
State district schools	6,183.58
Trust fund	474.41
Suspense account	8,91
Sheep inspection fund	3,110.78
Redemption fund	25,000.00
School lands of entirence	5,608.36
University land	3,278,78
Agricultural college lands	7.623.00
Public buildings	8,980.81
Reservoir	54,310.74
Insane asylum	308.07
School of mines	4,648.04
Deaf and dumb asylum ,	537.77
Reform school	9,538,69
Normal school	-5.102.83
Institution for blind	9,004.41
'Miners' hospital	6,294.28
Total ,	215,996,96
and a substantion of the	a contract to bar

AT ROWLAND HALL.

Full Program of Commencement Exercises Commencing on June 5.

Invitations are out for the Rowland Hall communicement exercises extending from June 5 to 8, inclusive. The program for commencement week is as follows:

Commencement were in as follows: Backataureate sermen by Bishop Tuttle, St. Mark's Cathedral, June 5, JJ a. m. Musicale, plano department. First Con-gregational Church, Jone 5, 815 p. m. Senior commencement evening, Congres-gational Church, June 5, 815 p. m. Confering of diplomas, St. Mark's Cathedral, June 5, H a. m.

Cathedrai, Jane S. H. a. m. Cathedrai, Jane S. H. a. m. Until, the election, in October, of a bishop for this diocese, Bishop Tuitlo is in immediate charge, and therefore is to preach the barealaureate sermon. The manicale by the pupils of the piano, de-partment will include a program of 20 numbers to be given by these pupils. Mias Heila Blyth, Miss Josephine Alex-ander. Miss Lucik Clark, Miss Marcaret Hards, Naomin Hoffman, Miss Pauline My, Miss Marcaret Leonard, Miss Chau-in Green, Miss Honnie Miller. Miss seitme Waltenaw, Miss Vein, Mass deine Whitelaw, Miss Hein Long, Miss fargaret Sizer, Miss Mato, Robinson, Miss fargaret Sizer, Miss Enal, Miss fargaret Sizer, Miss Enal, Orbenne, Miss fargaret Sizer, Miss Enal Coltharp, tiss Josels Kengon. Following the recital medials will be recepted.

wing the recital medals will be

The senior commencement evening will uclidy this program: for et Danses Succortses (four hands) Schrette Miss Jessie Kenvon and Miss Flanders. Senor, "Music as a Pactor in Educa-Untr," regression Miss Mary Finley match in widths from 5 to 10 Inches, regularly sold at 50c to 75c per yard, to be sacrificed in this sale at,

25 cts.

only-

this high grade display of high class Swiss embroidmagnificent edges and ineries, exquisite patterns, sertions in width from 5 to from 9 to 12 inches wide, 10 mehes, Regular selling that sold in regular stock prices range from 75c to for $1,25 to $2.00 per yard, $1.25 per yard, in this sale they go atin this sale---35 cts.

50 cts.

the very acme of embroidflouncings with rich heavery perfection; magnificent deep edges, and insertions on finest Swiss muslins, from 15 to 27 inches wide. ily embroidered medallion, floral, blind and open work edges that sell regularly for $2.00 to $2.75 per yard, Regularly sold for $2,75 t? $3.50 per yard, slaughtered to be sacrificed in this sale in this sale at only-

$1.00

75 cts.