

MUCH TALK ON RESOLUTION

Chambers Moves to Expunge, But Resolution is Retained.

THE SIXTY-FOURTH BALLOT

Gives Cannon Seven, King Thirteen, McCune Twenty-seven, Sutherland Fourteen, Powers One—Senate and House at Work.

The Senate and House of Representatives met in joint session at 10 o'clock this morning to consider the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

CHAMBERS MOVED TO EXPUNGE. Mr. Cannon moved to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE JACOBSON. Representative Jacobson said: I support the resolution and commend the proposition to expunge the resolution from the record because I object to it.

REPRESENTATIVE ROBINSON. Representative Robinson said: There are two phases of this question to which I desire to call the attention of the assembly. The first is the question of the resolution itself.

REPRESENTATIVE DENISON. Representative Denison said: The mover of the resolution is indifferent as to the result of the vote. He is only interested in the question of the resolution itself.

THINKING STATEMENT FALSE. Senator Cannon rose to a question of privilege and said: I think the statement made by Mr. Cannon is false.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITNEY. Representative Whitney said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE JACOBSON. Representative Jacobson said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE DENISON. Representative Denison said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE JACOBSON. Representative Jacobson said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE DENISON. Representative Denison said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE JACOBSON. Representative Jacobson said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE DENISON. Representative Denison said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE JACOBSON. Representative Jacobson said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE DENISON. Representative Denison said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE JACOBSON. Representative Jacobson said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

REPRESENTATIVE DENISON. Representative Denison said: I am opposed to the motion to expunge the resolution introduced by Mr. Cannon.

RAWLINS TALKS ON EXPANSION.

Senator from Utah Delivers an Address Before the Senate.

INEVITABLE PROGRESSION.

"No Man Can Set an Artificial Barrier to the Progress of the American People."

Washington, Feb. 1.—Mr. Rawlins, U.S. senator from Utah, delivered an address before the Senate on the subject of expansion.

That the acquisition by the United States through conquest, treaty or otherwise of territory, not adjacent to the United States, is not a constitutional or moral obligation to admit it as a territory or any portion thereof in the federal union as a State or as a territory.

That it is against the policy, traditions and interest of American people to admit States created out of such territory into the Union of American States, at any time or under any conditions.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

That the United States accept from Spain the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and the Marianas, and that the people of these islands may, if they so desire, establish a stable government, capable of enforcing the laws and order of home and of discharging the international obligations resting on separate and independent States.

TEUTONS ARE VERY FRIENDLY.

Germany is Not Seeking Any Trouble with Uncle Sam.

RECALL OF SAMOAN AGENTS Will be the Next Step, Provided They Have Violated the Treaty of Berlin.

New York, Feb. 1.—A special from Washington says that the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

According to the statement of a captain, connected with the German government, the German government is not seeking any trouble with Uncle Sam.

GENERAL TANGLE IN OMAHA

Police Captain is in Jail—Arrest of the City Attorney Threatened.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—Omaha city business men are in a state of confusion.