EXTENSION OF RAPID TRANSIT

Street Car System to Be Pushed Through Ogden Canyon—Fare Reduction to Hot Springs.

WEBER STAKE ORGANIZATION

Will Be Effected Sunday—Suit for Divorce—Bank Enters Counter Suits Against Taylors—News Briefs.

Ogden, Aug. 8.—Work upon the extension of the line of the Ogden Rapid Transit company will probably be resumed within the next 30 days, or sooner if the right of way over certain resorts in the canyon can be secured. The statement was given out by one who is in a position to know that the street car company has been considering the matter of building the line through the canyon, and that the only reason that work has not been started before was an account of the fact that there had been a little hitch in the matter of securing a right of way over certain pieces of property in the canyon.

From an authentic source the information is given out that the owners of property in the canyon have informed Mr. David Eccles, president of the street car company and one of its wealthiest stockholders, that they are willing to give the company right of way over their property, but it must be taken that the value of the property will not be depreciated.

The route as has been selected by the street car company and for which the track is laid for about a quarter of a mile above the present terminus of the line, will necessitate the erection of about five or six bridges and will call for a great amount of rock work. The line from the mouth of the canyon to the Oakes is a feasible one and its cost per mile is far below that of what was first estimated.

It is expected that the work on the line will begin within the next 30 or 60 days and will be rushed through this fall so that a number of the rock retaining walls, culverts and bridges can be built this fall while the river is very low.

visement by the street car company is the reducing of the fare from Ogden City to the Hot Springs from 25 cents one way to 10 cents and from 50 cents for the round trip including the bath to 40 cents. The reason for this reduction is given that a large number of the employees of the Utah Smelter company at the Hot Springs as well as the cannery companies and packing plants in North Ogden and Pleasant View are residents of the city but are compelled to live at the factories and plants on account of the exorbitant car fare but that if the fare was reduced they would be able to live in the city and catch the early morning car to work. The order for the reduction in fare will probably be issued by the president of the road within a week.

WEBER STAKE ORGANIZATION.
Ogden, Aug. 8.—Tomorrow afternoon in the table of the last of the three stakes into which the old Weber stake was divided will be organized. While the stake is as large as the Ogden and the North Weber stakes there will not be as much work to do on account of the fact that many of the officers of the old Weber stake live in this stake which will still retain the name of the Weber stake.

The officers of the stake who are, president, L. W. Shurtliff, first counselor, C. F. Middleton, and second counselor, John Watson, all reside in the stake to be organized tomorrow which is south of Twenty-fourth street and the Wilson lane. There are many other officers of the stake who live in the other two stakes taking many of the officers of the Weber stake, but these officers will be set apart at the afternoon session at the tabernacle.

With the completion of the organization of the Weber stake all the three stakes in Weber county will have been organized. The next step will be the dividing of some of the large wards of the stake up into two or more wards. There are a number of wards in the new stakes that are very large and the meetings are far too small to even accommodate one-half of the membership of the church.

CLOSE OF FOUR-DAY DEBATE.

Firemen's Carnival Aug. 12—City Council Session.

Murray, Aug. 8.—Last night closed the debate on legal succession in the Church presidency, by J. P. Sanders and J. F. Curtis. The opera house was well filled, and if not a real battle, it was a close one. Elder Sanders held the position, but it was a close one. Elder Sanders held the position, but it was a close one.

1.—1 challenge the proof that his church is possessed and endowed with the fullness of the priesthood on earth. 2.—1 challenge the proof that the presidency of the Church descends from father to son, or that it ever did so descend. 3.—1 challenge the proof that baptism for the dead is not binding on them as a church, (and if it will destroy one church for not preparing for their dead, why will not the same causes bring the same results.) 4.—1 challenge the proof that the earth is not standing under a curse and liable at any moment to be smitten with a curse, from section 27, 9.

5.—1 challenge the proof that Z. H. Gourley had any authority to present the Church to Joseph Smith on the 6th day of April, 1869, saying "Brother Z. H. Gourley, we present this Church to you in the name of Jesus Christ." 6.—1 challenge the proof that James Whitehead did not perform himself on the 10th day of April, 1869, in the temple in Kansas City, Mo., when he swore that Joseph had been ordained president of the Church by Joseph his father.

7.—1 challenge the proof that William Smith did not perform himself when he swore he had been ordained a prophet, seer and revelator, and translator, to the Church. 8.—1 challenge the proof that Young Joseph did not swear the truth when he swore that he had not been ordained by his father.

9.—1 challenge the proof that wherever the Church of God appears the work of the dead will not also appear. 10.—1 challenge the proof that the Reorganized church does not make God a party, being to reject the innocent dead and accept the guilty living which caused the dead to be rejected. 11.—1 challenge the proof that William Marks, Z. H. Gourley and J. W. Briggs were not equally guilty in not completing the Nauvoo temple and thereby fell with the Church, seeing they were living in the Church at the time and were as much to blame for the temple work as any one else.

After the discussion everybody turned debator. In clubs of five and six in different corners of the building and for two blocks up Main street could be heard a discussion with moderator and judges to render a decision.
