

NEW YORK, 28.—London Truth says: A party of Mormon missionaries from Utah have been working actively for the last six months in the western counties, and I regret to hear that they have induced quite a large number of persons in the rural districts to join that egregious body. Many converts have already gone out to Utah, and a still more numerous contingent have been baptized, pending the time when they will be ready to start for the promised land. It is lamentable to think that after the repeated exposures of the Mormon creed there still remain in this country, people capable of being ensnared by the outrageous fictions of the plausible vao bonds who are regularly dispatched to Europe from Utah in search of recruits. In America the humbug Mormonism has long been so thoroughly exploded that converts are rarely forthcoming except in the persons of individuals whose room would usually be considered preferable to their company.

J. B. Grinnell of Iowa, in conformity with the recommendation of the late meeting of cattle men in Chicago has prepared a circular showing the amount of capital invested in the cattle and swine industry and the losses on exportation consequent upon the restrictive regulations and decreased relative consumption of beef. Grinnell finds that there is invested $108,000,000 in cattle representing 4,117,100 animals. The losses on exportation of cattle approximate, comparing 82 and 83 with 80 and 81, 155,909 animals valued at $11,506,000. Grinnell had an interview with President Arthur on this matter with a view to secure some remedy. The President is greatly interested, and will treat on the question in his next message. The heads of the treasury and agricultural departments, he also found anxious to extend some aid, and will do all they can to secure the framing of laws for the consideration of Congress. After consulting with the Commissioner of Agriculture as ex-officio chairman of the committee, Grinnell has called a meeting to be held at the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, Jan. 10, 1884. He hopes that western people interested in the cattle industry will enlist their congressional delegations in its behalf.

CHICAGO, 28.—Representatives of five roads composing the Iowa pool have been in session here all this forenoon and have been considering the proposition put forward by the Milwaukee and St. Paul road for a reorganization of the pool, under which that company shall be allowed increased percentage. It is stated on good authority, that five of the roads directly interested, have reached an amicable understanding as to the main point at issue, and that the continuance of the pool is now assured. Details of the agreement have not been given.

CHICAGO, 28.—The State Legislature at its last session passed a habitual criminals act which provides that if anyone commits a crime, that after conviction for the first offense, he shall be punished to the full extent allowed by law for such offense and for a crime committed after the second conviction, receive not less than 15 years. The first conviction under the statute was that of Wm. Sullivan, who had served two terms for shooting at a police officer and for burglary. He was tried for burglary this time, and the jury awarded him 20 years.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 28.—A Khartoum dispatch says the Arabs report a large force of rebels close to Khartoum. El Mahdi has issued orders to all tribes not to send corn to Khartoum. The dispatch says: "We only have food for a month. Only 2,000 men are here to defend nearly four miles of line. It is perfectly useless to defend Khartoum, where the population is a lumbering volcano. The land line of retreat is closed, and the river line may be stopped to-morrow. Rebels are holding the cliffs overhanging the river at Sibuluki."

Warden, bank defaulter, was sentenced to twelve years penal servitude.

Dublin, 26.—The authorities forbade the procession announced to take place in commemoration of the execution of Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, by walking through the city to Glasnevin Cemetery and around the graves of those who lost their lives during the Fenian agitation. Crowds, however, marched to the cemetery in small groups and marched around the graves.

Two magistrates and a body of police were ready to enforce the government's proclamation prohibiting a demonstration, but the promoters evaded them by unrolling the memorial earlier than the specified time.

The Parnellite party gained eight seats in the municipal elections today.

Limerick, 26.—The election of municipal officers resulted in favor of the Parnellites.

PARIS, 26.—La Liberte publishes a telegram from London stating that England offered to mediate between France and China and France accepted the offer. The telegram also says England recognizes that the interests of France in Tonquin justify the occupation by the French of both Sontay and Bac Ninh, but England strongly advises France to pursue a conciliatory policy.

The French gunboat Lynx left Haldung soon after the arrival of reinforcements. The Lynx and Leopard have gone to occupy the river near Bac Ninh, in order to cut off the enemy's retreat.

In an interview De Desseps said he was highly gratified with the results of his tour in England. He regards the settlement of the question of the construction of a second Suez canal virtually accomplished.

Marseilles, 26.—It is rumored that 13,000 men will be mobilized immediately for China, and Gen. Campeon, minister of war, is negotiating for the services of ten great transports with which to forward the troops to their destination.

St. Petersburg, 26.—There appears to be more and more ground for the report that the Czar sometime ago selected Count Tolstol and Priy Counsellors Pobedonozoff and Katkoff to elaborate a constitutional charter, said to contain an organization more adapted to the spirit of the age, wherein though the principle of autocracy is maintained, possibility is given to prominent persons as representatives of the people to mediate between the latter and the Crown as advisers of the Government. These reforms are granted in order to do justice to the universal desires of the people.

Madrid, 26.—A grand military review in honor of the Crown Prince of Germany was held this afternoon. The troops consisted of six regiments of infantry, four regiments of rifles, one battalion of guards civile, five squadrons of cavalry, four regiments of field artillery and one regiment of mounted artillery, aggregating 15,000 men and 76 guns. The line extended two miles. All the troops wore gala uniforms and presented a martial appearance.

Cairo, 26.—After the review to day the troops about to start for Suakim, three Turkish officers went to Baker Pasha and refused to go to the Soudan, on the ground that their contract was for service in Egypt alone. It is hoped the matter will be arranged. There is a general sense of uneasiness, showing signs of the revival of religious enthusiasm, at Tantah especially. The captain who brought news of Hicks Pasha's defeat states that he was allowed to escape only on profession of the Moslem faith. The massacre, he said, was not so universal as at first believed, as those Egyptian soldiers who were so disposed were allowed to join the forces of El Mahdi. There is reason to believe emissaries of El Mahdi are busy in the large towns of Upper Egypt, and a general rising is feared.

LONDON, 27.—There is nothing here to confirm the report in America that Khartoum had fallen into the hands of El Mahdi. On the contrary, last advices indicate that the siege was liable to be stubbornly opposed, as the garrison was being reinforced and provisioned.

The Dutch bark Judith, from Loviso for Parmerenda, was lost off the coast of Norway with 156 persons on board. The captain is the only survivor.

Justice Denman, of the Court of the Queen's Bench, presides over O'Donnell's trial, which begins on Friday.

It is expected the trial will be concluded on Saturday, as only nine witnesses for the prosecution and four for the defense will be called.

Lord Rossmore's commission as justice of the peace in County Monaghan, has been suspended owing to his action on the occasion of the Orange and League meetings at Roslea, County Armagh, Oct. 16th. The Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal in a letter to Lord Rossmore, charged him with endangering the public peace by leading a procession of Orangemen in close proximity to a League meeting.

The letter concludes, demanding an explanation from Lord Rossmore.

Lord Rossmore replied that he was unable to control the Orange procession, which he says insisted upon marching straight to the place of the League meeting. He says he is convinced that his action at Roslea was the most practical answer to Gladstone's appeal to the wealthier portion of Ireland to help themselves.

The Marquis of Huntingdon, Secretary of State for War, referring in a speech in Manchester to the proposed inclusion of Ireland in the scheme for Parliamentary reform, said it was useless to ignore the fact that many people outside the ranks of Conservatives would view with dislike any measure likely to increase the power of the irreconcilables in Parliament.

Newry, 27.—At a meeting of Orangemen, arrangements were made to hold a demonstration to counteract the demonstration of Nationalists held Sunday afternoon; 2,500 Orangemen have promised to attend. Railway officials have made arrangements to run special trains from Belfast. The magistrates have applied for a large force of police and dragoons to preserve order. Orangemen have arranged to place a thousand men on the principal roads to prevent Nationalists entering town.

Paris, 27.—Excited crowds thronged the boulevards until a late hour to-night, eagerly discussing the rumors of the French defeat in Tonquin. The reticence of the government is much commented on. Several members of the committee on Tonquin credits urged Prime Minister Ferry to abandon his reserve and inform the Chambers of the position of affairs. In view of the state of things, the following semi-official communication was sent to the papers: "We are authorized to declare that up to the moment of going to press, the government has received no dispatch from Tonquin unfavorable to the French. Alarmist reports may therefore be regarded as false."

Plymouth, 27.—A woman, said to be Patrick O'Donnell's wife, on board the steamer Melrose when Carey was shot, has arrived from Cape of Good Hope. He traveled under the name of McGarvey, and has been taken to London to testify in behalf of O'Donnell.

A rumor is current this afternoon in the lobbies of the Chamber of Deputies that Admiral Courbet, with his forces, has been defeated at Tonquin by the Black Flags, and his communications cut off. The rumors are given the more credence because no official information is forthcoming. There is considerable uneasiness felt at the absence of news from Admiral Courbet's expedition.

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment.
