SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP WEDDING. ver the country, visiting the prisons not penitentiaries in the interest of infistian Endeavor. CELEBRATE GOLDEN DESERET EVENING NEWS Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Christian Endeavor. The Socialist convention did not end its labors until midnight. The termination was somewhat tropical but it was ad-mitted that the stremuousness of the oc-casion was rather enjoyed after all. An official organ was adopted in the form of the industrial Labor Journal and its edi-tor, Murray King, was elected national committeeman. During the long night served a toothsome lunch, which added zerved a toothsome lunch, which affair. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pleces by taking a teaspoon-ful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep per-fectly free from cough and its accom-panying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeble surprise is putting it very mildy. ried in the Old Council House that stood for so many years where the new Descret News building now stands, the ceremony being performed by the late Lzra T. Benson. At that time they went to housekeeping in the Twelfth ward and have never changed the location of their residence. There'12 children were born to them. Of these six are living and six have passed into the unseen world. Tonight a reception of the family and intimate friends will be held at their residence in honor of the occasion, when they will be congratulated upon the happiness and success of their lives and on having reached the goal of wedded life that so few comparatively do reach. In the cut reproduced above are shown four generations of the Midgley family. They are first, Mr. Joshua Midgley on the extre me right; second, his son, J. H. Midgley on the extreme left; third, his grandso n, T. J. Midgley, standing in the conter, and fourth, his great-grandson, Norman, sitting in the center.

ment was lost, Mr. Geoghegan alone veting for it. RESOLUTION ADOPTED. The vote on the resolution brought Mr. Nelden to his feet with the question whether it would be legal to per-mit the teachers to use the schools during the month of May and charge a tui tion. Mr. Moyle said he had not looked into the matter very carefully from a legal point of view, but offhand would hazard the opinion that it was. Then

Mr. Nelden voted in the affirmative adding that he wished the position of the board could be placed in the right light before the people of Salt Lake.
