- _ DEC. 21, 1899. OGDEN. Yesterday afternoon the sad news mached Ogden of a shocking shooting weident at South Hooper, Davis coung, resulting in the instant death of Parley Bybee. According to the report d a gentleman just in from the scene of the tragedy, it appears that at about ja m. yesterday, Parley Bybee, a young man about 19 years of age, with mother boy about 14, were handling a shotgun which they had loaded but smingly could not discharge, so one of the boys "dared" the other to stand up and be shot at. The Bybee boy acopted the challenge and the smaller by raised the gun, and taking a foolardy aim at his companion, pulled the rigger, and to his great astonishment the gun went off, the entire load passinto the Bybee boy's head, The actim fell to the ground and expired mmediately. Help was soon at his de, but too late as death was instan-

Joseph Scofield, the boy who uninnally shot his companion, was almost frantic with grief, and seemed ulte uncontrollable. The Bybee boy wide uncontrollable. The Bybee boy is a son of Mrs. Mary Bybee, the widew of the late David Bybee, the family are old and well known settlers a Weber county. The family have the niversal sympathy of the people. The shooting was purely accidental, a fault can be placed on either of the bys, except that they should not have handled the gun so carelessly, which they knew to be loaded.

DISTRICT COURT.

In the Second district court, before udge H. H. Rolapp:

in the amended complaint in the case Thomas Nelson vs David Evans and indsay R. The Parowan Stake conference was held here and closed at noon yesterday. We were favored with the presence of Apostle Grant and Elder McMurrin of the presidency of Seventies. Young people's conference was a very pleasing feature of the gathering. On the 10th inst. our Sunday school jubliess was held. The exercises were carried out in a creditable manner and reflected much credit upon the officers and teachers of that worthy institu-

at Inverary. Special Correspondence. Annabella, Sevier Co., Dec. 19 -- On Dec. 15, while on a visit to Inverury, Elder Adam Yearin, of this place, died at the home of a friend, of old age and general debility, being $1 years, 4 months and 7 days of age. He was buried at this place on the 17th. He had many friends here, but no relatives, his wife and two daughters be-
