The Liberal Convention.
At a meeting of delegates from and without trail, left their wagon, and took thirty-seven companies of cavalry and eight of infantry, and were making forced marches, expecting to overtake the Indians before they reached the Yellowstone River.

The night before last a large war party of Sioux appeared on the apposite bank of the river from Berthold agency, and demanded ed supplies, on being refused they opened fire upon the soldiers, and after a short fight, in which several minutes, they then withdrew, and struck south to ward Fort Lincoln.

of the Interior recently sent an agent west to unearth the frauds in California, where land is in greater demand. Minnesota 47; Kansas 3; Nebraska 25; California 873; Oregon

The Indian War—What Gen. Sherman Thinks—Recruiting for the Cavalry, etc.
General Sherman, this evening, said: "Advised of the last few days indicate that the Sioux cannot escape without our forces striking them. He feels entire confidence in the ability of Crook and Terry to inflict severe punishment. No information of any recent encounter with the Indians reached the army headquarters. Refor-ments are being moved to the departments of the Platte and Dakota, part of which will be sent to the Platte. Terry is to lead the hostiles if they try to cross the Missouri river. Companies A, C, D and I, of the fifth infantry, the remainder of General Miles' regiment, have been ordered to a new post on the Yellowstone, under command of Lieut. Colonel William Buford. Dakota has been made a depot for the supply of the troops in the field, and under the command of General W. B. Hazen, commanding officer at the Standing Rock Agency, he having reported his forces insufficient to arrest and disarm
the remainder of General Miles' regiment, who participated in the Custer massacre and have also come to that agency. Four additional companies have been sent there,

Preparations for the Funeral.
NEW ALBANY, Ind., 23.—Extensive preparations are making here for the reception of the remains of Speaker Kerr. At 12 o'clock tonight committees from the Masonic and other bodies will take charge of them and remove them to the rotunda, which is draped and trimmed with flags, evergreens and flowers. The remains will lie here in state till to-morrow evening, and be removed to the speakers' hall late home. On Friday the funeral services occur. Democrats and republicans alike will unite in divesting the pages of the parade at the funeral of any appearance of partisanship, and in showing the universal respect and admiration in which Mr. Kerr was held.

The Greenback Convention.
CHICAGO, 23.—A greenback ratification mass meeting was held here to-day, at which many prominent party managers were present, including Samuel T. Cary, nominee for vice-president; Stewart, democratic and greenback nominee for governor of Illinois; Moses W.
Field, chairman of the national executive committee, and several nominees for state officers.

In the afternoon a meeting was held in the exposition building, at which Sidney Myers, of Chicago, was chosen chairman. He made a lengthy address, after which Gen.
Hayes read a letter from Peter Cooper expressing regret at his inability to be present, and saying he had waited long and vainly in hope that the present is the acceptable time to undo the unwitting and blundering work of 1873, and render our legislation on the subject of specie payments more physical facts concerning the stock and supply of precious metals through the world and conformable to the constitution of the country.

Gen. Carey was next introduced and made a two hours' speech, in which he arraigned both political parties for their mismanagement and wickedness, and denounced especially the financial legislation of the last eight years.

Resolutions were adopted approving the nomination of Cooper and Carey, and pledging their support; approving the Indianapolis platform; denouncing the action of the presidential candidate in repudi-ating the pledge of specie resumpand the force placed in command of W. H. Carlton, of the 7th infantry. The force will be composed of G and K of the 1st infantry, A of the 4th, E and F of the 17th, and H and the 2nd, and on their arrival the hostiles will be disarmed and arrested. A battalion of the 11th infantry, companies E, F, G, H and K have been ordered from Texas to proceed by road to Yankton, and thence by steamer to join Terry.

In addition to these troops, two companies of the 4th infantry have been ordered from Fort Cameron in southern Utah, to take post at Cheyenne, and one company from Camp Douglas, Salt Lake City, to Medicine Bow, Wyoming, near Fort Fred Steele, to strengthen those points, it being feared that if Sitting Bull finds himself pressed too closely his forces will break into small bands and make for the railroad to depredate upon settlements.

A command has been established under Crook to be known as the district of the Black Hills, and Gen.
Ronald S. McKenzie, Colonel of the Fourth Cavalry, is assigned to its command, with headquarters at Cheyenne, Nebraska, Red Cloud Agency, Nebraska.

Officers have been designated at each post in Indian territory, Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Minnesota and Dakota, to recruit the men authorized to fill up the cavalry regiments, with Fort D. A. Russell, in the department of the Platte, and Fort Abraham Lincoln, in the department of Dakota, as rendezvous and camps of instruction. Recruits are allowed to select the regiment in which they will serve. Those for the 2nd, 3rd and 5th will be sent to Fort Russell, and those for the 7th to Fort Lincoln. Officers of marine corps are urging that their corps be sent to the frontier, and claim that from 800 to 1,000 men can be sent inside a week, which would make as strong a force as any two regiments in the army. Gen. Sherman is willing that they should be sent.

That Railroad Accident.
NEW ORLEANS, 23.—Gen. Supt.
Trotter telegraphs the following in relation to the railroad accident near Jackson—

"The unprecedented heavy flood, which occurred eight miles north of Jackson, Miss., washed out a twelve foot culvert directly under the train. The engine, tender, and mail car passed over; the baggage car, smoking car and ladies' coach went into the hole. The sleeping car did not get off the track. The passengers hurt were in the smoking car and the ladies' coach. The casualties are as follows: One tramp, stealing a passage, killed; two passengers mortally wounded; ten injured, none dangerously." lating petitions requesting M. Gambetta to resign the seat which he holds in the chamber of deputies as their representative.

"Share you'll marry me now, Bridget, night of yer life, nor a boy in the place as can't get a crack on the head with
