

CONGRESS AT OGDEN.

Arrival of Three Distinguished Delegates and an Ovation.

GOVERNOR THOMAS' ADDRESS.

Governor McConnell of Idaho for President—Resolutions Introduced and Adopted.

Spoke to the News.

OGDEN, Utah, April 25.—At the morning session of the Trans-Mississippi Congress Governor Thomas spoke touching silver, bank culture and culture generally. The majority proposed Governor W. J. McConnell, of Idaho for president, W. H. Harvey, Utah, secretary, W. J. Latham, Oregon, and A. W. Crawford, Texas, assistant secretaries.

The minority favored A. C. Fick of Colorado, for president. After a discussion by all the delegates and a lively skirmishing, the majority report was adopted with loud and prolonged cheers.

Colonel Harvey declared positively that he could better serve the interests of the congress in other ways. It was suggested that the question be left open till the place of the next meeting had been decided upon and the secretary chosen from that section. The declaration was accepted with many thanks for the past services of Colonel Harvey and the suggestion was adopted.

The following vice presidents were elected: Arizona, W. A. Chisney; Arkansas, W. M. Patterson; California, E. H. Hark; Idaho, A. J. Hunsford; Oklahoma, John J. Dilling; New Mexico, Governor Z. B. Pitzer; Utah, C. C. Crawford; Texas, General Lee. A. H. Harkness, Congressmen W. J. Hargis; Washington, Col. J. W. Feltgen; Nevada, N. E. Shattuck; North Dakota, Governor Schreffer; California, W. J. Hunsford; Iowa, N. H. Taylor; Montana, J. A. Murray; Missouri, W. J. Harkness; Wyoming, C. H. Hunsford; Kansas, W. A. Chisney; Nebraska, Governor L. J. Burdick; Colorado, Governor W. A. Chisney.

The congress adjourned till 2 o'clock. The various committees were appointed. The name of Senator W. M. Stewart was added to the Nevada delegation. Governor McConnell, in a short speech, assumed the chair as permanent president. The committee on rules and order of the congress reported and their report was adopted. Resolutions on transportation were referred without reading.

BAN FRANCISCO IS CHIEF.

The question of the location of the next congress, San Francisco was chosen by the delegates. The delegates from San Francisco, Dallas, Texas, Texas, receiving a second withdrawal, and San Francisco was unanimously chosen as the place for the next congress. (Herald and others.)

(By Associated Press.)

OGDEN, Utah, April 25.—The Trans-Mississippi congress re-assembled this morning at 10 o'clock. The interest in the organization of the congress continues to be in the selection of a president. Governor McConnell of Idaho is plainly the favorite, with A. C. Fick as a close second. Both men are distinguished for ability. McConnell as United States senator from the new state of Idaho started this morning by declaring that the government mortgage of twelve millions on the Southern Pacific was changed from a first to a second mortgage through the payment of $50,000 in English money, and challenged the details of the deal for silver, figures and names, a challenge which was not accepted. A. Fick recently called down upon him the denunciations of the eastern press by suggesting at the session of the bimetallic league at Washington, that it might be necessary for the western states to seek alliance with the silver producing countries of Central and South America.

Governor Thomas of Idaho introduced Governor A. L. Thomas of Utah, who had been detained from yesterday's session by a railroad accident. Soon after he began his speech, he was interrupted by the arrival of Senator Stewart of Nevada, Senator Warren of Wyoming and Hon. T. M. Patterson of Denver. These gentlemen were received by the members with prolonged cheers announcing almost in an instant the speaker.

Governor Thomas in his speech took an advanced ground on the silver question. At the close of his address resolutions were introduced by Montana on the mineral lands in the grant to the Northern Pacific by the treasury. The chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, moved, after the reading of the resolutions, that the matter be referred to the committee on the treasury.

C. Fick of Denver introduced a series of resolutions covering every subject proper to take action on, which gave the chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, a challenge which was not accepted. A. Fick recently called down upon him the denunciations of the eastern press by suggesting at the session of the bimetallic league at Washington, that it might be necessary for the western states to seek alliance with the silver producing countries of Central and South America.

Governor Thomas of Idaho introduced Governor A. L. Thomas of Utah, who had been detained from yesterday's session by a railroad accident. Soon after he began his speech, he was interrupted by the arrival of Senator Stewart of Nevada, Senator Warren of Wyoming and Hon. T. M. Patterson of Denver. These gentlemen were received by the members with prolonged cheers announcing almost in an instant the speaker.

Governor Thomas in his speech took an advanced ground on the silver question. At the close of his address resolutions were introduced by Montana on the mineral lands in the grant to the Northern Pacific by the treasury. The chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, moved, after the reading of the resolutions, that the matter be referred to the committee on the treasury.

C. Fick of Denver introduced a series of resolutions covering every subject proper to take action on, which gave the chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, a challenge which was not accepted. A. Fick recently called down upon him the denunciations of the eastern press by suggesting at the session of the bimetallic league at Washington, that it might be necessary for the western states to seek alliance with the silver producing countries of Central and South America.

Governor Thomas of Idaho introduced Governor A. L. Thomas of Utah, who had been detained from yesterday's session by a railroad accident. Soon after he began his speech, he was interrupted by the arrival of Senator Stewart of Nevada, Senator Warren of Wyoming and Hon. T. M. Patterson of Denver. These gentlemen were received by the members with prolonged cheers announcing almost in an instant the speaker.

Governor Thomas in his speech took an advanced ground on the silver question. At the close of his address resolutions were introduced by Montana on the mineral lands in the grant to the Northern Pacific by the treasury. The chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, moved, after the reading of the resolutions, that the matter be referred to the committee on the treasury.

C. Fick of Denver introduced a series of resolutions covering every subject proper to take action on, which gave the chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, a challenge which was not accepted. A. Fick recently called down upon him the denunciations of the eastern press by suggesting at the session of the bimetallic league at Washington, that it might be necessary for the western states to seek alliance with the silver producing countries of Central and South America.

Governor Thomas of Idaho introduced Governor A. L. Thomas of Utah, who had been detained from yesterday's session by a railroad accident. Soon after he began his speech, he was interrupted by the arrival of Senator Stewart of Nevada, Senator Warren of Wyoming and Hon. T. M. Patterson of Denver. These gentlemen were received by the members with prolonged cheers announcing almost in an instant the speaker.

Governor Thomas in his speech took an advanced ground on the silver question. At the close of his address resolutions were introduced by Montana on the mineral lands in the grant to the Northern Pacific by the treasury. The chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, moved, after the reading of the resolutions, that the matter be referred to the committee on the treasury.

C. Fick of Denver introduced a series of resolutions covering every subject proper to take action on, which gave the chairman of the treasury committee, Mr. J. H. Hunsford, of Idaho, a challenge which was not accepted. A. Fick recently called down upon him the denunciations of the eastern press by suggesting at the session of the bimetallic league at Washington, that it might be necessary for the western states to seek alliance with the silver producing countries of Central and South America.

CRIMINAL WORK.

The Next Chapter in the Murder of Dr. Elliott at Grandville.

A COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.

Judge Zane Has a Charge of Prognosis.—The Price Adultery Case.—Judge Barlett's Court.

Chief Justice Zane, having for a time put aside the civil docket, this morning began work on the criminal, in accordance with the schedule made last week. The first case on the docket was an interesting one, and up to the noon hour there were plenty of material the criminal cases were being heard in the court.

THE SHAKESPEARE THEATRE.

Hiram McMillan and John Brown, in the custody of Deputy Marshal Allyn, arrived by the 4 o'clock train from Tooele yesterday afternoon and were at once taken to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were charged with the murder of Dr. Elliott, at Grandville, on April 11th. They were brought down for arraignment this morning and shortly after ten o'clock found the jury.

The charges are murder in the first degree and kidnapping. The case is exciting widespread interest, and a large number of persons had gathered in the courtroom to watch a glimpse of the accused.

The proceedings were, however, very brief, lasting but more than an hour, and greater part of this time was taken up with the reading of the indictment, which is a very lengthy document and full of technicalities.

Chief Justice Zane, in the course of the proceedings, asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The court then sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for life, and the case was closed.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

CRIMINAL WORK.

The Next Chapter in the Murder of Dr. Elliott at Grandville.

A COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.

Judge Zane Has a Charge of Prognosis.—The Price Adultery Case.—Judge Barlett's Court.

Chief Justice Zane, having for a time put aside the civil docket, this morning began work on the criminal, in accordance with the schedule made last week. The first case on the docket was an interesting one, and up to the noon hour there were plenty of material the criminal cases were being heard in the court.

THE SHAKESPEARE THEATRE.

Hiram McMillan and John Brown, in the custody of Deputy Marshal Allyn, arrived by the 4 o'clock train from Tooele yesterday afternoon and were at once taken to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were charged with the murder of Dr. Elliott, at Grandville, on April 11th. They were brought down for arraignment this morning and shortly after ten o'clock found the jury.

The charges are murder in the first degree and kidnapping. The case is exciting widespread interest, and a large number of persons had gathered in the courtroom to watch a glimpse of the accused.

The proceedings were, however, very brief, lasting but more than an hour, and greater part of this time was taken up with the reading of the indictment, which is a very lengthy document and full of technicalities.

Chief Justice Zane, in the course of the proceedings, asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The court then sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for life, and the case was closed.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

CRIMINAL WORK.

The Next Chapter in the Murder of Dr. Elliott at Grandville.

A COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.

Judge Zane Has a Charge of Prognosis.—The Price Adultery Case.—Judge Barlett's Court.

Chief Justice Zane, having for a time put aside the civil docket, this morning began work on the criminal, in accordance with the schedule made last week. The first case on the docket was an interesting one, and up to the noon hour there were plenty of material the criminal cases were being heard in the court.

THE SHAKESPEARE THEATRE.

Hiram McMillan and John Brown, in the custody of Deputy Marshal Allyn, arrived by the 4 o'clock train from Tooele yesterday afternoon and were at once taken to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were charged with the murder of Dr. Elliott, at Grandville, on April 11th. They were brought down for arraignment this morning and shortly after ten o'clock found the jury.

The charges are murder in the first degree and kidnapping. The case is exciting widespread interest, and a large number of persons had gathered in the courtroom to watch a glimpse of the accused.

The proceedings were, however, very brief, lasting but more than an hour, and greater part of this time was taken up with the reading of the indictment, which is a very lengthy document and full of technicalities.

Chief Justice Zane, in the course of the proceedings, asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The court then sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for life, and the case was closed.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

CRIMINAL WORK.

The Next Chapter in the Murder of Dr. Elliott at Grandville.

A COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.

Judge Zane Has a Charge of Prognosis.—The Price Adultery Case.—Judge Barlett's Court.

Chief Justice Zane, having for a time put aside the civil docket, this morning began work on the criminal, in accordance with the schedule made last week. The first case on the docket was an interesting one, and up to the noon hour there were plenty of material the criminal cases were being heard in the court.

THE SHAKESPEARE THEATRE.

Hiram McMillan and John Brown, in the custody of Deputy Marshal Allyn, arrived by the 4 o'clock train from Tooele yesterday afternoon and were at once taken to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were charged with the murder of Dr. Elliott, at Grandville, on April 11th. They were brought down for arraignment this morning and shortly after ten o'clock found the jury.

The charges are murder in the first degree and kidnapping. The case is exciting widespread interest, and a large number of persons had gathered in the courtroom to watch a glimpse of the accused.

The proceedings were, however, very brief, lasting but more than an hour, and greater part of this time was taken up with the reading of the indictment, which is a very lengthy document and full of technicalities.

Chief Justice Zane, in the course of the proceedings, asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The court then sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for life, and the case was closed.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

CRIMINAL WORK.

The Next Chapter in the Murder of Dr. Elliott at Grandville.

A COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.

Judge Zane Has a Charge of Prognosis.—The Price Adultery Case.—Judge Barlett's Court.

Chief Justice Zane, having for a time put aside the civil docket, this morning began work on the criminal, in accordance with the schedule made last week. The first case on the docket was an interesting one, and up to the noon hour there were plenty of material the criminal cases were being heard in the court.

THE SHAKESPEARE THEATRE.

Hiram McMillan and John Brown, in the custody of Deputy Marshal Allyn, arrived by the 4 o'clock train from Tooele yesterday afternoon and were at once taken to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were charged with the murder of Dr. Elliott, at Grandville, on April 11th. They were brought down for arraignment this morning and shortly after ten o'clock found the jury.

The charges are murder in the first degree and kidnapping. The case is exciting widespread interest, and a large number of persons had gathered in the courtroom to watch a glimpse of the accused.

The proceedings were, however, very brief, lasting but more than an hour, and greater part of this time was taken up with the reading of the indictment, which is a very lengthy document and full of technicalities.

Chief Justice Zane, in the course of the proceedings, asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The court then sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for life, and the case was closed.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

CRIMINAL WORK.

The Next Chapter in the Murder of Dr. Elliott at Grandville.

A COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.

Judge Zane Has a Charge of Prognosis.—The Price Adultery Case.—Judge Barlett's Court.

Chief Justice Zane, having for a time put aside the civil docket, this morning began work on the criminal, in accordance with the schedule made last week. The first case on the docket was an interesting one, and up to the noon hour there were plenty of material the criminal cases were being heard in the court.

THE SHAKESPEARE THEATRE.

Hiram McMillan and John Brown, in the custody of Deputy Marshal Allyn, arrived by the 4 o'clock train from Tooele yesterday afternoon and were at once taken to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were charged with the murder of Dr. Elliott, at Grandville, on April 11th. They were brought down for arraignment this morning and shortly after ten o'clock found the jury.

The charges are murder in the first degree and kidnapping. The case is exciting widespread interest, and a large number of persons had gathered in the courtroom to watch a glimpse of the accused.

The proceedings were, however, very brief, lasting but more than an hour, and greater part of this time was taken up with the reading of the indictment, which is a very lengthy document and full of technicalities.

Chief Justice Zane, in the course of the proceedings, asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The court then sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for life, and the case was closed.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.