CHINESE WHIP JAPANESE IN FIGHT ON SHIPBOARD

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—One hundred and fifty Japanese and Chinese cannery hands engaged in a desperate battle with knives on the high seas during the voyage of the burk Electra to this port from Nushagak, Alaska, and the encounter terminated only after more than a dozen of the contestants had on wounded and as miny more placed in irons in the youre)'s brig. on wounded and as many more placed in irons in the vessel's brig. Hardly had the vessel put out to son from Nukhagak before a fight occurred between three Japanese and a China-man in the bark's forecastle. This was only a forerunner to the hattle to come, however, and on Aug. 20 a war among the two races began in earcest. Assem-bled on the forward dock the Chinese, who autnumbered the Japanese, started trouble over the apportionment of fod. A desperate fight followed, resulting in a victory for the Chinese. The Electra was nearly wreaked during the storm in which the ship John Currier was lost of Unimak Pass last month.

Sees. Metcalf made a number of observations of importance in connection with the visit of the Atlantic floet to he partice coast. He found that while the powernment has only one dock on the Partice coast that is capable of a partice coast that is capable of the partice coast that might be available it meeded. Of these, three are at same francisch. The only government index is at Bremerton and this location, it is helleved, makes it likely that the partice waters. Concerning this probability, Seey. Metcalf said that there is water enough at Bremerton to float the entire fleet at one time. The labor question on the coast, the servery day, and he instanced the her that the navy yards at Mare labor tanine.
