All That Saved Admiral's Life Was Poor Aim of Would-be Assassin.

Moscow, May 6,-A bomb was thrown at the carriage of Vice Admiral Doubassoff, governor-general of Moscow, as he was being driven to the palace today. He was wounded in the foot and his aide-de-camp and a sentry were killed. The man who threw the bomb is reported to have been killed. He wore an officer's uniform.

Access to the palace is barred. Gov. Doubassoff was returning in an open carriage from the Uspenski cathedral, and the outrage took place outside the carriage entrance to his palace. Several bystanders were injured. According to the route decided upon in advance, the governor-general should have returned to the palace by the side entrance, but during the drive he changed his route and thereby ran

CHEERED TOO SOON.

St. Petersburg, May 6 .- The Moderates carried every feature of the pro cratic congress today, by adopting the project of party organization, which places both the control of the policy of the party and the tactics of the party in the hands of the congress and its executive arm, the executive commit-tee. This project was introduced or Saturday and was bitterly fought by the extremist wing of the party.

The deputies spent most of the day discussing their tactics for agitation in the country, and at the evening ses-

Very Hopeful Feeling That Country May Enter Into Parlimentary Life Smoothly.

Great Historic Event.

THE RUSSIAN

St. Petersburg, May 6 .- The members of the national parliament and of the council of the empire are arriving here on every train. Quite a number of distinguished foreign visitors and journalists already have reached St. Petersburg to witness Thursday's great historic event-the inauguration of the Russian parliament.

The fears that the government might attempt to dissolve the parliament bafore it had the opportunity of accomplishing anything are vanishing, and despite the bomb outrage at Moscow yesterday and the continued irreconcillable attitude of the extreme revolutionists, there is a more hopeful feeling that Russia may enter smoothly into parliamentary life. This is due not only to the moderate attitude of the Constitutional Democratic majority, whose leaders with admirable self retraint are holding the extremists among them in check, but to the manifest desire of the government to avoid a conflict. The new cabinet has announced a policy of hands off, practically saying that the parliament shall have carte blanche and that so long as it does not attempt to meddle with the fundamental laws of the empire the parliament will be allowed to offer its own solution for the crying agrarian

With this attitude of the government, if it is sincerely carried out, the Con-stitutional Democrats for the present were content. They believe their final victory, when the emperor will be forced to grant a constitution, is not far off—a few months at most—especially in the meantime they are permitted accomplish something tangible which will strengthen them with the country. The Associated Press today talked with M. Nabokoff, the leader of the Constitutional Democrats, who said frankly that his party had no desire at present to have a premier and cabinet, even if it could. Such responsibility would place it upon the defensive, while would place it upon the detensive, while by remaining in opposition, with the country behind it, the chances of forc-ing a complete surrender were in-creased instead of being diminished. creased instead of being diminished. The little group of Socialists of the extreme left has not yet shown its hand, but without the Constitutional Democrats, who have a clear working majority, it will be powerless to force a conflict. The Octoberists in the center are a negligible quantity and with the present temper at the Tsarskoe-Selo palace the small group of reactionaries in the partitioner. Junction City, Kan, May 6.—Among the army officers here it is the opinion that the calt for the mobilization of regular freeps on the Fort Riley reservation will come at a time when it is least expected. Those that have already been designated for this concentration are stationed in the middle west, and some will come from as far north as Fort Snelling, Mins. Most of the troops will come here by marching all of the way, and those from the greatest distance will travel part of the way by train.
