PURCHASING WATERWORKS.

Under Consideration in Special Session of the City Council.

Chamberlain Estate Entanglements—Grave Allegations Made—Probate Court Business—News Briefs.

At the special meeting of the city council last evening the mayor was present and the following gentlemen, representatives of the Ogden City Waterworks company: Thomas D. Dea, E. M. Allison, Jr., George Matson and David Eccles.

The meeting was held behind closed doors, but from what could be ascertained after the meeting, the proposition of the sale of the waterworks to the city was the subject of discussion. The terms of the sale are very similar to those considered by the former council, which might have some through which might have been an injunction not at that time from the city treasurer to enjoin him from paying the city's warrant for the system.

It was also stated that the city is desirous of purchasing the water system and the owners are desirous of selling. What sale price has been asked could not be ascertained. It is understood that the city fathers are as to whether or not the city should be responsible for the $100,000 bonds that are to be issued to pay for the waterworks.

MRS. J. E. O'DONNELL.

Was Sick Eight Years with Female Trouble and Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never in my life given so much testimony as I have now, but you have done so much for me that I feel called upon to give you this unsolicited acknowledgment of your kindness."

There is no blame attached to anyone for the fire, and just where or how it started is not known. All that can be said about it is that the fire was being cleaned, and a fire was made in the furnace. It was soon discovered that the fire could not be checked, and that there were plenty of men and boys with buckets and water ready to do all they could. So we simply had to look on and see the building burn to the ground. Only a few of the organs and the Sunday school and church books went up in the flames also.

The meeting house was the pride of the Kansas people, as well as those of the surrounding settlements, as it was more to the neighboring settlements than our stake house at Coalville was. It was a beautiful building, and commanding a view of the surrounding country, and could be seen on all sides by those entering the valley.

The priesthood visit the people there and ascertain the minds of the Saints as to building a new house.

A Fatal Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. P. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in his chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cured his backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

HEBRON.

Family Left Homeless.

Post Office and Home of O. W. Huntsman Burned Down.

Special Correspondence.

Hebron, Washington Co., Feb. 27.—The people of Hebron were awakened from their slumbers last night at 12 o'clock by the cry of fire, which broke out in or near the roof of Orson W. Huntsman's residence and consumed the entire building and the postoffice, of which Mr. Huntsman has charge.

The inmates of the house were Mr. Huntsman's daughter, Pearl, and husband, and small son. They had only time to save themselves, but the building contained a number of valuable documents, including the ward records, records of the Relief society and Young Ladies' M. I. A., and the books of the Enterprise Relief society, all of which were saved.

The postoffice contained between $200 and $300 in cash and stamps principally in the form of postage stamps. The building was about 120 ft long and 40 ft wide, and was being searched for all the rest was burned.

With the aid of the neighbors, a few of the household effects were saved. A large stove was dragged to the door, but had to be abandoned before it could be gotten outside.

The husband and small son were bareheaded, coatless and with bare and bleeding feet were taken to the homes of neighbors and very kindly cared for.

MONROE.

Insurance Company.

Special Correspondence.

Monroe, Garfield Co., March 8.—We are pleased to record that the long spell of drought has been effectually broken by a heavy rain, falling on the 7th inst. The showing for a heavy crop of fruit at present writing is most encouraging. The young orchards are in the prime of their condition, and the fruit culture, which is receiving careful attention, hundreds of trees will be planted this spring, especially apples, as they develop here second to none in the state.
