The young republicans of Philadelphia, a body of quite young gentlemen, were noticeably and especially demonstrative. They cheered in college boy style as they passed, and were in turn loudly cheered by the crowd. The mayor expressed the opinion that there were more than 30,000 men marching, and he believed 'half the population of Philadelphia were out looking at them." It was understood there would be no speaking, so no demand was made for a speech. At 9.15, while the procession was still in full force, Blaine bowed repeatedly and Cincinnati, 23.—Carl Schurz spoke to—night in the People's Theatre on the issues of the campaign. He spoke in German. Schurz said to—day in an interview: "I expect to make a very thorough tour of Ohlo, making speeches in every section of the State. The campaign I find is growing more spirited, and the attendance at public meetings is very large. This shows that the people are aroused, are thinking, and I have great bopes in audition to asset that their better judgment will prevail. No, I am not making the temperance question a prominent feature of my speeches to Germans, but merely presenting the attitude of the two candidates on that question. I think the Germans will be largely in diened in their votes by the question of the official integrity of the candidates. The German people have very fixed views in favor of honesty, and cannot be deceived by explanations or excuses. If the election was held to desires an honest hational administration should vote for a new man. GEO.M. SCOTT & CO.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., 23.— A special to the Tribune from Greenville, seventy-five miles east of Knoxville, says Major Edwin Henry was shot and instantly killed about 11 o'clock this morning by Captain E. T. Johnson at Haysville, Greene county. Johnson left Greenville last night, armed with a Goube-barreled shotgun, in a buggy in company with a negro. They rode twelve pany with a negro. They rode twelve miles into the country and spent the remainder of the night in a stable. Learning that Henry was in a store near, Johnson rushed out, took Henry by surprise and shot him twice. The first shot took effect in the body, the second in the temple, killing Henry in-stantly. The officers who had started having already surrendered to the local officers. Captain Johnson had been in pursuit of Major Henry for several weeks, but the latter had been hiding weeks, but the latter had been hiding in the mountains. Johnson swore he would kill Henry on sight, but Henry eluded him till to-day. Captain Johnson held the office of United States Claims Commissioner, and he and his wife boarded at the same hotel in Greenville where Henry also boarded. Henry was about fifty years old, and had a wife and children in New York.

Denver, 23.—Yesterday morning the cashier of the First National Bank of Las Vegas, New Mexico, became convinced that robbers were tunueling from an adjoining building to the diately placed in and around the building. Those inside observed the mason-rant of their danger. At 1 O'clock a Mexican volunteered to go down the cellar to investigate. He had take but a few steps on the stairs when he saw some one coming up and the Mexican volunteered to go down the cellar to investigate. He had take but a few steps on the stairs when he saw some one coming up and the Mexican fired without a word. The man fell dead and the body was brought out. The watchmen began tearing up the floor of the bank and of the adjoining building, with the evideut intention of shooting the robbers on sight. The work was slow, the men fearing to get within rauge of those below, who at times were seen rushing from one shadow to another. Up to this time nothing more than a game of hide and seek has been done. The dead robber was recognized as one of the masons who built the vault. The excitement is intense.

What I Means.

A Shanghal dispatch to the Times states that a France-Russian alliance means the disintegration of China as a franco-Russian preponderance in Europe, and, therefore, is fraught with danger to Germany. It also means the extension of the China trade and imperied the masons who built the vault. The excitement is intense.

Paris, 23.—Lord Lyons, British am-bassador to France, recently made an appeal to Prime Minister Ferry to open government ship building yards in or-der to provide work for starving laborinformed Lord Lyons he had no jurisdiction over the matter, but would refer it to Waldeck Rosseau, Minister of the Interior. It is stated thousands of workmen are now out of employment and serious rioting is feared.

The French occupied Cay Pass, Emdove, Madagascar, on August 8th, and erected a fort. It is reperted 4,500 troops are sick at Tonquin, and the Chinese have spread over the northern portion of the province of Guang Yang, and are levying contributions upon the inhabitants.

Moscow, 23.—A desperate conflict took place to-day at Rowndle Province, Sarator, between Germans and Rus-sian peasants attending the annual fair, Eleven persons were killed, including-one gen d'arme, and 30 wounded.

Galveston, 24.—Sunday last the en-gineers of the Panama Canal Company made an attempt with dynamite to dis-place about 10,000 cubic metres of rock in a hill sixty feet high at Bos Obispo.

The attempt, however, was a failure, owing to a defect in the electrical connections. Another attempt will shortly be made.
