Stand Ten Rounds.

A dispatch from Detroit says that

Tom Sharkey last night knocked out

Jim Jeffords, the California aspirant for heavyweight honors, in the second round of what was to have been a ten-round bout. The men had fought two minutes and six seconds in the second round when the knockout was delivered. They were breaking from a clinch.

Sharkey whipped his right over to the Californian's head and Jeffords went down. Referee Hogan counted him out, and it was several minutes before he recovered sufficiently to talk. Then he claimed a foul, saying Sharkey hit him in the breakaway, although they had agreed to break clean. The referce, however, refused to entertain his

"kick" and awarded the fight to Sharwas tired and stayed on his knees for several seconds. When they camp up for the second round the Californian right after him from the start. He cut Jeffords' left eye open and then kept it bleeding with right-hand when the knockout occurred. Sharkey broke from the clinch, sent his right over the tall man's head, and he

At the count of ten Hogan declared Sharkey the winner amid cries of "Foul!" from the spectators, who thought the sailor had hit Jeffords in the clinch. This was not true, as the men had both arms free when the blow was delivered. About 8,500 people witnessed the bout, which was pulled off in the light guard armory under the auspices of the Ca-
