MERCHANDISE and MACHINERY of all descriptions purchased or imported for UTAH TRADERS on the most favorable terms and at lowest current rates.The near approach of the CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD to the principal business points in Utah, affords an opportunity to merchants to quickly and frequently replenish their stocks at any season of the year.Many articles of general consumption, both of Foreign production and California manufacture, can be obtained at less cost from San Francisco than elsewhere.California and Oregon-made Woolen Goods, Blankets, Cassimeres and Clothing, such as underwear and Hosiery, are superior to anything imported and intrinsically cheaper.

GENERAL.

The statement of the prisoner Cunningham, in regard to the Rogers murder, does not obtain much credit.Buffalo.—The hog cholera has appeared in the cattle yards here; there have been 100 fatal cases in a drove of 600.Chicago.—The Legislature adjourned yesterday, till April.The Tribune's special says that Gen.
J. A. Campbell, of Schofield's staff, will be appointed Gov. of Wyoming.Attorney General Hoar has resigned the office of Supreme Judge of Mass.Clay's resignation of the Russian ministry has been received.Twenty tons of mail matter were forwarded on Tuesday, from the terminus of the Pacific Railroad to California.The Tribune's New York special says the appointment of Hamilton Fish is not generally satisfactory to New York politicians. Bets are being made that another change in the Cabinet will occur within a week.The Times special says it is settled that Col. Parker will not be Commissioner of Indian affairs. The contest is between Gen. Lamborn and Gen. Connor. Gen. Sherman favors the former.There is excellent authority for the belief that the nomination of Horace Greely as Minister to England will be sent in on Monday. Greely will decline.Chicago.—Cole's bill to encourage telegraphic communication grants three sections of land to each mile of the China cable and the connecting Amerithat the storm is general.Chicago.—The Republican's Foreign special says the people of Nova Scotia are about to ask England for release from all political connection, and will send a delegation to Washington to ascertain upon what terms they will be received as a State. The public feeling in the Colony favors this measure.Washington.—Supervisor Creecy, of Louisiana, has been appointed Revenue Collector for the District of Washington, with instructions to rigorously prosecute the cases commenced and to rigidly enforce the laws.Washington, D. C., 12.—Secretary Boutwell formally entered upon the duties of his new office to-day, he was met at the Department by a large number of anxious applicants for office.The officers of the Navy stationed around Washington, proceeded in a body to the office of Secretary Bovie, today, where they were presented by Admiral Dahlgreen. The Secretary received them in the most cordial manner. The entire body then proceeded to the White House, where General Grant received them in the east room.

Among those present were Admirals Porter, Shubrick, Smith, Goldsborough, Dahlgreen, Poor, Howard and Powell.
While the naval officers were exchanging salutations, the officers of the army, headed by Generals Sherman and Schofield, entered. Generals Grant and Sherman shook hands warmly. The latter introduced the officers in turn, all of whom were profuse in their congratulations. Among those present were Generals Harney, Emory, Meigs, Ferry, Barnes, Thomas, Hardie, Hein-tezelman, etc. During the interview Gen. Rawlings entered and was earnestly congratulated by the officers present upon his recent appointment.Charles Wallace, editor of the Warrenton Gazette, was shot and instantly killed by Dr. Darden. The latter had blackballed Wallace, who applied for admission into a masonic lodge. Wallace thereupon attacked Darden in his paper, denouncing him as a liar and villain. Darden shot him from the window of his office with a rifle.The rush of visitors to the White House was very great to-day.A delegation of the Loyal League, from Alexandria, Virginia, including several colored men, called on the President this afternoon. The Chairman read a short address complimentary to the President. Grant replied that he was glad to meet them and hoped andbelieved that before the end of the year Virginia would be restored to self-government and representation in Congress.A delegation of the Irish Republicans of New York, called on the President; they tendered their congratulations and pledged the support of the Irish Re-
