conveyances, when particulars can be learned. At first it was thought to be the work of a fire, but the constancy of the burning, and the appearance of a black smoke, led to the conclusion that it was the work of a volcano. Another volcano is said to exist in the Catalina mountains. Smoke is now pouring forth from the West-slope of this mountain.

AUTHENTIC NEWS
This moment comes from Wilcox that another volcano has made its appearance in the Winchester Mountains about 40 miles from here. Six distinct shocks of earthquake have been felt here since morning.

The first earthquake ever experienced in this place occurred yesterday afternoon, lasting about one minute. Buildings trembled and people rushed out into the streets. The event for the time was inquisitive.

TUCSON, May 4.—It is believed a volcano is in active operation in San Jose Mountains, or on the border of Sonora, Mexico, about seventy-five miles west of here. Yesterday afternoon the first shock was felt.

was plainly visible. All last night the fire was intermittent, bursting into a bright flame, and then dying down only to burst out again. The true state of affairs is not known, but it is believed that the smoke is from a volcano.

Investigating expedition. Advice from Panama, Crittenden, Globe and other papers, that a volcano is in active operation in the Catalina mountains, Arizona. In Tucson, while no serious danger is believed to exist, the city is in a state of alarm.

of all classes and every industry. We demand the immediate reduction of this war tariff, not merely as an act of reparation to the people, but as a method of reducing the surplus, and in the event of a reduction, we demand further that the taxes shall first be abolished or lowered upon the necessities of public purposes, and limited to the requirements of the government economically administered.
