PRICE OF GOLD.
 Corrected Daily by BANK OF UTAH.
 Gold, $1.00; Silver, 75¢; Copper, 10¢.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—The Theatre will be open to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, a performance for a limited number of nights, having been effected with Mr. and Mrs. Bates.

THAT EXCURSION.—Messrs. Goddard and Platt have not succeeded in making up the full number for their proposed excursion to California. Persons desiring to go should secure their tickets before noon on Thursday.

PROSECUTION.—Mr. J. Smith, the contractor for building the street railroad, has a large corps of hands in the vicinity of the U. C. depot, making the track. A portion of the rails was to be laid this afternoon.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—About seven o'clock last night a team being driven by Ed. Carlow ran away in the Twentieth Ward, and over the residence of Mr. Charles Ringwood, Charles was thrown out of the wagon, both wheels of which passed over him. He received a severe cut in the forehead, was badly injured in the right groin, and his leg broken. He is now in the hospital, being badly shaken and bruised internally. He was taken into the house of Mr. Ringwood and medical aid rendered him, and about ten o'clock he was removed to his own residence in the Fourth Ward, a few hours after which he expired. We understand he was about thirty-five years old and unmarried.

TROOPS FOR BEAVER.—A dispatch from Ogden, received this morning, says: "Two hundred and fifty U. S. troops will arrive from the East to-day for Beaver City."

A large number of ambulance wagons, sent from Ogden for the same destination yesterday morning.

A CHANGE.—There has been a change in the firm known as the Utah Lumber Company. Two gentlemen, brothers, named Bryant, have become identified with the company. These two gentlemen are solid capitalists from Idaho, who purpose remaining permanently in this Territory. Mr. H. Bryant is well connected with the lumber trade, and is gratifying to the many friends he has gained here. The firm will be continued in the future in the name of Bryant, Harrison & Co.

SALE.—The bankrupt stock of the defunct Salt Lake Review was sold under the hammer this morning for $1,100. Mr. O. G. Sawyer was the purchaser.

THE GILSON CASE.—At 10 o'clock this morning the investigation of the charge made on the affidavit of John Thomas, against S. H. Gilson, ex-ballot of the grand jury, commenced in the Justice's Court, City Hall, their honors Jeter Clinton and S. W. Richards on the bench. Mr. Hagan appeared for the people, Messrs. Maxwell and C. M. Hawley for the defendant.

The following is a copy of the AFFIDAVIT.

Territory of Utah, ss. before S. W. Richards, County of Salt Lake, ss. Plaintiff.

The people of the United States in the Territory of Utah, ss. Defendant.

John Thomas being first duly sworn, deposes and says, That he is a male citizen of the United States, and is over the age of twenty-one years.

That on or about the 7th day of March, A. D. 1872, at Salt Lake County, Utah Territory, the said defendant, Samuel Gilson, then and there threatened wilfully and maliciously to accuse affiant of a public crime, to wit, larceny; and at the time and place aforesaid the said defendant, Samuel Gilson, did then and there wilfully and maliciously threaten to kill affiant.

That by reason of such wilful and malicious threats, as aforesaid, and with intent thereby to compel affiant to subscribe and swear to an affidavit, (which affidavit, as affiant is informed and believes, is now in the possession of the prosecuting officers of said Salt Lake County, affiant was then and there compelled, against his will, by the said defendant, Samuel Gilson, to subscribe and swear to said affidavit.

That on the date last above mentioned affiant was imprisoned for an alleged offence against the laws of the Territory.

That the affidavit aforesaid is false in substance, and was obtained by defendant from affiant by reason of the aforesaid threats and against the will of affiant, all of which is contrary to the statutes in such cases made and provided.

Wherefore affiant prays that the said Samuel Gilson be dealt with according to law. (Signed) JOHN THOMAS.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of May, A. D. 1872.

Notary Public, S. L. County.

Prisoner's counsel moved to dismiss the proceedings because the deponent, witness, did not appear before the justice who issued the warrant on which their client was arrested, but before a notary public. The court overruled the motion, and a plea of "NOT GUILTY" was entered by the defense.

The following witnesses were called and sworn for the prosecution: John Thomas, William Walker and William Horton.

William Walker deposed that he was clerk of the Third Judicial District Court, in Salt Lake County; that he had not in his possession an affidavit signed by John Thomas, sworn to and dated about the 7th of March, 72, and did not know where it was.

John Thomas was the next witness examined. His testimony was lengthy and rambling, almost incoherent, and to the effect that he had been confined at Camp Douglas, as he said, a "trumped up" charge of horse stealing. He knew Gilson, had had conversations with him in the month of March, both at Camp Douglas and in this city, relative to an affidavit in the Baker-Robinson case.

He deposed that on the 7th day of March he was brought down from Camp Douglas in the buggy of one Greenough, and taken to the office of Marshal Patrick, and on the 8th day of March, at the rear of that office, he had a conversation with Gilson, in which he, Gilson, stated that he had put this job (the charge of horse stealing) on to him, Thomas; that he intended to keep him confined, and would bring men forward to swear to his guilt of the crime with which he was charged, unless he would sign a paper that he, Gilson, had in his pocket, in relation to Baker and the Robinson murder case. Gilson said he was working to obtain the conviction of the parties arrested in that case, and he wanted no man to interfere with his operations; he knew that witness could defeat them, and to prevent him doing so he had him arrested on the charge of horse stealing.

Gilson also said that the man from whom witness bought the horse was from forward and went to his guilt, or anything he, Gilson, desired. When he made this statement Gilson admitted that there was not a bigger thief in Nevada or Utah than this man. Witness deposed that he did not know the contents of the paper which Gilson wished him to sign, but he signed it under the influence of his threats.

The third witness examined was William Orin, who deposed that he was confined at Camp Douglas at the same time as Thomas; that he remembered a day, he believed it was the last of February or beginning of March, on which Gilson and Thomas had a conversation together, in a kind of a passage way between the room where the prisoners were confined and that occupied by the guard; he heard Gilson say to Thomas, "You must do this or you can't get discharged." After Gilson's departure, Thomas very much excited, asked witness that Gilson had made a proposition to him to come to Salt Lake City and make an affidavit in regard to the Baker-Robinson affair, saying a statement that he, witness, had previously made. Thomas said that he was in a bad fix and asked the advice of the witness; and finally said he supposed he should be obliged, in consequence of Gilson's threats, to sign the statement.

Further investigation of the case was postponed until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

MORE LIES.—In the New York Herald of May 1st, is the following—

"Salt Lake, April 30, 1872. The decision of the United States Supreme Court has stripped the Courts of the Territory of all their powers. By this decision the United States marshal cannot serve process in any Territorial matters, which must now be served by the Territorial Marshal."

"A small clique of Jack Mormons and adventurers have sent a dispatch to the country denying the accuracy of your correspondent's reports, but no sensible, well-informed person for a moment questions the truth of the dispatches. This clique has ulterior objects to gain, which are unworthy of notice."

Special Notices.

GONE EAST.—Mr. J. M. Johnson, furniture dealer, of this city, left for the east this morning, where he has gone to purchase a new stock of furniture and upholstery goods. During the time Mr. Johnson has been in business here he has made it a point to sell his goods at the lowest possible figure, and he always keeps on hand a large and varied assortment in his line.

An Extended Dispensary.—Each year sends "Brown's Brachial Trochee" in new localities in various parts of the world. For relieving Coughs, Colic, and Tracheitis, Diseases, Trochees have been proved reliable.

If you desire Ready Checks and a complete list of free from Pimples and Blisters, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

EXCURSION TO CALIFORNIA.—Number 100 yet completed—Application must be made at once to the agent at George Goddard's or Francis Platt's by Thursday noon, to decide the trip.

NOTICE.—All parties having claims against F. J. F. Pascoe for Lumber will please present them on or before the 15th of May, 1872, for persons withholding their claims after the above date will be considered to do so to suit their own convenience, and will therefore be charged the price of time at the time of giving said orders, due bills, or making said contracts.
