EVENING DATLY. SUNDAY'S EXCEPTED, AS OUB O'CLOCK PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BT THE DESERFT NEWS COMPANY. CHARLES W. PENROSE, EDITOR. Dec. 11, 1884 Naturday. A LITTLE MORE ELECTRIC LIGMT.

LONDON, the great metropolis of by what is called religion. Great Britain, is about to test the However much these faculties electric light for street illumination. and tendencies may have been warp-We learn from London papers that ed by error, perverted by priestcraft, a civic commission, to whom the demoralized by superstition or dissubject was referred, have decided figured by many inventions, experito light three districts of the city ence and history invariably show with the new illuminator. Offers the subtle workings of a force which were made by the representatives of is every where implied in the rites, various systems, and three of them ceremonies, creed and ordinances, were selected, namely, the Siemens, of both the savage and the civilized, the Jablochkoff and the Brush. in the lowest or in the highest con-

The first district comprises Blackditions of human existence, as in friars Bridge, New Bridge Street, every intermediate grade and phase. Ludgate Circus, Ludgate Hill, Were not these faculties original the north side of St. Paul's Churchthey could not have been created or yard and part of Cheapside. This mposed upon mankind. The elewill be illuminated by the Brush ment, the foundation was laid in light. The second district embraces man by divine wisdom, and in fulfil-Southwark Bridge, Queen Victoria ment of the divine order and pro-Street, the lower part of Queen gramma, and all porvarsion. shuse. Street, and Queen Street Place, and or misuse, or normal action of this Will has light a to at a Toldard and primitive element, is at eternal eumethod. The third district inmity with the conclusions of the cludes London Bridge, the upper ceptic, as hunger would be an part of Queen Street, and 'of eternal argument in favor of the Cheapside, King Street, Guildhall necessity of food. Once establish Yard, the Poultry, Mansion-house this idea, and it may easily be con-Street, The Royal Exchange, King cluded that Divine wisdom has pro-William Street and Adelaide Place, vided the best possible aliment for and will be lighted by the Siemens the highest culture and vigor of this system. section of the primal constitution of

The Brush lights will be 32 in man, just as he has adapted for alinumber replacing 150 gas lights, bement for the best-the highest exhiing fixed on posts not less than 13 bition of vitality and life in the phyfeet above the ground, with wires sical system.

leading from the Anglo-American That man can live and perform Light Company's works at Lambeth many of the functions of life with and from post to post overhead, exthe most crude material as food, is cept where they cross the streets no more evidence that this is the where they will be under ground. best, than are the manifestations of The Jablochkoff will have 12 lights religious life in heathenism or sectareplacing 161 gas lights, and be the rianism logical evidence that either same kind as at the Thames Emof these conduce to the highest debankment, the wires hanging from velopment of the best religious charlamp to lamp and across the streets acter. 'That' paganism, superstition on high posts. The Siemens will and religious systems both of ancient consist of 32 lights, 26 small and 6 and modern times have met some large ones, replacing 138 gas lights, want in the hearts of their votarics, The large lamps will be in clear glass there can be no doubt. There was globes with umbrella shaped reflect-ors and will be placed on posts from 70 feet to 80 feet high, while the partially some longing, and some small ones will be in partly frosted sraving, though much longing and glass globes, and placed on posts many cravings remained, and 20 feet high, the wires running unwere fierce as lions in their hunger derground: or greed of food. This adoption of three different It would not avail at this time systems will be of benefit to those either to enter into and explain in cities which are investigating detail the power of assimilation and the subject of electric lighting, giving good opportunity of testing the advantages and dividuantages of the advantages and disadvantages of ligiously, any more than we may ex- that several thousand votes for the rival methods, as well as probplain the processes by which nutriably suggesting improvements in ment for the body, in emergency, is each. extracted from barks, clays, and

The invisibility of the subtle force en of the poet and the prophets, of called electricity constitutes one of the psalmist and the seer, and of De Lesseps people as expressing the its great dangers, and wherever it is every advanced spiritual worshipused in such power as is necessary per in the congregations of Israel. electric lighting, the The fullness of time gave them sible precaution should be exer- this Messiah, one who while born ble results event i e terr in a stable and cradled in a manger, o life and property which may was the representative of God on can co the effects of so-called "accident." the earth, the extra special embassa-

dor to his brethren with [COMMUNICATED.] It was his prerogative to open wider WORD OR TWO ON REthan ever to man's earth-life the He gates of the spiritual world, to reveal LIGION

THE belief is almost universal that man possesses certain features and endencies which are only satisfied the essential greatness of man, as the offspring of the Father; to blend human interests and widen the thought of human destiny to a more grand conception; to inaugurate a system of ordinances; to give a series between the Atlantic and Pacific of truths, and to establish such organizations for furthering the divine company only asks that Congress work and giving force to all its der books to subscription in the Unfted tails, as should finally work out the divine problem and bring man back to-day permitted to do, and it does gain into the Divine presence. This system of ordinances, truths again into the Divine presen e. and organizations was known as"the of the points presented was, first gospel of God and Jesus Christ," that the tonnage which passes fitted in all its details to minister to through any canal will be mostly furnished by American coasting ves the most healthy and stalwart vigor and religious growth, and to increase ant by its inspirational power, commu- that the tolls nion with the heavens, and bring its intelligence down to earth.

It was intended by its authors, in connection with the agency of man, to supersede heathenism, superstino matter how antiquated or how new its form, or how long or short each might have perverted, misdirected, swayed for controlled this the most sublime emotion and farreaching hunger of the human heart. This alone was the direct, correct and efficient religious nutriment und aliment, calculated alone to give life and increase "down to the last syllable of recorded time."

BY TELEGRAPH PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

> AMEBICAN. Springer's Idea.

CHICAGO, 11. - The Tribune's Washington has an interview with the Bourbon democratic congressman Springer, who outlines a plan to defeat the election of Garfield, which is in effect that the democrats shall remain away from the House Senate, if Vice-President and Wheeler attempts to count the vote, thus leaving those legislative bodies without a quorum, a condition by which Mr. Wheeler will not be allowed by the . Constitution to take Wheeler, and advises all his cola gross violation of the traditions of leagues to take the same position. our peopl Gen. Grant, Billings, of the North Chalmers Interviewed. Pacific, Riggs, the Washington banker, and other capitalists, are The Tribune has an interview with "Shoestring" Chalmers as to the manner by which he was count-ed in at the November election. He the incorporators, said it was all right according to MARRIED.

A Swiss Swindler.

ed to suicide recently in Milwaukee.

THE PANAMA CANAL."

Arctic Exploration.

STRAYED. Secretary Evarts is quoted by the BRINDLE COW, BRANDED 8 ON same views. The representatives of to C. R. B. VAGLand hend that this new move of D OTICE. D SUITS OF BOOMS Rooms. Also, Singl TITRNES moters of the enterprise a from obtaining a charter from Con WANTED. mission worthy of the Lord. gress. A representative of the American scheme was at the capital to day and made argument before the House canal committee in support of his bill to grant articles of poration to his company. His state ment was substantially this: The

Nicaragua

any, and if seps is de

vent the pro

which gives it complete control of ports of the United States. The States, as the French company is and that it is importto the United upon the canal should be as moderate as possible It is not wise for the Americans to encourage a canal under a working management which will levy dis-J Rags, de d74 sw & w criminating or extortionate tolls on American vessels; second, it is vital to the Americal interests that the trol in case of war. The canar would be the nearest route from the Atlantic to the Pacific States and it would offer a means of escape from one ocean to the other for our merchant essels in the event that war should d296 1m be declared against the United States and France or any of her allies, for instance, it would be closed to the United States ships and our commerce would immediately become the prey of privateers; third, the United States should give encouragement to the route which is most easily approached by merchant vessels. The Nicaraguan route is by far the easiest of access for sailing vessels. The bay of Panama on the contrary is notoriously difficult of approach for that class of vessels. The prevailing winds are all in favor of the Nicaragua route; fourth, the Panama canal, whatever may be said to the contrary is likely to be built with a view to its ultimate control by the French Government. A charter was obtained under French law, and French author ity will control it. The Isthmus of Panama is a place notorious for trouble with laborers. The United States several times had to land

Tambor

PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST!

COMPLETE

LINE

RUGS;

MATS,

VINDOW SHADES

L

υ

π

many other very rude forms of mate-While still on this subject we will pearance of ballot boxes from strong while still on this subject we will many other tery target and farmer can republican precincts he attributed to a frolic of the boys or Lynch's on which there is some misunder- look ruddy while eating every day standing. It is generally supposed arsenic enough to kill three or four that there is no danger at all at- men unused to such a drug or mintending the electric light, but that it eral as that.

These are all exceptional, in the is "absolutely safe." This is an error which ought to be corrected. Mr. physical as in the religious world, paid for it by Chalmers. The expla W. H. Preece, of the Society of and there are exceptions also in Telegraphic Engineers, a short time morals and in social habits, in forms ago, addressed a communication to of government and modes of rule, the London Times, showing that each possessing some good, but each "the wires conveying the electric lacking, and many not even precurrents may themselves be convey- tending to be the best. Some might Hendry Enderis, formerly Swiss consul here, but latterly in the real ing energy in a form as insecure as a argue that food in the tropics would estate business, is discovered to have appropriated a trust fund of $8,000 belonging to a family of his country-men in Michigan, who entrusted it to him for payment on some proper-ty. Enderis is believed to be in the city but cannot be found. Narcotia train of gunpowder," and that even be unsuitable for the arctic regions, if coated with gutta percha or india- and visa versa, and then from some rubber, like the copper wires used analogy conclude that a religion in telegraphy, the contings are liable which was good for India or China to injury, when the currents may could not be good for Eurocity, but cannot be found. Negotiaescape to earth, generating heat and peans and "Americans." Leavtions for a settlement are proceeding with his family. Enderis attemptproducing fire. He shows that in ing out the fact that the lighting mines the wires can only be food question is partially theoretical rendered safe by costly cabling. He at present, it can safely be said, that also argues that the liability to ac- there are certain fundamental cidents is a thousandfold greater thoughts which minister to true rethan with telegraph wires, and he ligious life that can be used and asasserts that several offices have been similated by man in every clime, of fired even by the weaker currents every age and of all lands. The idea employed in telegraphy. He also re- and thought of God, as the one suers to the instantaneous killing of a preme, eternal ruler, the one Creamusician in Birmingham, by in tor, giver and sustainer of life, can cautiously touching certain exposed easily be grasped by universal man, parts of the conductors conveying and probably spontaneous reverence, the currents for electric lamps, and homage and worship would bloom the terrible death of a sailor on the instanter, even from the half formsteamship Livadia from a similar ed thought; then untrammeled by cause, and recommends the employ- priestcraft, unwarped by designing exploration. ment of protecting instruments to men would probably come, indiskeep atmospheric electricity out of tinctly at first, visions of His greatcollieries, rather than the erection of ness and consequent beneficence and apparatus to convey electric currents goodness, and personal calamity with observations of material agony within them.

The fatal accident on the Livadia and change would, unhafuenced, alluded to by Mr. Presee, took place create no fear, but simply a desire to while that vessel was on a trial trip from the Ciyde to Brest. A stoker favor of this mental projection of an was requested to hold an electric lamp, which was about to be hung up, to light the stokehole. He grasp-ed the lamp by a brass rod which en-circled it, and at the same time circled it, and at the same time happened to touch one of the bare wires conveying the electric current. He fell dead in a moment. His body being interposed in the track of the current, which is tremen-dously powerful, he received the shock from arm to arm right across the chest. His death was proven not to have occurred from heart disease, superinduced by the shock, but from actual rupture of the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from actual rupture of the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from actual rupture of the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from actual rupture of the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from actual rupture of the discuss, the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from actual rupture of the discuss, the discuss, the discuss, the discuss actual rupture of the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from the actual rupture of the discuss, the discharge being motor, but from the discuss, the discuss, the discuss, the discrete the discuss, the discuss and the discuss at th

In this city, Dec. 9th, 1880, by President D. H. Wells, HENRY W. E. BROWN, of South Cottonwood, and CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH Lynch, the republican candidate, TAYLOR, of Salt Lake City. were thrown out without a shadow of right or justice or reason, and the merest technicality. The disap-

DIED.

At North Point, Brighton Ward, December 04h, 1890, BLIZABETH BRADFORD, with of friends, the latter making away with them in order to give their Robert Halfords was been September 11th, 1811; baptized July 8, 1849; died in full faith of candidate grounds for contest. The the gospelpaucity of voters at the polls he as-

Mill. Star, please copy. cribed to the reluctance of Mississig pl unwashed to vote without being nations were as filmsy as they well could be, and his charges against SALT LAKE THEATRE. colored republicans would hardly MONDAY, DEC. 13. hold water even if he were believed to be an honest politician.

ENGAGEMENT FOR one Night'ONL'

Of the EMINENTLY SUCCESSFUL COMEDIAN AND CHARACTER ACTOR.

Supported by his powerful

Comedy Combination,

Appearing in the original dramatic special-ties with which his name has become insep-A London dispatch says: The ties with which his name has become insep-council of the Geographical Society rably linked-when will be presented the are considering a plan for a new American Comedy-Drama, by MILTON NOarctic exploration. It is understood the route will be by way of Irawz. Joseph's Land will be recommended, discharge being such that he had to be buried at once. A person was life) more largely endowed with also killed at Manchester England sniritual percention, than others. rounery also killed at Manchester, England, spiritual perception, than others. not long since by incautiously Their thought of God, their trust erate supporters of Monroe that the not long since by incautiously touching the exposed connections of an electric lighting apparatus. We do not dife these instances as We do not eiter these instances as any argument against the adoption of the electric light, but merely is way of caution. Kurmarous land dents have happened through igno-rance in the main and the dard dents have happened through igno-rance in the main and the dard in the construction of gas good thing on earth but may be di-verted to evil through igno-malice. Unskillful persons should not be permitted to handle electric in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from point to point, or, when the used in the conducting of wires from fires and unaccountable confingra-tions, and incendiarism will be in the conducting of whres from this point, ceremonial and sacrifice, point to point, or, when the new il-luminator comes into more general use, we shall hear to mysterious fires and unaccountable conflagra-tions, and incendiarism will be charged with many more consister phes which ought not to be built at ts door.