LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Mrs. Lander had a hearty reception last night from a large and enthusiastic audience. To say that she fulfilled the highest anticipations formed concerning her impersonation of Queen Elizabeth would be to say that she was a success in every way. She is not only a beautiful woman, but a most accomplished actress. Her voice is of a sweet and melodious quality, and her manner is of a refined and elegant character. Her impersonation of Queen Elizabeth was a masterpiece of art, and she was deservedly applauded to the echo.

RECOVERED.—By courtesy of Mr. Septimus W. Sears, we are enabled to publish the following cable dispatch to him from Elder George Reynolds:
LIVERPOOL, Sep. 26th, 1871.
Septimus W. Sears: I am at Liverpool, and quite recovered. GEORGE REYNOLDS.
The above was received in answer to a dispatch sent from here in consequence of the anxiety of Brother Reynolds' wife. We are pleased to learn the good news it conveys.
