HERE'S THE IDEAL HUSBAND

To please his child wife and gratify her ambition to be the first lady in her state, W. H. Hearne, 52 years old and a successful lawyer of Wheeling W. Va., has decided to run for governor and will enter vigorously into the coming campaign. Mr. Hearne was married to Miss Hazel Campbell of Kansas City, in June last when she was but 17 years of age. He is a widower having one married daughter several years older than his present wife, and is reputed to be worth several millions of dollars. The disparity in the ages of the couple is noticeable and Mr. Hearne indignantly resents any reference to it. While in New York on his honeymoon he was pestered by reporters who insisted on asking him if the law with him was his wife or daughter He has never before entered at all into politics.

SWITCHMEN STRIKE.

There was trouble in the switchmen's camp Saturday night, on account of the pay checks failing to arrive on the lith as had been expected. When the night crew learned of the delay, they struck, and refused to wrok till they got their pay. As a consequence Supt Olmstead was appealed to, but under the circumstances he was not in a position to rush the checks. The men refused to accept his explanation, and as they absolutely refused to work he proposed to pay them off then and there, if he had to make good out of his own purse, and they would also be given permanent discharge, all of which they accepted, nine men were discharged. He stretching a point, one switch engine was operated during the night, and during Sunday more switchmen were procured from Salt Lake City.

The afternoon service at the L. D. S.
