MEDICAL SOCIETY ADJOURNS.

After Having Spent a Very Enjoyable Time.

Electors at dinner, banquet and entertainment.

After the News went to press yesterday the following were admitted as members of the Utah Medical Society:

O. C. Ormby, Logan; Fred W. Taylor, Provo; G. B. Pines, B. L. Richards, J. J. MacArthur, L. S. Cantwell, H. P. Murray, Mant.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The president then announced that the election of officers for the coming year was in order and the following is the result:

President, Walter H. Pike, of Provo; first vice-president, G. W. Perkins, of Ogden; second vice-president, J. S. Richards, of Salt Lake; treasurer, C. M. Wilson, of Park City; secretary, J. S. Harrison, of Salt Lake; board of censors, Drs. Howard, Ormby, Ewing, Howie and Jones.

Dr. A. C. Ewing, of Hughes and E. L. Ewing were named as the board of trustees.

A vote of thanks was extended to the retiring officers of the society for their untiring labors and to the City Council and the Board of Trustees for their generous hospitality.

Resolved, That it be the sense of this society that every member of it interest himself personally in securing the election of men for the next Legislature who favor the maintenance of a high standard of medical education in the State of Utah, and that he continue to use his influence.

The first annual meeting was then adjourned to one year to meet at the same place.

BANQUET AT THE HUNTERDOME.

In the evening the society members and friends met in the parlors of the Hunterdome hotel to enjoy a banquet given by the local physicians to their fellow residents.

An excellent menu was served and parades of, after which Dr. Hanson, the retiring president, introduced Dr. Worthington as toastmaster.

In a few well chosen remarks, Dr. Worthington entertained the guests, and the following toast was offered:

Proposed by the State Medical Society, Dr. A. S. Howard; Our Guests, Mayor R. N. Baskin; Inter-Mountain Medical Association of the Future, Dr. F. M. Jones; Our Educational and Humane Institutions, Dr. J. F. Atkinson; In a Word, Ladies, Dr. Charles W. Wilson; Ladies, Present and Absent, Dr. C. M. Wilson.

LAUNCH RECEPTION.

A reception was tendered to the visiting ladies of the State Medical Society, by Mrs. Dr. A. C. Ewing, at her home on South Fifth East street, yesterday afternoon. It was a very unique affair and was highly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Ewing was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Samuel Hughes, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Charles G. Plummer, who with assistance in the dining room was given by Mrs. Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Drush, Miss Hope and Miss Colton.

GYMNASTIC EQUINES.

Exhibit their Roping Capabilities at the Skating Rink for Sweet Charity.

Prof. Glasse's farewell entertainment as announced in last night's News was run by the newspaper fraternity. A representation from the News, Herald and Tribune officiating, and the proceeds being devoted to charity.

The patronage was fair considering the counter attractions. The boys were turned to fall back on their own resources, wrong to the fact that the band refused to enable its services.

either girls or at half the usual charge. The News representative, notwithstanding the storm and a full, bright day, was serving in the hall of the ever-present small boy. Mr. Weaver's kind offer to get out at the sidewalk and waiting a few minutes being declined with smiles. There were six horses on the program, but the first two introduced a few minutes more were by Mr. Deakman and a champion of the property of Officer Hanson proved to be superior in the harness race. The show of the entire season. In the hands of Mr. Weaver, the professor's understanding, both horses being induced at the same time to take several which occasioned several lively collisions.

Together grained with, however in the evening racing department, Captain collected the horses and drove from all save the equine, while the crowd of spectators and the crowd of spectators at the door. The not proceeds which will be donated to a deaconess charity amounted to $25. Dr. Hanson's horse, however, was not in the race, but a horse named "The Windy City" was in the race, and it was not until 11:00 o'clock that the horses were taken home.

THE WORLD'S OLDEST MAN.

HE IS A SALVADORAN AND ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SIX.

The oldest man in the world, it is said, is a citizen of Bogota, in the republic of Salvador. He declares that he is 180 years old, but from the tales his neighbors and relatives tell, he is much older than he claims to be.

He is a half-breed Indian and Spanish, and his name is Michael Solis. He lives with an old planter named Luis Hernandez, who is himself 80 years of age. Hernandez says that he first saw the old man when he was 10 years old, and that he has known him ever since.

Michael was known as a man of great strength and endurance. He has also been described as a man of great wisdom and a man of great faith.

He was a member of the local church, and he was a man of great piety. He was also a man of great courage and a man of great strength.
