FRAGMENTS.

W. R. CAMEL, of Springfield, goes east over the D. & R. G. to-morrow.

A case of diphtheria has been quarantined at No. 30 west, Second South Street.

A part of the harness was lost from a runaway the other day, and the owner can find it at the City Hall.

C. C. KILGUS and J. D. Wood, of Chas. Idaho, will start for New Orleans to-morrow via the D. & R. G.

To-day's D. & R. G. train from the east is reported as late, being detained at Salda, Colorado, by a heavy storm.

The body of the Rev. George Thall will be taken east over the Union Pacific to-morrow, to his home at New Haven, Conn.

H. M. THOMPSON, of Frisco, and Walter Stager, of the American Express Company, will leave over the narrow gauge for Chicago to-morrow.

JOHN B. MERRITT, Samuel L. Jones and George W. Adams have been appointed to serve as judges at the Kayville City election on Monday Feb. 1st.

C. W. SCOTT, of Butte, and J. J. Fallon, of Helena, Montana, general agents of the Union Pacific at the above-named places, are in this city on a short visit.

FRANK STEWART and John H. Allman, two of the "gentlemen of leisure," who have been loading around saloons and street corners for several days, were arrested to-day, charged with vagrancy.

JAMES STOWARD, an old soldier, left Ogden Monday evening on the C. P. for Stockton, Cal. The unfortunate man has the entire lower part of his body paralyzed, and is almost totally helpless. He was carried to the train by members of the G. A. R. of a catcher.

What a howl was raised when a "Mormon" sheriff arrested the wrong man, and released him a few moments afterward, on discovering the mistake. And what a brave act the howlers declared the arrest and detention in the Penitentiary of the wrong man, by a U. S. deputy, to be. But then that the "impartiality" of the self-styled "American gentlemen."

The good Saints of Tooele County are evidently receiving a good deal of attention from the grand jury just now. The members of Robert A. Kendrick's family were before that body yesterday, and Robert Skelton and wife, James Martin and wife, Mrs. McClelland, Mrs. Wm. Pickett, H. B. Haynes and Wm. Herman were brought in from Tooele last evening being subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury to-day.

Stake Conference.—The Quarterly Conference of the Tooele Stake of Zion will be held on Saturday and Sunday, January 29th and 30th, at Tooele City.

Concert.—On Saturday evening next, the members of the choir at Tooele and their friends will give a complimentary concert to Brother John Bowen, the leader of the choir. An excellent programme has been arranged, and an enjoyable time is anticipated.

Sudden Death.—About 11 o'clock this morning, as the Rev. George Thall, brother of the Congregational minister in this city, was walking along West Temple Street, near Third South, he was seized with a sudden attack of pulmonary hemorrhage, which prostrated him. Assistance was immediately rendered, and Dr. Dart summoned, but in a few moments Mr. Thall passed quietly away, life being extinct when the physician arrived. Rev. Thall came here from the east, for the benefit of his health, which had seemed to greatly improve.

Petty Larceny.—A Chinaman known as Ah Lee, who was recently released from the city jail, where he had served a term for committing a theft at Madison's second-hand store, was arrested this morning, on a charge of petty larceny. On Monday last Ah Lee stole a quantity of tools from Ed. Mahquish's blacksmith shop, and succeeded in evading the officers until this morning. Most of the stolen property was recovered, and at the trial in the Justice's Court to-day, the Celestial was proven guilty, and sentenced to 10 days' imprisonment in the city jail. He requested, and was granted permission to take for a companion in his leisure hours, a first reader, from which he proposed to gain an acquaintance with the English language, that he might better understand the ways of the "Melanch man."

The Historical Record.—Brother Andrew Jensen has placed upon our table the latest sample of his literary ventures, in the shape of a rather neat looking and very readable magazine, called the "Historical Record," an English journal in its name indicated, which supersedes and is a continuation of his Scandinavian Morgensjeneren. It contains thirty-two pages of reading matter, the latter half of which is devoted exclusively to Church chronology, in the compilation of which Brother Jensen has developed a special aptitude, and which is in such a shape that at the close of the volume it can be separated from the balance of the work and bound in a book by itself. The magazine will be published once a month, at the very reasonable price of $1.25 per annum. The Record is, well worthy of patronage, and we trust that it may receive such a share that its founder's hopes may be fully realized.

May Blossom.—Lewis Morrison's Company, who inaugurate their engagement with "May Blossom" at the Theatre on next Thursday evening, is one of the most efficient organizations now before the public. Its repertoire consists of one of the latest eastern and San Francisco successes. "May Blossom" is one of the most successful plays that has ever been presented, and now enjoys the second largest run of any play in the history of the American stage. The company which Mr. Morrison brings is one of the best that has ever produced it, and in many instances far superior to the original company. They carry all their own scenery and mechanical effects and intend presenting "May Blossom" in the same elaborate manner as it was given at the Baldwin, San Francisco. It will only be produced for one night and will be succeeded by the "Gaily Slave," another of their great successes, which will be succeeded at the matinee, with the famous "Hazel Kirke." For their farrow performance they present "Pagets," the last Baldwin success, introducing Mr. Morrison in his great creation.

Mr. Sharp thought the date would not give the time necessary for the work to be done. Mr. Taylor thought Mr. Sharp's suggestion was a wise one, and he moved to amend the motion so as to read the 10th inst. of the first day of February, 1888; amended and referred.

A bill by Mr. Barton, to regulate the practice of medicine, passed in first reading and was referred to the committee on public health.

A bill by Mr. Sharp, to amend section 10 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, for amending the criminal code in justice's courts was referred to the committee on municipal corporations and townships.

House met pursuant to adjournment, and after the usual opening exercises proceeded to work.

A communication was received from W. N. Dusenberry, President of the Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum, inviting the Governor and members of the Legislature of Utah to visit the Asylum at an early day as practicable.

The invitation was accepted, and Friday, January 29th, was set as the day for the visit.

Notice was received that the Council concurred in the House resolution calling for a report from the District Clerk in relation to fines collected, and had set the time for the bill instead of the 1st of February.

Mr. Thall presented a petition from the residents of Sevier County in relation to a new road, and asking an appropriation of $1,000 to help defray the expenses of construction; read and referred to committee on highways.

Mr. Hatch, from the committee on judiciary, reported that the committee did not concur in the House resolution No. 13, on compilation of laws; report adopted.

Mr. Smoot presented the report of the committee on the asylum for the insane, which was read, and recommended that a copy of said report be printed for distribution. The report was adopted after much discussion, 20 yeas and 10 nays.

A message from the Council announced that the Council had resolved to accept the invitation to visit the asylum.

Mr. Cannon presented a bill "to lessen the terms of sentence of convicts, for good conduct;" read by title and referred to the committee on penitentiary and reform school.

A resolution was received from the Council stating that that body insisted on the 18th day of February instead of the 1st of February, and information was furnished by the District Clerk and a committee of conference consisting of Messrs. Cannon and Stratton was appointed by the chairman.

The funeral.—The many friends of the late William Jennings were allowed the privilege of viewing the body, as it lay in state, from 10 a. m. to 12 m. to-day. At 1 p. m. the funeral services, presided over by Bishop F. Kessler, commenced. The City Council were present in a body, and the various institutions with which the deceased was connected, were well represented. A very large number of people were in attendance to pay their last respects to the departed dead, there not being room in the house for but a very small proportion of those present.

Hon. Lorin Farr, of Ogden, offered the opening prayer. Ex-Mayor E. Little was the first speaker. He referred to the many excellent qualities of the honored dead, and to the great intimacy which had existed between the deceased and himself.

Hon. W. H. Hooper, John Sharp, H. S. Eldredge and himself, and of the extensive social and financial relations, in which there had been the best of feeling manifested by all. On the departure of Hon. W. H. Hooper there was a vacant chair; the death of Hon. W. Jennings made another, leaving only three.

Bishop O. F. Whitney followed with an eloquent and touching address, in which he referred to the ability and integrity of the deceased, and his obedience to the Gospel of Christ. He had made himself beloved and respected through his kind and amiable qualities, and would be held in honorable remembrance.

The speaker closed his remarks by reading the vision given to the Prophet Joseph Smith and Sidney Rigdon.

Hon. John Sharp made a few feeling remarks regarding his association with the deceased, and the honorable life and character of the departed.

Bishop F. Kessler closed with a few remarks regarding the willing assistance that he and his wife had given to the deceased, and after singing and benediction, the large concourse of people were permitted to view the remains.

The funeral cortege, numbering 60 vehicles, then proceeded to the city cemetery, where the mortal remains of Hon. Wm. Jennings were laid to rest.

Millard Stake Academy.—From the report made to the board of trustees of this worthy institution, which had its inception only a few months since, by the principal, Brother Alma Greenwood, a copy of which we have received, we learn that during the first term of the first academic year there were 74 students enrolled in the preparatory department, and 38 in the advanced department.

In the preparatory department there were ten classes and fifty-six weekly recitations conducted by three teachers; in the advanced department, there were six classes and 62 weekly recitations conducted by three teachers. The report of the music department shows class A to consist of 36 members, and class B of 20 members, and to which there is a choir of 119 members.

The theological department makes a very creditable showing, and from it and the report of the domestic department we are convinced that the students are being carefully trained in a knowledge of their religion while in the academy, and that their morals are being carefully guarded at their boarding places.

The principal in his closing remarks says: "Notwithstanding the discipline and restrictions are not confined to systems of education, and under the leadership of the students have been restored; they are as a whole deserving of praise and credit for the manner in which they have complied with the requirements of the institution. Wednesday morning have been utilized for recitations and impromptu speaking, and I believe that every student in school has spoken twice. Thus many testimonies and desires for the same have been borne. All have resolved themselves as being well satisfied with the rules, which they consider are not difficult of observance. While we are aware of the fact that our young Academy is a void of financial props and endowments, we entertain anticipations of its being able, in the future, to accomplish much good."

These hopes are not shared by the liberal patronage of the community, and the spirit of God which inspired and dictated his prophecy.

Raid on a Meeting House.—Last evening a business meeting was held in the Seventeenth Ward Hall, at which the Bishops of several of the city wards were present. At about 10 o'clock, just as the meeting was being brought to a close, a loud knocking was heard at the outer door, down stairs. A The doorkeeper went down and was met by Marshall Ireland, who was accompanied by six or eight of his deputies, including Smith, Faulk, Gleason, and others. Marshall Ireland inquired of the doorkeeper, Mr. Hyde, whether James C. Watson was present, and on being answered in the negative, asked why meeting was being held, and how many persons were present. Mr. Hyde replied that it was a private business meeting, and that there were from 100 to 150 persons in the room. The Marshal seemed somewhat disappointed, evidently having had some different idea. He then stated that he was there with warrants of arrest for certain parties, and that the building was surrounded by his deputies. Among those whom the marshal desired to see were Presidents John Taylor and Geo. Q. Cannon, Apostles Erasmus Snow, Brigham Young, John H. Smith, and others of the quorum of the Twelve. Mr. Hyde assured the Marshal that none of the First Presidency or Twelve were in the building, whereupon the deputy remarked, "Well, if it is not there, perhaps some of the others we want are." The Marshal then said he would like to go upstairs and see for himself, and was informed by Mr. Hyde that it he showed the warrant of arrest, he was at perfect liberty to do so. Just then, however, the meeting began to close, those in attendance began to disperse, and the lights upstairs were extinguished. Marshall Ireland and his deputies closely examined every person who passed out, and being satisfied that all had gone, and none whom they wished were there, the doors were locked.

A very foolish occurrence took place while the people were passing out, which caused some excitement. Bishop Alexander McRae, who is almost 80 years of age and quite feeble, came out with others walked by the Marshal, and went to the corner of the building, where he was seized by Deputy Mix and some watch words were drawn. Mix drawing his pistol and calling for Mr. Ireland. The Marshal, who acted in a gentlemanly manner throughout, immediately went over, and seeing it was a case of mistaken identity, settled the matter by releasing the aged Bishop. Those assembled then dispersed, some of them being followed and shadowed by deputies, one of whom endeavored to disguise himself by putting on a full beard, but was easily recognized as he stationed himself at Bishop Preston's, and peered into the faces of passers-by.

Angostura Bitters were prepared by Dr. J. G. B. Siebert for his private use. Their reputation is such to-day that they have become generally known as the best appetizing tonic. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siebert & Sons.

The Very Busy Man.—This sort of man generally breaks down by too much attention to business, and does not enough attention to health. He thinks he has a splendid constitution, and can stand the racket. He begins to feel shaky, and despondent. When he begins to take Brown's Iron Bitters he also begins to feel better. A very large number of Iron Bitters is the best possible remedy. I have suffered horribly for two years from indigestion, and I feel as if I had new life and blood put in me.
