

Secretary J. H. Parry of State Board Of Horticulture Urges Immediate Campaign Against Disease.

It is important to cut out blight whenever it is found, even in the growing season. At that time, however, it cannot be hoped to make much headway against the disease, as new cases constantly occur which are not sufficiently developed to be seen when the cutting is done. In orchards where there are only a few trees, and the owner has sufficient time to go over them

Announcements

musty in its indennable limits as the ilky Way; only in this case, the expression should read "Inky Way," for s hair is a dark as lamp black.
 Creator did not fear himself to piece st night, as badly as he was wont of ore, although he came pretty near it the Carmen number; for he was tired ith travel, and looked just a bit

ning Char n Who W

removed his eyeglasses and looked critically at the young man. "Have you read Mr. Cheate's letter?" he asked. Joseph confessed that he had. "Mr.

Four years later the young man was invited to become a member of the firm of Evans, Southmayd & Choate. Almost at a bound he had leaped into legal fame. The very year of his arrival he had made a reputation as an orator in the Fremont campaign, a reputation which never decreased. In a decade he became the most noted trial lawyer in the state, if not in the country. He began then to conduct some of the most celebrated cases of the day. Among them may be cited his masterly defense pleased the audience that although it was the last number on the program, they were loth to leave, even after the curtain fell. Madame Barilli is a beautiful woman with form and voice to correspond, and she certainly captivated her listeners with the "Mocking Bird" song, heard years ago, but much less frequently now. Encores were the order of the evening last night.

LIBERTY STAKE FAIR.

The Liberty Stake Mid-winter fair committee has decided to give as a prize to the most popular lady of the stake a beautiful diamond ring. This

Pages In the Will Represents

Fitz John Porter, the Tweed ring prosecution, the Tilden will contest, the fishing sea dispute and the Chinese exclusion cases. He was made ambassador to Great Britain by President choice at the time Mr. Chouteau was appointed, but political conditions in the state were not favorable to his candidacy. A native of the little Ohio city of Xenia, Mr. Reid was graduated at Miami university and at once entered journalism in his home town. He was correspondent for the Cincinnati Gazette during the civil war, and his letters attracted much attention. Horace Greeley was favorably impressed with them and at the close of the war invited him to take an editorial position on the Tribune. In 1872 Mr. Reid receiving the entire vote: James A. Pollock, H. W. Boscher, J. B. Thompson, W. J. Browning, Joseph Obendorfer, W. H. Alexander, John Hatfield, Alexander Campbell, and Milton Joseph. Reports read show that the outgoing administration leaves a balance of $717 on hand.

However, it's an ill wind that blows nobody good. For this same weather has stirred up the Utah hens so that they are inclined more to do their duty, and farmers are bringing in eggs in larger quantities each week. People are therefore shifting their style of diet, and putting up more and more with egg meat and doing less at the meat eating line.

The quiet cattle market here is caused

The Diplomat ent Us In succeeded Mr. Greeley as editor and principal owner of the Tribune. He was once offered the mission to Germany, but declined. He was minister to France from 1880 to 1892. In the latter not successful. Mr. Reid was special ambassador to Queen Victoria's jubilee and also represented the United States at Edward VII's coronation.

General Horace Porter was born in the same year as Mr. Reid—1837—at Huntington, Pa. He was graduated from West Point in 1860 and served in the civil war from start to finish, taking part in many of the great battles. At the coming of peace he was attached to General Grant's staff, and when the latter became president Porter, then

Highest.....	50
Lowest.....	32

MORE GIRLS THAN BOYS.

Birth Report Shows Nearly Two to One —Contagious Diseases.

Col. W. G. Page of Halley is a guest at the Kenyon.

Peter S. Martin of Milford is a guest at the Cullen.

Theodore Turner of Boise is registered at the Cullen.

Editor William Walling of the Pocatello Tribune is at the Wilson. He came to hear Malba.

atic Service the Foreign my, was his choice for private secretary. In 1873 he resigned from the army to become vice president of the Pullman Car company. President McKinley appointed him ambassador to which state he was made governor in 1858. Member of the United States senate from 1871 to 1877, he was also a member of every national Republican convention from 1872 to 1896. Mr. Clayton was appointed minister to Mexico in 1897.

Edwin Hurd Conger is a native of Illinois and an alumnus of Lombard university. He was graduated at the Albany Law school and practiced for a few years in Galesburg, but in 1868 removed to Iowa and became successively

The Coe college Institute and Westminster college celebrated the day of prayer for colleges last Thursday, and the institute people received a very pleasant letter from Miss Morgan, who, with her mother, is in Rome.

Many business men of all lines have called at the Commercial National bank to examine the $10 counterfeit silver certificates on exhibition with Genuine held for the German members of the "Mormon" Church. The speaking, the singing, and the entire service will be in the German language, and will be under the direction of Levi E. Young. The Germans who attend are requested to bring their songbooks.

No clue has been obtained to the persons who broke into the Riverton post-office and the Pixon store on Thursday night. Mr. Pixon checked up on the e;

gn Field

n. He has been member of congress, minister to Brazil and since 1898 minister to China.

David E. Thompson has had a peculiarly interesting career. A native of in France and has been secretary of legation at Vienna and at London for many years. At the latter mission he has often acted as charge d'affaires. He is one of the most accomplished diplomats in the American foreign field.

SETH LOW.

A report from New York received today, refers to a possible merger on the part of the Bell Telephone company of this city with some other organization. General Manager Murray of the Bell company knows of no merger of any class or description, past, present or fusided counter of variegated marble slabs surmounted by a prettily designed metallic screen. When the walls and ceilings shall have been frescoed, the general appearance will be greatly enhanced. President Knox's office is at the northeast corner, enclosed and like the woodwork elsewhere, is of polished mahogany. The settee are of massive mahogany, upholstered in heavy leather.

TODAY'S REALTY TRANSFERS.

Jno. Sutton to Chas. E. Erickson, lot 1, block 20, plat B	1.20
Jesse M. Fox to Joseph C. Fair, lots 28 and 29, block 10, Forest Dale	25
Jno. Cooper to Elizabeth R. Cooper, lot 1, block 11, plat A	1
Wm. H. Freeman to Isaac E. Free-

Expert Ladies' Tailoring.
A ladies' tailoring department has been installed by Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Glosz at their new store, 270 Main St. It is the result of a New York trip by will be filed with the clerk of said court.

RAY VAN COTT,
Plaintiff's Attorney.
P. O. Address Deseret National Bank Building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

American, $2.50 to $4.00.
The Canyon Hotel.

Some Coming Changes In the Diplomatic Service; Men Who Will Represent Us In the Foreign Field

own state. He might receive the nomination, but his utter want of political sagacity would make it probable that he would be certain to bring defeat at the polls. The truth of that statement has been demonstrated more than once.

Born in Salem, Mass., in 1832, Mr. Choate was an alumnus of the classical department of Harvard university, and twenty and two years later a graduate of the law school. At that time his distinguished kinsman, Rufus Choate, was at the zenith of his fame, and the young man realized that the Bay State, notwithstanding its small size, was his favorite son, had nothing left to bestow upon another Choate. Armed with letter of introduction from the great Rufus to William M. Everts, he presented himself to the New York office of that famous metropolitan lawyer.

Mr. Everts read the letter and, after folding it with the nicest precision, returned it to its envelope. Then he re-

Choate speaks of you as the best all-around young lawyer of his acquaintance. What does he mean?" Mr. Evans remanded sharply, "I don't know exactly." Joseph replied modestly, but with a twinkle in his black eyes. "I have a distinct recollection, however, of meeting Mr. Choate in the office of the only young lawyer of his acquaintance." Four years later the young man was invited to become a member of the firm of Evans, Southmayd & Choate. Alas, Choate had already died, but he left a name. And he had leaped into national fame. The very year of his arrival he had made a reputation as an orator in the Fremont campaign, a reputation which never decreased. In a decade he became the most noted trial lawyer in the country. He was the country. He began then to conduct the most celebrated cases of the day. Among them may be cited his masterly defense was not successful. Mr. Reid was special ambassador to Queen Victoria's jubilee and also represented the United States at Edward VII's coronation.

POWELL CLAYTON

HORACE PORTER

General Horace Porter was born in the same year as Mr. Reid—1837—at Philadelphia, Pa. He was graduated from West Point in 1860 and served in the civil war from start to finish, taking part in many of the great battles. At the coming of peace he was attached to General Grant's staff, and when the latter became president Porter, then and became captain in the First Kansas Infantry. He rose to the rank of brigadier general and after the war established himself as a planter in Arkansas, which state he was made governor in 1878. Member of the United States senate from 1871 to 1877, he was also a member of every national republican convention from 1872 to 1896. Mr. Clayman was appointed minister to Mexico in 1897.

GEORGE VON L. MEYER

Edwin Hurd Conger is a native of Illinois and an alumnus of Lombard university. He was graduated at the Albany Law school and practiced for a few years in Galesburg, but in 1868 removed to Iowa and became successively

A black and white portrait of Seth Low, a man with a mustache, wearing a suit and a bow tie. The portrait is a head-and-shoulders shot, facing slightly to the left.

SETH LOW.

of Salt Lake. Emily Jane Nephew, Plaintiff, vs. George W. Nephew, Defendant. The State of Utah, to the said Defendant: You are hereby summoned to appear within seven days after the service of this summons upon you, to answer within the County in which this action is brought, otherwise, within thirty days after service, and defend the said entitled action; and in case of your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, which is as follows: That the sum of $25.00, with interest thereon, will be paid with the clerk of said court. Witness my hand and seal of said court, this 10th day of March, 1914.

Plaintiff's Attorney,
P. O. Address Deseret National Bank Building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

America, $2.50 to $4.00.
The Ensign Hotel.

