THE WILL AND THE WAY.

One Who Has Endured Hardship Gives Advice to Young Men.

Moan, Grand County, Utah.

November 27, 1895.

To the Editor:

Last March on the 15th last, made Can Springs the first night, 15 miles, where there is man by the name of Hansen, who is trying to make a home started next morning and made Hatchet, Wash., 20 miles, for dinner; in the afternoon traveled through Dry Valley, to East canyon, 10 miles, where he had commenced to build a rockhouse; here he found no water, so he dug a hole in the ground, with a good prospect for plenty of water. I am asked why I leave home and start to make a new place when I have a good home. My answer is that I have not such good places given me, and when I find them, then I have a way to do not some of our young men who have not homes in some of these old settlements where there are houses, gardens, and go to work and make homes before eastern parties come in—where they will have to buy houses of wood and drawers of water. This is not the case with us; the country is so flat that there is no difficulty in getting timber or lumber to build houses, and the cost of building is not great; but the greatest capital is with I know, because I have stated in places with as any capital and obtain a home. Where there is a will there is a way. As these young men will work hard, and when we get to the mountains, the work will be difficult, but the pay will be good; but the cost of living will be high, so there will be a place of dry bread? The writer has done more than this now, was taken sick, but had not time to write, so I am writing better in the future. As more increase Wantzing comes after all man is well off at the start as any. Thus far as his wants are concerned, he can live well without any trouble. The writer can sleep when he wants to, and need not sleep when he must keep climbing or he will sleep late. He overcomes with a determination to earn bread by the sweat of his brow, as this is success, and just will succeed.

School Election Orders.

The Utah Commission, by its chairman, A. G. Noyes, has issued the following orders for the school election on Wednesday next:

Ordered that the election for members of the board of education for Salt Lake City be held on Wednesday, Dec. 4, 1895, at the following named places in the several premises, and that the following persons be named as judges of election:

First Precinct—Highland school house, on Fourth South, Judges A. E. Schreiber, G. H. Pettit and Louis Hyman.

Second Precinct—At Hodges' building, 100 West, Third South street, Judges J. C. Ward, George Westcott and S. H. Bassett.

Third Precinct—Brixton's ward school house, Judges R. V. Lloyd, Charles Hinckley and J. N. Dix.

Fourth Precinct—Bartlett's school house, Judge James C. Jones, Dr. D. C. Dickey and J. T. Anderson.

Fifth Precinct—Thirteenth ward school house, Judges P. J. Daly, J. C. Evans and E. P. Davis.

And further ordered that all returns for such election be made to H. V. Stoddard, State Auditor, State House, who is authorized to examine the seals and issue the certificates of election to the persons receiving the highest number of votes in each precinct respectively.

A GREAT REUNION.

The Hardy and Numerous Faculty of Father Just High.

Hannibal, Fremont Co., Idaho.

November 20, 1895.

To the Editor:

Thanksgiving Day was appropriately observed here, all business houses being closed, and everything putting on a general holiday appearance. In the evening a grand character ball was given under the auspices of the Bixby First Ward Primary Association, which was well attended, and a good time enjoyed by all present.

The event of the day, however, was the Bixby annual reunion, All p. m. to 4 o'clock, and a meeting of the old-timers to the same hour. The 125 sat down to a very sumptuous dinner, which was heartily enjoyed by all present, after which tables were cleared, seats arranged, and a family meeting held at which addresses were delivered by Dr. J. C. Bixby, Dr. J. C. Bixby Jr., Nathan Hinckley, Jonathan Hinckley, Tabitha Hinckley and other members of the family, all which tended to encourage the young generation to follow in the footsteps and to emulate their worthy example. Their grand old, and other, or at least one, of the Hinckley family, who was most reverently referred to by his descendants, Jonathan Hinckley, in whose honor these yearly gatherings are held. Hinckley died a good old man, and was a good citizen. Justice Hinckley was the first of his father's family to receive the Gospel in this dispensation; we arrived in Utah with his wife and nine children in 1848. In 1851 he first became a member of the Church, at which time he had a postern, or key, who were members of the Church, and

What is a generation?

It is this. If you have a child or children, you consider yourself, or your wife, a member of your family.

But when your child grows up and has a family of his own, he is your child's child, and so on.

Thus, in a sense, we have
