

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE THEATRE should be well filled to-night to witness the presentation of that thrilling drama, "The Will and the Way," as we feel assured the management will put it on the boards in a manner that will please all who may attend. "The Dutchman's Ghost" will finish the performance, and we suppose it will be "all right."

PERSONAL.—Amongst the visitors now in our city, are Judge Enos, late of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and United States Senator Guinn, whose name is so intimately associated with the history of California. Judge Enos, though over ninety years of age, has "done" the trip across the Continent alone. He is a remarkably well preserved man and possesses rare legal attainments.

TARIFF.—The Deseret Telegraph Line tariff to Pleasant Grove is fifty cents instead of twenty-five cents, as stated yesterday.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—By courtesy of Elder Albert Carrington we are enabled to publish the following dispatch:

PLEASANT GROVE, Utah Co., November 11, 1910.
Elder A. Carrington:
Reuben, son of Widow Harriet Rock, aged twenty-one years, was killed, to-day, in Battle Creek Canyon, by the falling of a tree.
D. M. SMITH.

The funeral of the deceased was to take place this afternoon at four o'clock.

AT OGDEN.—Professor Bosco with his magic and mystery, accompanied by Sangiovanni and his pets, are interesting the people of Ogden and representing the interests of the Salt Lake Museum and Menagerie. They will continue their journey northward next week.

ARM BROKEN.—As Mr. James Allen, of Draperville, was entering his barn on Thursday, he was kicked by a mule on his left arm, breaking it between the wrist and elbow. It appears the mule was a very timid animal and the entrance of Mr. Allen, near to where it stood in the barn, frightened it and was the cause of the accident. The arm was set by Dr. Dunyon, and Brother Allen, who is sixty-five years of age, is doing as well as can be expected.

THE TWO DAYS' MEETINGS.—At half-past seven this morning a special train started for Ogden, having on board Presidents B. Young, G. A. Smith and D. H. Wells; Elders John Taylor, Geo. Q. Cannon, B. Young, Jun., Jos. F. Smith, A. Carrington and a number of others, en route to attend the two days' meetings in that city. Judging from our own experience in this city, we anticipate the people of Ogden will have a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, during the stay of these brethren in their midst. The meetings will continue to-day and to-morrow.

A GENTLE REMINDER.—Our friends should not forget that the Sabbath afternoon meetings now commence at one o'clock. The recollection of this fact will save them the annoyance of arriving at the Tabernacle when the meeting is half over and the speaker is in the middle of his discourse. Late arrivals at meetings also disturb the congregations.

ANOTHER OFFICE.—Superintendent Muser, of the Deseret Telegraph Company, has opened another new office on the line, being the third within the last few days. This last one is located at Lehi, Utah county. It will supply a want long felt by the residents of that city.

RELEASE AND APPOINTMENT.—Elder William Douglas has been released from his duties as Traveling Elder in the Glasgow Conference, and appointed to labor as Traveling Elder in the Nottingham Conference.—Mt. Star, Oct. 18th.

THEATRICALS AT OGDEN.—A gentleman present at the theatrical entertainment given at Ogden, on Thursday evening, informs us that the performance gave great satisfaction, the pieces represented being admirably performed. The absence of a great number of the citizens from home prevented there being as large an audience as would otherwise have been present.

ACCIDENT.—We were pained to learn through a telegram from Provo, that last Monday Mr. William Ridd, of this city, who was engaged in the erection of the Provo Co-operative factory, was seriously injured through his right hand being caught in the feed rollers of the planing mill. The skin and flesh of his arm halfway to the elbow, was mostly torn off by the machinery. He left Provo for his home in this city yesterday morning.

BE PREPARED.—Brother John A. Rehnstrom, of this city, called this morning and made the following statement: As he was going toward his home from his workshop last night after dark, and when on South Temple Street, a short distance east of President Young's office, he was stopped by a man dressed in the uniform of a U. S. soldier. Brother R. was wheeling some potatoes in a barrow. The soldier took a small derringer from his pocket and commenced firing in the barrow to see what was in it, at the same time telling our informant that if he said a cross word his brains would be blown out. Brother Rehnstrom mildly remonstrated with him when he became more peaceably disposed, and stated that it would be advisable for people not to come out after dark in this city, as it was the intention of the cavalry now stationed at camp Douglas to come down and clear out the town. He said he belonged to the cavalry himself, and that he was intended to be one of the party who would make the raid. The assertions of this soldier may only have been the idle talk of a half-drunken man and made without any foundation; yet the Provo affair has taught a lesson, which will not be readily forgotten. We think it would be advisable for the officers now at Camp to keep strict watch on the movements of their men, and let the citizens be prepared for any emergency, remembering the good old Scriptural saying that we should "watch as well as pray." As we understand that a number of the principal officers of Camp are intended to be in Rawlins, there may be a necessity for increased vigilance on the part of those remaining.

MORE TREASURE.—We are informed that the search for the remainder of the treasure taken in the late robbery at Toano resulted, yesterday, in the discovery of some gold bars, jewels and $30,000 in greenbacks. The man supposed to be the remaining one of the four connected with the robbery is in custody at the city jail.

RETURNED.—Officers William Hyde, Charles Gray and Adam Paul returned to this city at ten o'clock, this morning, from Elko, to which place they had escorted the two supposed mail robbers first captured. On their arrival at Elko with the prisoners, they were met, at the Railroad station, by the County Sheriff and his deputies, who treated our officers with marked courtesy. The prisoners were safely lodged in jail.
