Rev. William Taylor comes to take Charge of a Local Pulpit.

Rev. William M. Taylor, recently of Chattanooga, Tenn., has arrived from the south, and preaches his first sermon tomorrow morning, as the new pastor of the Central Christian church in this city. Mr. Taylor gave the "News" office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon, and stated that President Ben E. Rich of the Southern States missions was making many friends among all classes of people in Chattanooga and the state, and thought the "Mormon" Church could not have made an appointment more likely to carry out the work for which Mr. Rich was sent there. Mr. Taylor said he had met President Rich personally and was much pleased with him. The Chattanooga "Times" of recent date has the following to say of Mr. Taylor:

"The Rev. W. M. Taylor, long and most favorably known in connection with the work of the Christian church in Highland Park and in this city, and who has recently been engaged in evangelical work for that denomination, has accepted a call to an influential church in Salt Lake City, where he goes immediately. Mr. Taylor enjoys the reputation of being a scholarly man, a faithful, popular orator, a preacher of the 'word' in its purity, and not a sensation monger or a dictator of his fellowmen, and in addition to these qualifications he is a Christian gentleman. He will carry with him the best wishes of a large circle of friends and admirers in this community."

THE NEW COURT CATHEDRAL AT PETERHOF.

The beautiful structure shown in the picture has been dedicated recently at Peterhof, the St. Petersburg suburb in which the Russian royal family has its favorite residence. The building is in the Russo-Byzantine style of the sixteenth century and is a fine example of Muscovite ecclesiastical architecture. The opening service was conducted with the most elaborate ceremonies known to the Orthodox ritual, and the royal family and the entire court circle were present.

BOAT BRIDGE OVER THE INDUS AT KHUSHALGAR.

The bridge shown in the cut is one of the most important pontoon structures in India. Owing to the rapidity of its current and its liability to become swollen during the rainy season the Indus has always been regarded as one of the most difficult streams in the world to bridge. This Khushalgar bridge is of the ordinary floating or pontoon order and will sustain any weight.

WOMAN'S VITALITY

DEPENDS ON CARE REGARDING A SIMPLE MATTER.

Mrs. Ford Tells What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Will Surely Do For Many Perplexed Women.

"I wish I could help other women get rid of certain physical troubles as completely as I have succeeded in getting rid of mine," said Mrs. E. B. Ford of Pushmataha, Miss., recently. "You know," she continued, "that a woman's health depends chiefly on the regularity of just one function. If she fails to keep that properly regulated she has no end of physical misery. I suffered from that one cause for two wretched years, during one of which I was kept in bed all the time. I tried medicines enough to cure any illness, but nothing gave me the slightest benefit until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They cured me. Why I was suffering all the time practically from sickness of the stomach, dizziness or swimming in my head and pain in my back. Now I am entirely free from discomfort of that kind, and I can do my work as a teacher, and to enjoy the pleasures that come through the possession of sound health."

Within three weeks after beginning the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I experienced such relief that I knew they must be adapted to the needs of my case. After using them for a short while longer I became and have since remained a well woman, and the reason why is simply that I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

The pills which Mrs. Ford praises so enthusiastically cure the chief ailments of women by thoroughly renovating the blood. They make uterine action regular and painless, banish headaches, languor, nervousness, create appetite, promote digestion, put color in the complexion, build up strength and in a word, enable women to reach and maintain full physical perfection.

Every woman should send to the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., for a valuable booklet, entitled "What Women Want," and the booklet will be mailed free in sealed envelope to the address of any applicant. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists. They are safe as well as effective. They do not contain the slightest trace of opiates or of any other harmful drugs.
