

BONDS PROPOSED FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Steps Taken by Board of Education to Call Special Election.

IS NOW WITH COMMITTEE.

Date and Other Details to be Arranged—Estimated That $250,000 Will be Required.

In a resolution passed by the board of education last night steps were taken to call a special election for the raising of $250,000 worth of bonds to purchase a high school site, erecting a building suitable to the growing population and furnishing the same with furniture and necessary supplies and equipment. The act passed authorized the raising of the tax by an additional mill for such a building as provided by the recent legislature.

The matter was referred to the committee of the whole which will meet this week and draw up a notice of the election deciding upon a date. The resolution was introduced by Mathias Thomas, and was as follows:

"Be it and it is hereby resolved, That immediate steps be taken to call an election for the raising of $250,000 worth of bonds to purchase a high school site, erecting a building suitable to the growing population and furnishing the same with furniture and necessary supplies and equipment."

The dispute between the board and the Granite school district which resulted upon the taking over by the city board of the Waterloo school was referred to a special committee. The sum involved amounts to several thousands of dollars, and it is probable that a settlement will be reached. The committee consists of Mathias Thomas, A. G. Glaugue and Ledyard M. Bailey.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The report of the treasurer showed receipts for the month as follows:

Balance $585.11.35
Received from J. A. Groesbeck, county treasurer, 1908 42.48.81
Taxes 42.48.81

Total $627.60.16

Disbursements 63.91.57

Balance on hand $563.68.59

For the nine months just ended the following statement was shown:

Balance on hand June 30, 1908, $4,972.82
Receipts for nine months 313,494.42
Total receipts $318,467.24
Disbursements for nine months 326,015.89
Balance on hand $24,451.35

The board decided to reduce the number of associate members of the board of examiners from four to two and appointed as the two Principals J. H. Coombs and Evelyn Kelly. One examination was fixed for June 15 and 16, and the other on the Friday and Saturday of the second week preceding the opening of school.

George Townsend was appointed a teacher in the High school, and Ada Hartley and Enns Austin were appointed to the teaching staff. Lila Salmon was released from her contract.

The use of the school building was granted to the G. A. R. during the encampment under such regulations as the board saw fit.

A resolution was passed cancelling the contract of the Vander Berst Bros. for the erection of the new Jefferson school building on the Walker site. The bondsmen, the Fidelity & Deposit company of Maryland, were notified and will be given 24 hours to say what will be done by them. The board will hold a special meeting, which will be called some time next week, to re-let the contract.

LECTURES ON GEOLOGY.

The opening lecture of the mining series was given last evening in the Y. M. C. A. club room by Prof. Fred C. Peak, who spoke on "General Utah Geology." He spoke of the enormous division of Utah into two halves by the Wasatch range, whereas the facts are that the southern half of the state is a vast plateau while the northern half is mountainous.

Stereopticon slides were used to show the old water levels on the foothills of the mountains, and the faults and stratification of various regions were discussed with their bearing on earthquakes.

The next lecture in the series will be given by Louis Chas, mine manager of the Boston Consolidated Mining company.

FOR WIVES SEEK RELIEF IN COURT

The Story of a Spring Hat is Related in Complaint of Mrs. Larson.

PURSUED BY CRUEL HUSBAND

Laura Duncan Says Her Spouse Has Followed Her from One Place to Another.

After buying his wife one spring hat—the price is not mentioned—John P. Larson, a railroad man, deserted his wife, Mrs. Laura Larson, according to her complaint for divorce which was filed yesterday in the Third district court. They were married in Pocatello, Idaho, on Jan. 9, 1905. Their trouble started shortly after they left Pocatello and came to Salt Lake. She bought a hat and then her husband refused to buy her a suit or other wearing apparel to match it. Since that he has failed to provide for her in any way and she has been forced to earn her own living.

Pursued by her husband from one state to another, Mrs. Laura J. Duncan, who has lived in Salt Lake for the past five years, filed suit for divorce yesterday in the Third district court. She charges him with cruelty, alleging that on several occasions he had struck her and injured her. They were married in Des Moines, Iowa, on Nov. 4, 1878. In 1882 they moved to Des Moines, and there he began to treat her in a cruel manner. She left him there and went to Bismarck, Mont., in 1900, where she took her children. When he followed her there, they lived together for a while and then separated and she came to Salt Lake, bringing her youngest child, who is a minor. Duncan is now in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Mary Marriott seeks a divorce from her husband, James Marriott, a farmer, on the grounds of non-support, in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third district court. Although he has a farm valued at $14,000, a house well furnished, and equipment for cultivating his land, he has not supported his wife for two years. In her complaint she asks for a division of the property. They were married in Salt Lake on Feb. 9, 1905.

On the ground of cruelty, Mrs. Annie E. Hamilton brought suit for divorce yesterday against William H. Hamilton. They were married in Salt Lake on Aug. 26, 1904. In the following November he struck her, injuring her. Several times after that he called her vile names and drove her out of the house.

FENCE CAUSE OF SUIT.
Lillian B. Gleason brought an action yesterday in the Third district court to compel Joseph M. Kearney to move a fence off of her property. She alleges that she is the owner of lot 16, block 1, East Park addition, and that Kearney, who owns the adjoining property, has encroached upon her property by moving his fence over on to it.

DAMAGE CASE DISMISSED.
Mrs. Ida Larson's suit against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company was dismissed yesterday in Judge Ritchie's court at the request of the plaintiff. It was brought to recover $1,000 damages for personal injuries sustained by being struck by a freight train at Minidoka, Id., in July, 1908.

SUES TO COLLECT POLICY.
Mrs. Addie B. Loftis, administratrix of the estate of Thomas J. Loftis, brought suit yesterday in the Third district court against the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company to recover $2,000 on a life insurance policy. Her husband, who carried the policy was killed in an accident in Helper, Utah, on Oct. 11, 1908. She has presented her claim but the insurance company refused to pay the policy.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.
James McGovern, formerly a pugilist, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of burglary in the third degree and upon the recommendation of District Attorney Fred C. Leach was sentenced to serve one year in the state prison. He entered the Farmers' hall at Murray on March 22, 1908, which is used by the Murray police department as a gymnasium, and stole a set of boxing gloves and some shoes. When he attempted to sell the goods the next day in Salt Lake he was arrested and confessed the crime.

Allen Parr, charged with forging the name of William Mark on checks amounting to $20, was arraigned in Judge Lewis' court and entered a plea of not guilty. His trial was fixed for May 6, 1909. Parr, who is also an actor and at one time connected with William Mark's company, is represented by J. W. Booth, who was appointed his attorney by the court.

Charles Reading and Albert Brown were arraigned for entering the Dahl Bros. slaughter house at Brigham Junction on Feb. 22, 1909, and stealing a side of pork, a sheep and some short ribs. They entered pleas of not guilty and their case will be set at a later date.

Lionel Flowers, charged with a statutory offense, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. He is accused by Miss Martha Peterson of Salt Lake of the crime which, it is alleged, was committed on May 1, 1908.

STIPULATION IN DISMISSAL.
By stipulation the case of Posing and Clark against the Oregon Short Line and the Union Pacific railroad companies, which has been on trial for three days in Judge Ritchie's court, was dismissed on motion of the plaintiffs. A settlement was effected out of court for a consideration of $1,000. The suit was brought to recover $1,000 damages to a shipment of sheep.

CHARGES NON-SUPPORT.
Max Ethel Lay brought suit for divorce today in the Third district court against Philip R. Lay on the grounds of non-support. They were married in Sevier City on May 3, 1905, and have one child, Helen, 3 years old. Since April 3, 1907, it is alleged in the complaint that Lay has failed to provide in any way for his wife and child and that she has had to depend upon the charity of friends for a living. She asks for the custody of the child and suitable alimony.

WIFE CHARGES ABUSE.
Because her husband, Hyman H. Webb, attempted to burn their house down at Garfield while she and her children were asleep, Mrs. Minnie Webb seeks a divorce on the grounds of cruelty in a complaint filed today in the Third district court. Webb was interrupted in his bid of "Fire Bug" by neighbors and Mrs. Webb took refuge in a nearby house. Since that time she has lived apart from him on account of threats to kill her. It is alleged that Webb is a stammerer.

Before this Webb, it is stated, testified in a cruel and inhuman manner. In August, 1908, Webb grabbed her by the arm and threatened to do her so much harm that she was unable to do her work and had to be assisted in dressing. On this occasion she was compelled to call Deputy Sheriff Walter Reed to the house to protect her.

She asks for the custody of her five children, their home at Garfield, household goods, valued at $250, and $50 a month alimony to support herself and family. They were married in Parowan on Aug. 25, 1905.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL.
The supreme court has handed down an opinion in the case of Henry Griffiths, appellant, against the justice court of Logan city, and H. A. Peterson, the magistrate. The case is returned to the district court with instructions to dismiss the action. The appeal was taken by the defendant in the case to the district court on the ground that the trial in the justice court came off without notice to the defendant as to the hearing and that the judgment was taken in his absence. The action of the justice was affirmed by the district court but the supreme court holds that the justice exceeded his authority in the matter.

JURY COULDN'T AGREE.
The jury in the case of William H. Dixon of Murray, charged by Miss Alice Davis with a statutory offense, was discharged last night by Judge Ritchie because it was unable to reach a verdict. The jury was out about 48 hours. The case will not be tried again in all probability.

JUDGE MARSHALL REVERSED.
United States District Attorney H. E. Booth received a telegram last night from Denver, telling of the reversal of the decision of Judge Marshall of the United States District court in the case of the United States vs. The Southern Pacific Railroad company. The suit was brought by Mr. Booth, who charged that the railway company should have such defects remedied at the places where they were discovered, while Judge Marshall instructed the jury that the cars could be moved by the company to the repair shops without being liable.

The decision was reversed showing the intention of the government to insist on a strict observance of the laws instituted with the view of protecting railroad employees and the general public.
