THE EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - - September 18, 1869.

THEATRE.—"Used up" and "Don Cæsar De Bazan" were well performed last night. Mr. Warner's "Sir Charles Coldstream" and "Don Cæsar" were played excellently, and evinced that he is perfectly at home in comedy. He, however, labored under a disadvantage last evening, appearing in two characters, played here on several occasions formerly, in a most faultless style. Mr. Warner played both characters splendidly, but in nothing do we think he went beyond what the people have seen before, and in a very few points in Don Cæsar he was scarcely equal to it.

The remainder of the characters were well sustained, and both pieces seemed to give great satisfaction to the audience.

To-night, Massinger's fine old play, "A New Way to Pay Old Debts," will be performed, Mr. Warner appearing as "Sir Giles Overreach." Miss Lockhart will personate "Margaret Overreach;" other characters by Mrs. De Bar and the principal members of the company.

In this role Mr. Warner has achieved a reputation, perhaps superior to any living actor; his delineation of the master-passion of the miser is said to be grand, and an entertainment of the first-order may be looked for to-night.

A SERIOUS AFFRAY.—Last evening a little before nine o'clock Richard Connery at present a resident of the 11th Ward, but formerly of Camp Douglas, returned to his home in a slightly intoxicated condition, bringing with him an old chum he had picked up while round town. Words ensued between Connery and his wife, on her refusing to get him and his friend supper and he struck her. Mrs. C's mother, living close by, came in on hearing of the trouble, and was treated in a like generous manner. Bro. Thomas Hewlett, the girl's father, next appeared upon the scene, and high words succeeded by blows passed between him and his son-in-law, Connery striking the first blow. Connery then went to the back part of the house, and returned with a heavy piece of wagon tire, with which he struck Hewlett on the head, inflicting a very severe scalp wound about four inches long, which bled profusely, but as far as we have learned is not considered dangerous. Connery then decamped and hid himself, and though his place of concealment was discovered by the police he managed to get away before they could reach him and has not been heard of since.

"ANONYMOUS."—We have received a communication from "Anonymous," which, being anonymous, we shall not publish, but give the gist of it for the benefit of "all whom it may concern." If, for it is the handwriting of a man, protests rather savagely against certain acts, he calls them abuses, indulged in constantly, by parties while attending the Theatre. He says they detract from his pleasure, and he believes from the pleasure of many others. He is particularly sore in reference to the habit of pronouncing a running and audible criticism, upon the performance as it progresses. Creaky boots and the habit of going in and out of the Theatre during the acts also trouble our correspondent; and certain other little irregularities indulged in by some "noisy young folks" and some of the supernumeraries.

Whether or not, our correspondent is a grumbler, or has real cause of complaint, we cannot say; but if the latter, it is easy to remedy everything complained of, and especially the tendency to criticise publicly. The great public attend the Theatre for the sake of seeing the very excellent entertainments there provided and not to hear criticisms upon them. It may be pleasing, to some, while witnessing a performance, to pronounce a criticism upon it, but it evinces very bad taste to let it be sufficiently audible to attract the attention of those sitting around. Such a course is inexcusable, and a moderate sense of decorum will suggest the propriety of discontinuing this and every other breach of social etiquette in a popular place of resort like the Salt Lake City Theatre.

HORSE THIEVES CAUGHT.—Yesterday a dispatch was received from Brigham City, addressed to the police authorities here to arrest Philip McAnany and Nat Hudson on a charge of stealing mules. The officers succeeded in doing as they were requested, and this morning the prisoners were handed over to Deputy Sheriff Cranny, of Cache Co., to be taken there for trial. It appears that McAnany and Hudson are members of an organized band of horse and mule thieves, who have been camped near Bear River for some time past, carrying on their depredations in the neighborhood and then driving the stolen animals to Cache Valley and other parts for sale. It is to be hoped the whole gang may yet be caught and get their deserts.

IN TOWN.—Hon. William A. Wheeler, M. C., from the 17th district of N. Y., and chairman of the Railroad Committee, accompanied by his wife, arrived in this city last evening.

CHOIR PARTY.—On Thursday evening the members of the Seventh Ward Choir and their friends had a very pleasant reunion at the Ward schoolhouse. The time passed merrily in the song and dance until the passage of the fleeting hours warned them it was time to disperse.

RAIN.—There is but little necessity of informing our city patrons, that there has been a great change in the weather the last few hours, and the dry spell of the last few weeks has given place to a soaking rain and chilly air. We believe, however, that the change will tend to improve the health of the community.

CALLED.—We had a very brief but pleasant visit to-day from John M. Foster, Esq. Editor of the Daily Indiana Journal, who is making a very short in Salt Lake City, en-route to the Pacific Coast.

ALL NOTIFIED.—It will be gratifying to those who are expecting their friends from the old country, through the agency of their friends and the Church here, to learn that President Albert Carrington has telegrephed to President Young that all the Saints "ordered out" by him have been notified to sail. They are no doubt now on their way Zionward, and before long we expect to hear of their arrival at New York.

WHAT'S SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE IS SAUCE FOR THE GANDER.—The San Francisco Chronicle says:

"The editorial blockhead of the Times is very severe upon Anna Dickinson for undertaking to judge the women of California after a few weeks residence in the State. But the editorial blockhead undertook to pass judgment upon Mormonism and the Mormons after a residence of eighteen hours."

We should like to know how much longer the truth-loving (?) correspondent of the Chronicle resided in Salt Lake City; yet he has tried to gull the California public into believing that he thoroughly understood the "Mormon" people and obtained a deep insight into all that pertains to them.

Amongst the New York houses, doing a large business with the Utah merchants, that of A. Christian, of Maiden Lane, stands pre-eminent in its line and specialities. Mr. Christian is doing a continually increasing trade with our Territory, as the excellence of the articles of his manufacture become better known. His perambulators can be seen by the dozen in any of our fashionable streets. He also manufactures Velocipedes, Carriages, Sleighs, Cabs, Propellers, Rocking Horses, etc., etc., as detailed in his advertisement, which appears in another column.

"A Remarkable Case" is recorded in Burnett's Floral-Hand Book, pages 20 and 21. Get the Book at Drug Stores.

The Combination renders Burnett's Florimel a fine Perfume.

Ladies bestow loud praises upon Burnett's Kalliston as a preparation which imparts a clear soft and beautiful hue to the skin, without being attended by any injurious effects.

For The Bath, Burnett's Cologne Water is unrivalled.

Whitcomb's Remedy for Asthma is a sure cure.

DOOLEY'S CHEMICAL YEAST BAKING POWDER has been pronounced the best ever offered to the public, and well deserves the reputation. It is perfectly harmless, and the ingredients entering into its composition so carefully combined that no trouble is experienced in producing good biscuits, rolls, pastry, etc., every time. It is only necessary to use half as much as those of ordinary manufacture, consequently it is cheaper. Will not spoil in any climate if kept dry. For sale by all grocers.

The original formula for the manufacture of the rare vegetable specific—Red Jacket Bitters—is rigidly adhered to. Its quality and proportions never vary—consequently its operation is uniform. Moreover, it does not deteriorate in any climate.

STATEMENT BLANKS for sale at this Office. See our advertisement in another column.

SAME GUAGE AS THE UNION PACIFIC, over which these cars will run on completion of that road.
THE BLUE LINE CARS
Are ALL OF UNIFORM BUILD, thus largely lessening the chances of delay from the use of cars of a mixed construction, and the consequent difficulty of repairs while remote from their own roads.
The Blue Line is operated by the Railroad Companies who own it, without the intervention of intermediate parties between the Roads or Line and the public.
The facilities of the Line for making uniformly quick time are unequalled.
All claims promptly settled on their merits.
