Consumption Can be Cured.
 Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,
 Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic,
 Schenck's Mankake Pills,
 Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Frequently medicines that will stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient; they look up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and in fact they clog the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of consumption. Many persons complain of a dull pain in the breast, constipation, coated tongue, pain in the shoulder blade, feelings of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching up of wind.

These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take one of two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly checked, will find the stomach and liver clogged, remaining torpid and inactive, and almost before they are aware the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, the result of which is death.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expellant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the juices of the stomach, aids digestion, and creates a ravenous appetite.

When the bowels are costive, skin eruptions, or the symptoms of scurvy, a few of Schenck's Mankake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared only by
 J. H. SCHENCK & SON,
 N. E. corner Sixth & Arch Sts.,
 Philadelphia.

And are for sale by all druggists and dealers.

 That Dr. Plant has done more for my wife's health than any other doctor, it is my duty to tell the suffering. I have paid much money to other doctors, but none could tell her the cause of her suffering, or how to be able to do her any good. Dr. Plant understood what was the matter with her, and has, at four different times, taken four large warm, about fifty feet long tape from her, wherefore I feel thankful to him. He has also been very reasonable in his charges.

MRS. CARR.
 Mrs. Mary Ann Walker, adjoining Sugar House Ward, began to return her most sincere thanks to Dr. R. L. Plant for the cure effected upon her of fits. She has had no more since, although she had been subject to them from childhood. She was also to thank you for the cure effected upon my daughter, now 10 years old. She is entirely well now. Again thanking you.

Theatre.—There was a very large audience at the Theatre on Saturday evening to witness the play of "The Two Orphans." It was well performed and maintained the interest of the audience from first to last.

To-night the justly celebrated drama of "Our Boys," obtained at great expense by Mr. Philip Margatta will be presented with a powerful cast. This is a play far superior to most modern productions. It ranks first class in the dramatic world. It has had a run of many hundred successive nights in large cities, and we hope to see a large audience this evening. Everybody who attends will be pleased with this fine play.

Mysterious Disappearance.—On Monday afternoon, October 1st, about 4 o'clock, Richard Penman, son of John Penman, of Bountiful, left his home and has not been seen by his friends since save on the following afternoon. He is in his 20th year, has dark-grey eyes, dark hair and is of medium height. At the time of his leaving he had on a blue denim jumper, brown jeans pants, brown duck overalls, a cheviot shirt and a pair of light brogans. Prior to his going away he had manifested symptoms of despondency, complained of having been indisposed and unable to work all summer and remarked that his crops were very poor this season.

Search has been made for him in the cañons and mountains during the past week, and, on Saturday last between thirty and forty of the settlers mounted and turned out, headed by D. O. Willey, Esq., J. P., and Constable Jaren Tolman. Fears are entertained for the safety of the missing man, as he had neither food nor money with him when he left. Should this meet the eye of any one knowing of his whereabouts, a line to his distressed parents would be gladly received.

Returned Missionary.—This morning we were pleased to receive a call from Elder Hamilton G. Park, who arrived near midnight on Saturday, in charge of a company of emigrants that reached the city at that time.

The company left Liverpool at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 19th. They sailed on the Wisconsin, and there were 459 souls in all, including English, Scotch, Welsh, Danes, Norwegians and Swedes. The voyage was a most pleasant and prosperous one. The Captain and officers of the vessel were most courteous and kind, which added greatly to the agreeableness of the trip. The general health of the people was good. One death occurred on the ocean, and two on the overland portion of the journey, all children, two of whom were quite sickly before they left Liverpool.

The remains of the two who died on land were brought to the city in ice, for burial. The land portion of the journey was as prosperous as that over the sea, the railroad officials being as attentive as the officers of the Wisconsin.

This is the third company of emigrating Saints which Elder Park has had charge of from the "Old World" to the "New," the first one in 1850, when he came first to America himself, and the second in 1871, when he returned from a mission to Scotland.

He left this city to go on the mission from which he has just returned Oct. 26th, 1875, and has consequently been absent about two years.

Elders Sandberg and Brown, returning missionaries, assistants to Elder Park, in charge of the company, rendered him most efficient aid on the way, as indeed did all the Elders who were returning.

Elder Park labored in Scotland, as President of the Glasgow Conference, which comprises the whole of that country. Notwithstanding the general indifference of the people of that part of the world to matters religious, he baptised upwards of fifty persons, besides others that have been added to the Church through the labors of other Elders. He returns home in excellent health and spirits.

District Court.—Monday, Oct. 8th.
 The People, vs. Jesse Spangler, J. M. Watson and William Kelly; these being no indictment or report from the grand jury, defendants were discharged.
 Helen Tarbet vs. Prigstall, B. M. Co.; motion of plaintiff for a perpetual injunction to be included in the judgment for $45,000; overruled; defendant excepts.
 Hattie McKnight vs. James McKnight; ten days additional given to answer.

The following cases were continuing: Harvey Rickard vs. C. C. Cunningham et al., F. Reich et al., C. C. Cunningham et al., R. C. Chambers vs. W. R. Carver; Monroe Kling et al. vs. F. P. Longstreet et al., W. Williamson vs. J. W. Snyder et al., Geo. W. Norton vs. J. W. Snyder et al., C. C. Cunningham vs. Fred. Reich et al., W. R. Carver vs. R. C. Chambers et al.

W. C. Smith vs. P. L. Breiger, answer withdrawn, judgment for amount claimed.
 D. W. Felsham, Esq., on motion of S. J. Jonason, Esq., was admitted to the bar.

M. Sullivan vs. Wells Fargo & Co., motion for a non suit granted.

St. Louis District.—Today we were much pleased to meet with Elder David M. Stuart, who reached his home in Ogden, on Monday, Oct. 1st, from his mission to the eastern States, having presided during his absence, over the St. Louis District, which comprises Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri. He was two years on this mission, having visited home once during that period. Himself and the brethren who labored in conjunction with him, baptized into the Church over one hundred persons, most of whom have come to Utah and united their interests with the Saints here.

During the latter part of the time he was absent he was afflicted with chills and fever. Some time previous to his release, Mrs. Dr. Pratt, of this city, visited him at St. Louis, and under her able medical treatment he rapidly recovered, his health being now tolerably good.

Elder Stuart is a missionary of extensive and long experience, having spent twenty years of his life actively in the field abroad, his last mission being his fifth to the States, although he is now but fifty-one years old.

Wisconsin.—We are requested by Elder J. H. Freeman, of this city, to invite persons living in the Territory who have relatives or friends in Wisconsin, to forward the addresses of the latter to him, before the 1st of November, at which time he purposes departing on his mission to the State named.

Home Missionaries.—The greater portion of the home missionaries for this State of Zion was set apart this morning. The remainder will be set apart on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10th, at 7 o'clock, at the Council House, when all who were called at the General Conference are requested to be present.

Looked In.—Elder N. P. Beebe of Provo, looked in to our office today. He had charge of the Arkansas company of Saints, who traveled, by means of teams and wagons, from that State to New Mexico.

Called.—This afternoon we received a pleasant call from Elder Orson Hyde. We learn from him that the potato crop of Sanpete is a failure. The excellent wheat yield, however, somewhat compensates for this loss.

Found Dead.—On Saturday Thomas Mathers, telegraph operator at Cove Fort, Millard County, was found dead about a mile and a half south of that place. Deceased was a native of England and aged about thirty-eight years.

The Merchants Encouraged.
 NEW YORK, 8.—The World has a long article, this morning, going to show that in almost every department of the wholesale trade of New York the business during September had been more satisfactory than for five years past. There is great encouragement among the merchants and unusual preparations are being made for controlling the business from regions which hitherto had only limited relations with New York. The competition is keen and profits consequently small. The only real exception to rule appears to be in hardware and straw goods. A striking feature of the revival is a lot of absence of speculation and the tendency seems to be to supply legitimate wants.

 The Mexican Troops.
 SAN FRANCISCO, 8.—The Union has the following dispatch, dated Mexico, New Mexico, Oct. 6th: An armed mob of 400 Mexicans, from the Mexican side of the river, have possession of the county of El Paso, in Texas, fifty miles below that place. The mob threaten to massacre all the Americans. They have arrested and imprisoned the county officers. Several prominent citizens have fled from the country. A small detachment of the Ninth United States Cavalry started for the scene of trouble, to-day, to protect the United States Customs House and government property. The Mexicans claim that El Paso county belongs to Mexico.

Correspondence.
 In Memory of Elder John Hubbard.
 WILLARD CITY, Oct. 3d, 1877.

Editors' Dearest News:
 By publishing the following, you will oblige the relatives of the deceased.

The relatives and friends of Elder John Hubbard were so desolate a few days since, on the arrival of the news that he had died suddenly while on a mission to the Indian Territory.

Deceased was the son of Charles W. and Mary Ann Hubbard, and was born at Nauvoo, Hancock Co., Ill., Oct. 22nd, 1843. He came to Utah with his parents in the Fall of 1848; was baptized when about eight years old; ordained an Elder when quite young; and in the Spring of 1865 ordained a member of the 55th Quorum of Seventies. He started on a mission to England the same year, and labored in that country faithfully and zealously for upwards of two years. In the Fall of 1867 he returned to the mountain home, and after spending a short time with his father on the Muddy, in Nevada, he returned to Willard.

In the fall of 1868 he married Rosabel, daughter of William and Diana Shaw, of Ogden. He continued to reside at Willard until the fall of 1875, when he was called to assist Brother George W. Hill in laboring in the Indian Territory of the Lamanites of Northern Utah. From thence he was called on a mission to the Indian Territory. He started in company with Brother M. W. Dalton, for that place April 1st, 1877, and on arriving there commenced laboring with his wonted zeal. He was subsequently attacked with chills and fever, and he labored on for more or less about seven weeks. The account of his death as forwarded is as follows:

He was watering the team with which they traveled, and while doing so, remarked to Brother Dalton that he felt very sick; at this moment the horses ran away and the brethren started after them. Brother Hubbard ran a few rods and fell; he was instantly administered to by Elders Dalton and Nayarre, but expired in a few minutes. The distance he was from home prevented the conveyance of his remains thither, hence they were interred in his field of labor.

He has left a wife and five children, his parents, several brothers and sisters, and a host of friends, who, although they mourn his absence, and regret his apparently untimely departure, look forward to the time when, if faithful, they will again enjoy his society where pain and death are no more, realizing that his labors are continued behind the veil, and that when God he served he will receive that welcome plaudit: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Yours in the gospel of peace,
 JAMES J. CHANDLER.
