OGDEN NEWS. OGDEN, UTAH, - Dec. 26, 1901. CHRISTMAS FELICITATIONS

Sudden Demise of George J. Linford-Succumbs to Neuralgia of the Heart.

Alleged Burglar Caught - Christmas Weddings-John Newman Arrested for Malicious Mischief.

Christmas was quietly celebrated in Ogden principally as a home day for family gatherings, with grand festivities. Services appropriate to the occasion were held in some of the churches in the morning. The evening was occupled in theater going, dancing and private parties.

The prisoners in the city and county jails feasted in grand style. Jailor Critchlow served chicken, mince pie, cranberry pie, cake, potatoes and other vegetables, and Deputy Sheriff Cave served a similar menu to the prisoners of the county jail.

On Christmas eve Hon. James Wotherspoon and Verna Allen, two of the popular employes of John Scowcroft & Sons company, on behalf of the employes, called at the beautiful residence and presented to Hon, John Scowcroft and wife a magnificent "Candelabra." The beautiful present is of ine cut glass. A card with the follow-ing was attached;

"Mr. and Mrs. John Scowcrof.-Please accept this candelabra as a small token of love and respect. in which you are held by the employes of the firm, assuring you that we deep-ly regret the present stokness of Mr. Scowcroft, but sincerely hope for his speedy recovery. With compliments of the season and kind regards to all, we remain,

The employes of John Scowcroft & Sons company. "Christmas, 1901."

The many triends of Mr. Scowcroft will be pleased to learn that he is greatly improved in health, but is still quite weak. All of the employes of the firm were presented with gifts by their employers, nd in the giving out of so many gifts the newspaper representatives were not forgotten, as the representatives of the Standard, Herald, Tribune and "News" were each remembered with a box of cigars or candy, with the best wishes of John Scowcroft & Sons company.

Major M. S. Browning and Hon. John M. Browning, two of the members of the firm of Browning Bros., were last evening the recipients of elegant Christ-mas gifts presented by the employes of the well known firm. The tokens of love esteem were in the shape of fine allk umbrellas with solid ivory grip and silver mountings. The presentation speeches were made Miss Josie Zitzman and Miss Elterday on business. redge, the firm's bookkeepers, on beof the employes. Mayor Browning was called into the company's office, where the presenta-tion took place. John M. Browning is at present in the East on business, his token will be forwarded to him. retiring

PROVO. MEETING OF IRRIGATORS.

Water Problems Discussed - Stolen Silverware Recovered-Weddings.

Special Correspondence. Provo, Dec. 25 .- At the meeting held Tuesday afternoon by the Utah county farmers to elect members of the Utal. lake commission, the officers of the organization, L. N. Hinckley, president, and E. S. Hinckley, secretary, were reelected. The present members of the Utah lake commission from Utah county, Judge Milner and Bishop Argyle, were also re-elected. The report of the action of the watter in the lake for the past year showed that the highest elevation of the water that the highest elevation of the water was 13½ inches below compromise point. The lowest, according to official measurement was 33 inches below, No-vember 26 of this year. An unofficial measurement taken at another time, however, showed an elevation of inches below compromise point. Early in the season all the water, except 42 feet per second, was stored in the lake and used for irrigation purposes in Salt Lake county during the irrigating season. When the question of electing the committee to confer with the committee of Salt Lake City, in regard to agreeing upon a plan for reservoiring the Utah lake, as arranged for in the forenoon meeting with the Salt Lake

THURBER.

Sad Death of Young Man --- Illegal Sale of Intoxicants.

Special Correspondence, Thurber, Wayne Co., Dec. 20 .- Thurber is in a state of great excitement to day over the sudden death of John of John Keel, a son of W. A. Keel of this place. He was about seventeen years of age, and as fine a specimen of young man-hood as could be found in Utah. He had been out on the mountains herding sheep for nearly a year, and had just come home for the holidays, full of life and vigor and hope. His dication that your stomach is sudden death occurred at 8 p. m. yes terday and has cast a gloom over the entire community. It is reported that one of our local merchants is responsible for many cases of drunkenness among the young boys of this town. Under the name of hitters this man is reported to be selling strong alcoholic beverages, one or two mouthfuls of which will intoxicate any boy. Be that as it may it is a fact any boy. Be that as it may it is a fact that young boys are to be seen rolling drunk on our streets every day, until our townspeople begin to feel that something ought to be done to stop the practice. A certain merchant here has been accused of selling intoxicating

Honoring the Prophet-Ideal Winter Weather, With Snow and Rain.

Special Correspondence.

Oakley, Cassia County, Dec. 23 .--- Yesterday the Saints of the three wards of Oakley met in commemoration of the 96th anniversary of the birth of the Prophet Joseph Smith. Interesting addresses were made by Prest. William T. Jack, Elders John L. Smith, Wm. T. Harper, O. C. Ormsby, Thos. Dunn and Ether Durfee, the last two being the only two present that had been ac-quainted with the Prophet, each bore a faithful testimony to the divine calling of the great latter-day Prophet. The former speakers dwelt upon the life and labors of the Prophet and the effect the Gospel was having upon the Christian world, that there were few of the preachers of today but what were teaching some of the principles of Gospel, calling it advanced retards the circulation, weakens the stomach, deranges digestion, pollutes the blood, destroys the nervous force and saps the vitality of the whole system. It causes pains in the side, palpitation, shortness of breath, smothering, dropsical swellings, sinking spells, and frequently ends all suffering in sudden death. Why tempt death when a cure is within easy reach?

"My head would get so hot it seemed to be burning up, while my feet were like ice. My limbs would swell and get numb. I had to sit in a chair day and night for months and my heart throbbed and pained me terribly. After using three bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I could do a
