The Turks Sink a Greek Steamer and Greeks Bombard a Port.

SEVERE FIGHTING IN MACEDONIA.

Fifty Thousand Men Engaged but Only Two Hundred Killed—Greeks Capture Most.

ATHENS, April 18, 11 a. m.—(Copyrighted, 1897, by the Associated Press.) —The Turkish battleship at Preveza, on the northern shore of the entrance to the Gulf of Arta, where, according to the treaty of Berlin, the Turks and no right to erect fortifications, fired on and sank a Greek steamer, the Macedonia, this morning, while she was attempting to enter the Gulf of Ambracia.

The crew of the steamer was saved by boats from the shore, but the captain of the Macedonia was severely wounded.

Upon receipt of this news the Greek government sent orders to the Greek fleet in the Gulf of Ambracia to bombard Preveza. Consequently the bombardment of Preveza commenced at 5 o'clock this morning and continues as the dispatch is sent.

Preveza, which is in Epirus, and eighteen miles from Arta, is strongly fortified.

The Turkish minister here, Avni Bay, has asked for his passport; they have been handed him and he has left Athens for Constantinople. The Greek minister at Athens, Baron Vassiliou, has undertaken to protect Turkish interests in Greece during the severest of diplomatic relations between the two countries.

The Greek minister at Constantinople, Nikolaos Mavrocordato, has been called.

Throughout the day there were severe shots. The streets were crowded with people eagerly discussing the outbreak of war as the probable cause.

THE PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

According to the general understanding here, the Turkish plan of campaign is a concentration of the Turkish army in the important Greek town of Thessalonica, with a view of forcing the mountain passes leading toward Larissa. One report, which is generally credited, is that the Greek army, at the head of 12,000 men, has been sent to Larissa. Another report states that the Greek army is in the vicinity of Thessalonica, and that the substance of the plan being that the Turkish army is expected to meet it at Thessalonica. The Greek army has already moved.

The Greek commander at Athens, approach Preveza, telegraphs that the Greek steamer Macedonia, which was sunk this morning by the Turkish battleship while leaving the Gulf of Ambracia, did not sink in deep water, but was able to run ashore near the entrance of the Gulf.

It is reported that the bombardment of Preveza only began at 11:30 a. m., whereas the Turkish forces there opened a hot fire upon Athens at 5:30 a. m. A column was formed at telegraph station, but the building was converted into a fort and was garrisoned by 500 men. The Turkish fire completely destroyed it, several of the garrison being killed and wounded, although the Turkish aim was often wild.

The Greek commander requested instructions by telegraph, and the minister of war ordered him to bombard Preveza immediately. At 10 o'clock a. m. the Macedonia fired a few shots at a Greek gunboat, which replied, effecting a truce. The Turkish battleship, at 11 o'clock the Greeks began to attack the Turkish fortifications on the entrance of the Gulf, partly by direct fire and partly by shelling in order to prevent the movement of the Greeks at Preveza. The Greek battleship Macedonia was ordered to bombard Preveza, and the gun-boats continued to bombard from inside the Gulf.

According to the latest telegrams from Athens, 20:30 hours, the Greek fleet in the Gulf of Ambracia has been ordered to bombard Preveza immediately. The Greek fleet in the
