

FLOOD OF CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

May Result from Attack on Exclusion Law in Absence of Any Treaty.

NEGOTIATIONS AT A STANDSTILL.

Representatives of Two Countries Cannot Find a Common Ground of Agreement.

Washington, April 26.—Negotiations between the United States and China for a treaty restricting the immigration of Chinese to this country practically have been abandoned. It has been found impossible by the representatives of the two governments to reach a common ground of agreement as to many of the terms of the proposed treaty.

The whole subject, therefore, is being held in abeyance until W. W. Rockhill, the recently appointed minister of the United States to China, shall arrive in Peking. It is expected that he will have up the matter directly with the Chinese government in an effort to reach such an adjustment of the tangled threads of the question, ascertaining very precisely, among other things, the American point of view. He maintained consistently the justice of the restrictions thrown by this government around the immigration of Chinese, but was unable to accomplish anything in the way of lowering the barriers during his sojourn here.

China has now in a position to make it difficult, if not absolutely impossible, to negotiate a treaty unless the convention shall have incorporated in it certain provisions for which the Chinese government contends. China is anxious to obtain in the proposed treaty liberal definitions of the terms "merchants," "travellers," and "students," in order to relieve such classes from embarrassment on their arrival in the United States.

These classes now are admitted to the country, but the restrictions thrown around their entrance are severe. The immigration authorities urge the necessity for such restrictions because of the issuance by Chinese officials, in many instances, of fraudulent certificates indicating that coolies are "students" or "merchants," and as such entitled to admission.

These certificates have to be passed upon by United States consuls in China, but they necessarily have to take the word of the Chinese officials for the applicant's social status, as they have neither the time nor the appropriation to make a personal investigation of each case. Sir Chen Tung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister, has been informed frankly that much of the trouble experienced by merchants and students arises from the action of the Chinese officials in issuing such certificates that require investigation here.

When a tentative draft of the proposed treaty was prepared some time ago it was laid before the immigration officials of the department of commerce and labor. Some parts of it did not meet with their approval. The suggestions they made did not suit Sir Chen Tung Liang Cheng, who declined to agree to some of the propositions made by them. That brought the negotiations practically to an end, and the probability they will remain until Minister Rockhill shall reopen them in China.

An intimation is given in official circles that the law, as it stands at present, may be open to attack. If the attack upon it should be made by some of the numerous organizations in this country interested in Chinese immigration and America's Commerce court of the United States, the result in the absence of a treaty on the subject, probably would be a flood of Chinese immigration to the United States.

EMIGRANTS FOR CANADA.

Gathered by Salvation Army Agencies in England.

Liverpool, April 26.—English emigrants to the number of 1,045 sailed for Canada this evening on board the Dominion line steamer Vancouver, with the Salvation Army flag at the masthead. The emigrants were gathered by Salvation Army agencies, and the majority are workmen. All are paying their own passage, and many are supplied with sufficient capital to make a start in the new world.

Prior to the sailing the lord mayor of Liverpool, Rider Haggard, who has just arrived from America, congratulated Booth-Tucker and Mrs. Brunwell Booth addressed the emigrants from the bridge. The lord mayor regretted that England was sending her best brawn and muscle to work in a new country and at the same time opening the doors for less desirable emigrants. Mr. Haggard, who said that America and Canada were countries of great assets, paid a high tribute to Theodore Roosevelt, "the noble-hearted, the single-minded president of the republic. He said success awaited all who were prepared to work."

DOMINICAN FRIARS' LAND QUESTION NOT SETTLED.

Washington, April 26.—Secy. Taft has received from Gov. Wright an answer to his invitation for an expression of views as to the agreement tentatively reached between the secretary and Senor Gutierrez, governing the transfer of title to the Dominican friars' lands to the Philippine government.

Gov. Wright submitted the proposition to the Philippine commission, and that body has suggested individual reasons why it should not be concluded in present form. They point out that the proposition to arbitrate the title to the three haciendas before Chief Justice Arellano and Asst. Justice Willard is objectionable because these officers would be debarred from sitting in the supreme court should the case come before it.

It is also urged that as to the remaining five haciendas the proposed arrangement makes no provision for settling the squatters who have been living on the land since 1896. Altogether the commission feels that as there is no haste in settling this matter it would be better for the secretary to secure several essential modifications of the agreement which he has concluded to attempt by further conference with Gutierrez.

MAXIM CORKY ON CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA

London, April 26.—Rev. Edward Wilkinson, Episcopal bishop for Europe, in an article in the Guardian, describes an interview he had with Maxim Corky at Bilderlingshof during the course of an episcopal tour of Russia. The novelist was suffering from a cold, caught, he explained, while a prisoner at St. Petersburg in a damp cell and because of an insufficiency of clothing. In other respects, Corky said, owing to the kindness of the soldiers on guard and the jailers, he had not suffered greatly.

In conversing on the subject of religion Corky declared he had never written nor would he write anything against religion. On the contrary, he earnestly desired to see his people taught the true world religion. But he had devoted years to traveling about in Russia, studying into religious conditions, the result convincing him that the monks and the clergy generally were ignorant and unable to teach the religion they professed, and that superstition and formalism pervaded their so-called religion, about which there was no reality.

"They taught that there were sixty or seventy Virgin Marys," he said, "as dogmatic teaching, that did not exist." Corky condemned the war, which he said he had seen the peasants and soldiers of Russia. Generally it was unpopular and hated throughout Russia. The Russians neither wished it nor understood why it was waged; soldiers went to it with the utmost reluctance; it was waged for the benefit of the bureaucracy, not for Russia.

Detailing the events of "Vladimir's Sunday," Corky said he had little doubt that his trial would again result in his being imprisoned.

Reno, Nev., April 26.—The east-bound passenger on the Southern Pacific railway, en route from Los Angeles, Nevada, this morning at an early hour, ran into a gang of Japanese numbering about 50. The train literally ploughed its way through the men, killing two and injuring several.

The accident was unavoidable, the train suddenly rounding a curve and striking the laborers before the engineer had an opportunity to slow his train.

SPRING TROUBLES

Winter's Confinement, Lack of Exercise.

Even Aldermen Don't Escape.

"If you live a confined life, get no outdoor work or exercise, experience symptoms of general weakness, forgetfulness, lassitude, irritability, loss of appetite, or pain in the small of the back, there is no question about it, you are suffering from spring fever and inflammation of the mucous membrane."

Alderman Peter A. Wondolung of the Chicago City Council has just written this letter on the subject:

"Last spring, after I had completed my canvass for election to the City Council, I felt worn out and out of sorts. I could not determine any particular cause of my ailment. I was able to attend to my duties, but any great effort distressed me and I lost considerably in weight. As I had enjoyed unusually good health I was not greatly alarmed and felt that my trouble would soon wear itself out."

"Finally I consulted a physician and his diagnosis was that I was suffering from incipient intestinal catarrh. He advised me to take a course of treatment at one of the celebrated medicinal springs. I was inclined to take his advice, but found it difficult to get away from my public and private business. While I was hesitating what to do, one of my political friends advised me to try Mucun-Tone. He told me that it had cured his wife and he said, 'Alderman, it will cure you. Well he was right. I think I took four or five bottles during the course of a month, with the result that I was entirely free from pain and had recovered my normal energy and buoyancy. I got back my old weight, and when the transfer of title to the Dominican friars' lands I told them it was all due to Mucun-Tone.'

"His experience is no different from that of many others," continued Mr. Wondolung. "Mucun-Tone cures 'Spring Fever' by working through the blood, thus reaching the affected membranes wherever they are located. It drives out the poison and allays the inflammation, for as it is a powerful nutritive tonic, it revitalizes the blood, soothes the strained vessels, builds up the body, and relieves you entirely of that tired, worn-out feeling which comes with the change of seasons."

"Any customer of ours who purchases a fifty cent bottle of Mucun-Tone, gives it a fair trial, and doesn't find that it will do all we claim for it can have his money back by returning to us the empty bottle." Spith Drug Co., also Druehl & Franken.

Jury, which will meet in San Antonio next week. It is understood the cases will be set for trial in the latter part of the month in this city instead of Denver, as at first announced.

MRS. BLANCHE SHAW.

Important Witness in Fraudulent Registration Case Disappears.

Pueblo, Colo., April 27.—Mrs. Blanche Shaw, the principal witness against former City Detective E. H. Wilson, who is on trial for alleged fraudulent registration, has mysteriously disappeared. Wilson is charged with the kidnapping of a woman, and it is believed the woman has been kidnapped by persons who do not want the election cases prosecuted. As a result of the disappearance of the chief witness, the case against Wilson has been vacated and will not be reset until the woman can be found. N. S. Walpole, the newly appointed postmaster in Pueblo, is a defendant in several indictments in which Wilson also figures. It is known that the woman was offered $500 and a ticket to Mexico to leave the city Tuesday. According to her statement to the district attorney she refused the offer, but she disappeared that night while the police were watching her. Every effort is being made to apprehend the woman.

This gain is attributed to a number of additions to the list and also to increases.
