EASTERN DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, 26.—The coroner's jury, in the case of Joseph Barnett, who was killed by a guard while in the custody of the New York police, rendered a verdict, to-day, against Timothy and Garrett Lander, as accessories.

There was an explosion of the Wallabout, Brooklyn, this noon. The whole of the works were speedily enveloped in flames, and, at a late hour in the afternoon, were still burning.

Forrester, who sued out a writ of habeas corpus, which was to have been argued to-morrow, has directed his counsel to enter a plea of guilty, and to ask for a full pardon.

NEW YORK, 27.—O'Connor, in reply to a letter of Thomas B. Carroll, mayor of New York, in regard to the acceptance of the Louisville Convention, says, "I am only one among forty millions."

At 10 o'clock to-night, Michael Garling, on the heights of Jersey City, threatened his wife by stabbing her. He then cut his own throat, dying instantly.

PHILADELPHIA, 26.—Grant and Porter arrived at noon and were waited upon by large numbers of friends and politicians, among whom were Simon Cameron, Gen. O'Rourke, late of the rebel army, and H. B. Swanton.

NEW YORK.—The United States of America mechanics are holding a brilliant celebration here to-day. A conference was held here to-day by a large number of Democratic politicians with the Louisville Convention.

James Worrall, of Pennsylvania, presided, and J. H. Wilson, of Alabama, was chosen secretary. Worrall made a speech, favoring the support of Grant, and the Democratic cause, and a resolution was adopted, urging the Democrats to vote for Grant.

On the 15th of October the Directors of the Eastern Montana Agricultural Society will hold their First Annual Fair. The managers are making every effort to have an exhibition of produce, stock, etc., that shall be a credit to that region.

NEW ORLEANS, 26.—State auditor Graham is again incarcerated by order of the Eighth District Court, the Governor's pardon having been decided unconstitutional.

Second Lieut. Charles Jordan, of the 10th U. S. Infantry, recently sentenced to six months' imprisonment for embezzlement of government money, while acting quartermaster at Jackson, Miss., has been sent to the Dry Tortugas.

ment to negotiate a treaty with the Ute Indians express a belief that in a short time the Utes will accept the terms offered. The valuable mineral lands now within the reservation have been opened, and are in peaceful possession of the miners and farmers.

Several leading journals will publish to-morrow, a startling communication from a stockholder of the Pacific Mail, to the effect that, in the pending action that Co., in the supreme court of King's Co., there are proofs of a remarkable discrepancy between the figures as furnished by the company to the court on the 27th of May, 1872, and those furnished on the 14th of Sept., 1872.

FLORINGHAM, N. J., 26.—The State attorney Chamberlain, of New Jersey, says, in relation to the riot at Pattersonburg, that no notice was sent to the prosecuting attorney or sheriff to tell them of it. They went to the place on Monday afternoon, when the sheriff and constable arrested all the rioters.
