FRIDAY evening a nice little party assembled at the residence of Brother Arnold Schultze, in the First Ward, in honor of his son, Arnold H., who left next day on a mission to Europe. Bishop Warburton, counselors and others were present and a very pleasant time was had by all, and besides many good wishes, encouragement more substantial was given to the departing Elder.

GOVERNOR MURRAY, at the request of Professor Andre, French consul, has pardoned from the Penitentiary two men sentenced to a year's imprisonment, each, for grand larceny. Their names are John Bart and John McComb. They were mixed up in the McKnight-Bevis muddle over some property claimed by each, and at the advice of Attorney Smith, who had hired them to take charge of the property, sold some of it to get their pay. Hence their sentence. Judge Hunter, who sentenced them recommended their pardon.

LOCAL NEWS.

Z. B. B. S.—The regular monthly meeting of Zion's Benevolent Building Society will be held in the shoe factory on Wednesday evening, Oct. 13th. It is desirable that every member pay his monthly dues on or before that date. We are glad to learn that the Society is making good progress.

Blood Atonement.—The Twelfth Ward Assembly Room was crowded last evening on the occasion of the discourse by Elder C. W. Penrose on "Blood Atonement," and the interest of the audience was evinced by the engrossed attention of the listeners and the stillness that prevailed throughout. The delivery occupied an hour and a half.

Night School.—The Trustees of the Nineteenth School District desire to announce that a night school is about to be established in their district for the benefit of young men and women whose circumstances will not admit of their going to day school. The services of Joseph H. Dean have been secured as teacher. The school will meet one night per week beginning with Wednesday, Oct. 13th, at 7 p. m., in the Nineteenth District School room. Young people of other wards will be admitted. To meet incidental expense, namely, a tuition fee of fifty cents per night will be charged.

Year of Jubilee.—A number of friends of our highly esteemed fellow townsman, Mr. J. P. Penrose, assembled last Friday evening, by invitation to celebrate his fiftieth birthday. After the arrival of the guests a sumptuous supper was served, under the supervision of his daughter Miss Magie. The repeat over, an interesting programme was carried out by his own children, to the credit of all those engaged. Some of the children did not exceed the age of five years. The addresses, songs, dialogues, etc. all evinced appreciation and gratitude due a kind and indulgent father. A number of gifts were presented by the family and guests, expressive of the high regard entertained for him. May the rest of his days be indeed a jubilee, when he shall reap the harvest of many years of faithfulness, and his children rise up and call him blessed.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

JOHN YARDY, of Beaver, died last Friday morning.
 The Beaver Record has returned from a semi-weekly to a weekly issue. A great deal of freight is going on between Ogden and Bear Lake just now.
 A squab was raised in Bloomington, this season, by Mr. Joshua Tarr, weighing 50 pounds. How's that for Bear Lake trout?
 Some of Soda's citizens claim to have felt the shock of an earthquake last Monday night about ten o'clock. The Idaho Herald says it was nothing more than the citizens of Idaho giving Stanger the "graciously" shake.
 Yesterday afternoon, little Mary, three-year-old daughter of Mr. J. Barnes, section boss of the U. & N. Railway in Ogden, fell and broke both the bones of her left forearm. Dr. Condon set them in good shape.
 D. & R. G. train from the East due in Ogden at 10:30 a. m. is late almost every evening. The engines on the road are understood to be suffering from the bad water with which they are obliged to feed the boilers.
 A cow was removed from the D. & R. G. track, Friday morning, between Ogden and Salt Lake, in a very uncivilious way by the passenger train; the engine felt rather dizzy on arriving here while the cow is completely used up.
 The shrill voice of the yelping cur, the honest bark of the faithful watchdog, the snoring of the house at the crisp midnight air, occasionally well punctuated with lively caterwauls of some stray specimen of the feline feline boudoir.—Butte Miner.
 A band of thirteen gray wolves killed five tame lambs belonging to Mr. G. W. Cook, of Dog Creek, M. T., one day last week. The sheep, 24 in number, were grazing near the house at the time, and the remaining fourteen would undoubtedly have shared the same fate, had they not sought refuge by running into a corral.
 The Outlook in Virginia.—Elder Levi J. Taylor, of Harrisville, Weber County, arrived home last evening from a mission to the Southern States, whether he went October 2, 1882, and labored all the time in and out of the State. He reports the prospects better in that State at present than at any time during his mission, more than last six months than during the same period for years. He baptized eight persons and left several more at the point of embracing the gospel, and only awaiting the return of the Elders from Conference which was held in Harrison County on the 27th and 28th of September. Up to that time there were twelve Elders in Virginia, but at conference three of them were released.
 The spirit of opposition was manifested to the same extent as in other States, and the people were very kind and hospitable as a general rule. The press was tolerant and advised the people to hear what the "Mormons" had to say before passing judgment. The preachers were quite the reverse, but that is nothing strange or unusual, as no favor, and little if any fairness, is expected at their hands. Elder Taylor met with no ill treatment, except verbal abuse, which he paid no attention to, and much enjoyed his mission, having had good health all the time he was away. He considers Virginia a promising field for further evangelic effort.
 Rose Eyttinger.—Of this noted actress, who began a week's engagement at the Opera House this evening, presenting "Felicita" to begin with, an exchange has the following:
 "This lady has been intimately acquainted with the bulk of the most distinguished authors, musicians, illustrators, and other public men who have been famous during the last twenty years. With many of them she has been of the warmest character. She is a woman of great wit and brilliancy and vast acquaintance with the world and the people in it—such a woman, in short, as would make an impression in any society, and a reputation in the lifetime of any man. As an actress, she is one of the best of her time, and during her residence here she has been a gathering place for the lions of the world of intellect. You can imagine what a collection of correspondence, such a woman would make. I have a customer, a gentleman of wealth, whose hobby is the collection of autographs, who has offered $1000 for an autograph in her possession.
 "And she will not part with it?" asked the reporter.
 "The best answer to that question," said Mr. Van Orman, "is a quotation from her reply to a communication of mine upon the subject. 'My friends' letters, she wrote, 'are as sacred to me as I know mine are to them. The time may come when I have to send my jewels to the accommodating broker, but I can never believe my private papers into the market.'
 The Joscity Concert.—At the Theatre to-morrow night the Salt Lake public will have the rich treat offered them of listening to one of the greatest musical instrumentalists known to modern times. From a long list of press comments, from the leading papers of the country, we reproduce the following:
 When Joscity comes we will enjoy the very perfection of piano playing. Never before was a pianist here like Joscity; he is the first great player our public has a chance to hear.
 Joscity is undoubtedly the most popular pianist ever in this country, and his coming here will be the musical event of the season.
 When Rafael Joseffy appeared he achieved an instantaneous and marvellous success, keeping the audience spellbound up to the last moment.
 The celebrated pianist Rafael Joseffy may be expected to appear in our city this season. For execution, touch and beauty of execution this great artist has no peer.
 It is with genuine pleasure that we announce to our city that Rafael Joseffy, who is now considered the world's greatest pianist, Rubinstein and Ballo not excepted.
 Sunday Services.—The congregation at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon was addressed by Apostles Geo. Teasdale and Brigham Young. The former delivered a discourse on the organization of the primitive church, the authority of the Priesthood, the general apostasy, the ordinances of the church and the restoration of the gospel. He bore his own testimony to the truth, in conclusion.
 The second speaker dwelt upon the effect of preaching the gospel to the world, one of which was the gathering, and also spoke of the foreknowledge of God, foreordination, and our being sent to this earth on account of deity in a pre-existent state. He declared that the kingdom and dominion would yet be given to the Saints and there were people in the congregation who would live to see it. He deplored the class distinctions and other evils which had been spoken against by all the ancient prophets, and was very emphatic in relation to the necessity of properly training the young.
 Badly Dislocated.—Shortly before 7 o'clock last night, George W. Penrose, a little son of Elder D. W. Jones, rose, not with a painful accident in the dislocation of his left elbow. It occurred through a fall. Dr. Anderson was summoned and set the injured limb, and the little fellow is getting along all right.

HIS OWN ACCOUNT.

ELDER BIESINGER RELATES THE STORY OF HIS CAPTIVITY.
 Our readers will remember some time ago several items appearing in this paper relating to the arrest and imprisonment of Elder Biesinger, of Prague, Bohemia, in the Swiss and German mission. We have been permitted lately to procure a letter from Brother Biesinger, giving an account of his experience, which, for its intrinsic interest, as well as the fact that it is the first narration we have yet seen from his own pen, we deem worthy of being placed before our readers. He writes from Bern, Switzerland, to Brother Charles Kropp: "I arrived in my field of labor in the city of Vienna, on the 25th of November, 1882, where I labored with Brother P. Hammer, up to February 26, 1884, on which date I left him and the few members of the Church who had been baptized while we were there, with the intention of opening a new field in the city of Prague, the capital of Bohemia. I arrived there, on the 25th of March, 1884, at 12:30 p. m. I was met by the blessing of the Lord I had the opportunity of bearing testimony to quite a few persons, but no sooner had I commenced my labors than the enemy of truth was at my heels."
 "Brother Hammer, on the 15th of March, had secured a house at Vienna, to appear before the Police Court on the day following, but instead of doing so he left Vienna and made his way straight to the city of Prague, where I was, and after staying with me three days, left for Schlesien. Through this the attention of the police was directed to me. Twelve days later, on the night of March 30th, I was awakened from sleep by the noise of two men stepping into my bed-room. Coming up to the bed they requested me to get up and go with them to the Police Station, as they were officers. As there were two of them, and each one considerably larger than myself I thought I had better obey. I therefore told them I would willingly go with them; because I could not help myself. After they had examined and searched my room all through, and got all my letters, books and pamphlets, they transported them and myself to the police headquarters."
 "Having arrived there, I was questioned for two or three hours, and then put in prison. It would be impossible for me to tell you on a small piece of paper all I experienced while in confinement. Suffice it that I stayed there for sixty-eight days in company with murderers, robbers and criminals of different kinds. This was not a very desirable place to be in, as I was not used to the customs of this class of people. Neither was I used to having a servant to open and close the door for me, and bring my food, with a guard standing by him with loaded gun and pointed bayonet. Nevertheless I have not seen the day, even under those trying circumstances, when I did not feel to lift my heart in supplication, and humbly pray, and thankfulness to Almighty God, for being thought worthy of acting as a messenger of the Gospel of Christ to a fallen nation. For it has given me an opportunity to bear my testimony to the courts of that country. In their decision of judgment, I was found guilty and sentenced to one month's imprisonment, after having been in prison already for thirty-seven days. I told them I accepted the situation, since they considered themselves able to measure arms with the Almighty; and receive a message He had sent for their salvation, but for that time the responsibility should rest upon them, and not on me."
 "On the 5th day of June I regained my liberty. I stayed two days in Prague and baptized one man, after which I went to Vienna to find out what our friends were doing there. To my disappointment I found those we had baptized about as good as dead, spiritually, and the others so scared that they did not want to know any more of the Gospel. The fate of those who 'live godly in Christ Jesus' is rather too much for the most of mankind. I have had other prospects since that time, but through opposition and lack of means was advised to come to Switzerland for the time being."
 My field of labor is now to preside over the Bern Conference, succeeding Brother Stock who was released to go home. I shall labor here till I get some means from somewhere, and the Lord will open a way for me again in Austria and Bohemia; when I shall return there. For I am sure that the world would stir up such a row unless there were some honest people there to embrace the Gospel."

A Vile Drug.—On Saturday evening little Gertrude Young, daughter of Mrs. Clara J. Young, of the Fifteenth Ward, as she was suffering slightly with sore throat, was given a dose of what was supposed to be slippery elm, to cool the parts affected, and so no sooner swallowed it, than she began to vomit violently, and for some moments the liveliest fears were entertained for her. An examination of the paper from which the dose was taken was then made, and it was found to be marked "Slippery elm," just as came from the drug-store. Mrs. Jones, grandmother of Gertrude, in order to satisfy herself, took some of the stuff, and administered it to her. The paper was now taken to Dr. Benedict and its contents subjected to repeated analysis, but no definite result was arrived at, we are informed, as to the true character of the vile drug. One thing certain was ascertained, it was not slippery elm, and the question is, who is to blame for administering the poison under that title.

VERY REMARKABLE RECOVERY.
 Mr. Geo. W. Williams of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two Bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. They are the most powerful and reliable of all medicinal agents, and their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

The floral decorations on the Sacramental stand in the Tabernacle, designed and constructed by George Gibbs for the funeral services of the murdered Elders W. S. Berry and John H. Gibbs appeared so pretty and unique that I photographed the same, and to perpetuate the memory of the above Elders, I thought that the portraits of these martyrs would be considered in their place, and in this floral emblem. Consequently I copied from the photograph and sent them to the printer. The portrait of W. S. Berry that I copied from was found in his pocket at the time of his death. That of J. H. Gibbs was photographed with Elder W. H. Jones, the missionary they accompanied. These photographs are now on sale at my gallery, corner of Third South Street and Main, or they can be mailed to any address at following prices, viz: 8 x 10, 50 cents; cabinet or stereoscopic, 25 cents; album size, 15 cents; round in postpaid. Agents wanted in every settlement. By forming clubs you can get them at a reduced rate.
