GRANT'S SPEECH.

Hoarse, Funny and Brief.

NEW YORK, 22.—At the dinner and reception given by the Lotus Club, to-night, to General Grant, after Whitelaw Reid, president, had concluded his speech, Gen. Grant was cheered for several seconds. He responded as follows:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Lotus Club.

I feel very much embarrassed in making response to the complimentary remarks of your president. I do not know what in the world I have got to say. (Laughter.) I do not want to say that they are not deserved, (laughter,) and I do not want to convince you that they are not. (Renewed laughter.) But if I stand here five minutes I shall prove to you that one of the remarks of your president is untrue, without any effort on my part, and that is when he charges me with being able to make a speech. (Laughter.) I have no doubt that all of you will be convinced of the fact that a misstatement has been made before I sit down. (Laughter.) Now, in regard to the future of myself, which has been alluded to here, I am entirely satisfied as I am to-day. (Great applause.) I am not one of those who cry out against republics and charge them with being ungrateful. (Applause.) I am sure that as regards the American people as a nation, and as individuals, I have every reason, if any person really has, to be satisfied with their treatment of me. (Loud applause). I hope to have many years yet of life. I believe I am in quite vigorous health, 48 years of age, and have been for the last ten years, (laughter), and if I can render my country any service in any way I should certainly be very happy to do so (laughter), but as I am of the age of 48 years, I say I am beyond the period of volunteering, and if I am ever wanted in any way I shall have to be pressed into service (laughter and applause), but not being obstinate at all (great laughter), I shall have to submit to those who have experience in getting me anywhere that will be entirely comfortable to myself. (Applause). Now, gentlemen, I thank this club, one and all, for the courtesies of the evening. I am sorry I am hoarse and have a bad cold and cannot talk longer, and thoroughly convince you that what your president said is not so. (A voice: "It could be worse," and loud applause). I wish to make one other remark. I have been sitting by the side of your president, and have heard messages coming to him from persons around the board, saying they wanted to speak. I have about 15 minutes of my own time and I will consent to give it to these volunteers. (Great applause and laughter).

Governor Cornell, Mayor Cooper and others made speeches. Colonel Richard Lathers, a noted democrat, proposed the health of President Hayes and Mayor Cooper, asking permission, before the company separated to speak again, said he believed in accepting the result frankly and honestly and therefore desired to propose the health of the president-elect, General Garfield.

Press Political Paragraphs.

The Tribune, regarding the promised development in the Morey letter case says: Investigation has shown that the forgery was not of Garfield's handwriting or signature, but that of Brown, his stenographer and amanuensis. The forger or forgers, had to get a letter from Garfield before they could do any work. It can be shown so. Counsel state that such letter was procured by Hadley, who wrote to Garfield a letter intended to draw out a personal reply from him, but the reply was written by Brown and signed by him.

It was not of the slightest consequence, being merely a reference of his correspondent to certain printed documents sent by the same mail. Yet it was carefully photographed and published in Truth about two weeks before the forged letter appeared. The forgery, it is now known, was based upon the same letter of Brown's to which he had attached the name of Garfield by authorization, and it is believed that that letter was the one sent to Hadley. The signature to the Hadley letter was an imitation of that of Garfield. It is the common practice among persons having a large correspondence to have imitations of their signatures made by their confidential clerks.

The Herald prints the address signed by officers of several democratic clubs here and in Richmond County, Staten Island, and by several merchants and bankers, declaring they will never again, by money, moral influence or votes, support the nominee of any State or national convention in which John Kelly is permitted to exercise his former pecuniary dictatorship. The document is addressed to Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

A Little Complicated.

The Tribune's Cincinnati special says: Gov. Williams' death causes a new senatorial complication in Indiana, which threatens to leave the State without a head and prevent the election of a Senator. The law requires that before either the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor can take their seats, the two houses must be organized. The Senate was a tie when Gray was Lieut.-Governor. He had the casting vote, as he had two years ago, but the death of Williams leaves a tie to be broken by a defection from one side or the other. The democrats have determined heretofore to organize the Senate, and will cling to their determination. If each side stands firm, the Senate cannot organize, and without it neither the Governor nor Lieut.-Governor can take their seats, and at the same time the constitution terminates the office of acting Governor on the second Monday of January. If the two sides of the Senate lock horns and remain in that attitude, the State can be kept indefinitely without a Governor. A United States Senator is to be elected to succeed Senator McDonald. If none is elected, it is claimed a United States Senator must be elected, and if the time goes by, the democracy say no legal election can be made by the present legislature, and the next one they hope to make democratic.

Ingersoll's Secularization.

The Herald says of Ingersoll's secularization scheme, organized last week in Chicago, to stop the reading of the Bible in prisons and schools, The proposition is conceived in the same spirit which emboldened the announcement of the "Passion Play" in New York, which is an insult to all religious bodies and an assault upon the civilization of the age. The Chicago assemblage, which concerted the scheme, and which secularize the body politic, ignore the fundamental principles of modern society and government, and their craze against Christianity will only consume themselves.

Threatening the Czar.

NEW YORK, 22.—The Herald's Paris special says: A large number of Nihilist placards have just appeared upon the walls of St. Petersburg, some of them in the most frequented parts of the city. They proclaim in flaming characters the beginning of a fresh revolutionary movement, beside which all former agitations will be considered puerile and insignificant. Ominous warning is given that the throne of Alexander will be vacant before the dawn of another year. Vigilant search has been made by the police authorities to discover the source of these placards and many houses, thought to contain secret printing establishments have been visited. Several arrests have taken place and more are expected. People live in constant fear of falling under the ban of suspicion and between the plots of the Nihlists and the descents of the police, are in a state of exaggerated terror. Thus far, however, the police seem to have been unable to discover the audacious leaders of the threatening conspiracy.

Canadian Emigration.

The World's London special says: Sir Alexander T. Galt is now hard at work to assist emigration from Ireland to Canada. A syndicate has been formed to carry out this object and preparations to develop emigration to Canada on a great scale are going on favorably. Galt will meet the colonial minister, Earl of Kimberly, to-morrow in conference on the subject. Baconsfield is stirring at last in politics. He will call a conference of conservatives at an early date at a new house which he has taken in town for the winter.

Metropolitan Paragraphs.

The World says: John W. Mackay and R. M. Daggett, of Virginia City, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Resener, of San Francisco, arrived at noon yesterday at the Grand Central depot in the special car of the superintendent of the Union Pacific railroad, and went to the Gilsey House, where they were met by John McCullough the actor, with whom Mackay spent the day. Mackay will sail for Europe on Wednesday to join his wife, who has been living in Paris for three years.

The ministers have carried the question of the Passion play into their pulpits. Rev. Halford preached upon the subject yesterday in Washington Square Methodist Church, and Rev. Crafts in Brooklyn, and Talmage announced that he should take it up next Sunday morning.

Senator Grover, of Oregon, is steadily improving in health at the Hygiene Home in Wilmington, Del., and expects to resume his seat in the Senate in December.

The republican leaders in this city are anxious for a proper representation of the party on the board of estimates and expenditure which determine the outlay of the city departments, and the suggestion has been made that Mayor Cooper should nominate Wm. Dowd for controller. If his confirmation by the aldermen could be obtained it is believed Tammany's control of the city government would be broken.

Interesting disclosures are made of Hadley's connection with the Morey forgery. It is now alleged that Wm. H. Barnum employed him to go to Maryland and to Lynn to procure the perjured testimony in support of the plot and that he brought witness Lindsey or O'Brien to this city.

Senator Blaine has given his opinions at length against the proposed plan of making ex-Presidents of the United States senators-at-large for life.

The Tribune's Washington special says: Two most important points in Secretary Sherman's forthcoming report are the recommendations in regard to funding of a large amount of bonds due the coming year and the financial work needed in order to maintain specie payment in gold on a firm and lasting basis. In regard to the first, it is understood the Secretary urges upon Congress the prompt passage of a law which will make it possible to begin preparations for this refunding at the earliest possible day. The expectation about the Treasury department is that the Secretary will argue in favor of a long bond bearing rate of interest not greater than 3.65, possibly as low as 3, payable in gold. The presentation of the question of the maintenance of specie payments will involve a discussion of the silver, and the effect which it bids fair to have on the volume and movement of the gold currency in the near future. Conservative silver legislation will be urged upon Congress. A very full and clear review of what has been accomplished in the work of paying the war debt, refunding bonds and resuming specie payments may be looked for. It is believed that this exhibit under the hand of the Secretary of the Treasury will go far toward preparing the way both at home and abroad for floating a 3 per cent. bond

Gould's Schemes.

CHICAGO, 22.—The Tribune's New York special says: A broker says the heavy rise in stocks results from the efforts of nearly every heavy operator. Gould is buying because he recognizes the fact that he will be able to get higher prices this week. He did not originally, however, anticipate any such rise as the present; being a bear, he will shortly squeeze the market by calling in his large outstanding loans. He, however, is a strong bull on the prosperity of the country. Few people appreciate the work going on in the southwest. He will very soon have a round hundred millions in bonds on roads he is extending and going to build in that region. He will secure connections with the Atlantic roads. When those who want six per cent. for their money have faith enough in the prosperity of the country, and in Gould, to trust it to him, he will go on and surprise the world by the extent of his schemes. This is where his time and money and energy are directed, and he is desirous of seeing low prices for stocks that money may be left free to flow into channels he has dug for it. I think to-morrow will show how real this bull movement is. If it really is nothing more than a manipulative movement, there will be a rush there is a sufficient number of outside orders, then we shall sustain rates, otherwise there will be a decline.

Indiana's Escape.

An Inter-Ocean's Indianapolis special says: Through the failure of the Marshal of the eighth district to properly make returns, the plurality of Gen. Garfield in the State is cut down to 3,771. The State law requires that on the third Monday of November the marshal, whom the governor appoints for each congressional district, shall make a return of the vote for that district to the canvassing board, who shall declare the result. No return was made to-day from the eighth district, but the result in the State was not affected thereby. It is probable that the marshal for that district, who is a thoroughly republican man, failed in some way to be notified by the governor of his appointment. The loose and worthless law will now probably be amended. It is a narrow escape for Indiana.

Big Suspension.

The Public Produce Exchange, the largest institution of the kind in Chicago, suspended shortly before 1 o'clock to-day, having been badly crippled by the recent heavy advance in grain, provisions, cotton and stocks; all of which rose so fast to-day that there was a regular jam of bull operators at the counters. This rise in all kinds of speculative articles has caught most of the bucket shops, and several have already suspended. The Metropolitan also failed this morning. D. A. Loring, president of the Chicago Produce Exchange, says the concern has paid out over a quarter of a million dollars within ten days. It is designed to settle and continue business. The liabilities are not yet known, probably over $100,000.

Sloan in a Fix.

The Superior Court had before it this morning a case of curious complications. Some months ago Wm. A. Sloan married a woman in Ohio, moved to Iowa and obtained a divorce through a Chicago divorce lawyer, and upon the same day married another woman in Iowa. The courts of the latter State, declared the divorce proceedings illegal, and the second marriage adulterous. To-day the Chicago Court held the divorce valid according to the laws of Illinois. It is therefore illegal for Sloan to live with either of the women, although he has children by both. He might, however, legally live with his Ohio wife in Iowa, and with his Iowa wife in Illinois, but could not live with the Ohio wife in Illinois, or with the Iowa wife in Iowa.

Denver Decisions.

DENVER, 22.—The entire controversy between the Iron Silver Mining Co. of Leadville and the owners of a claim on Iron Hill, was settled to-day by a judgment in favor of the Iron company and by compromise.

In the case of the Iron mine against the Tucson, judgment was entered in the United States Court in favor of the Iron mine.

In the case of the Iron mine against the Luella, which is now pending in the U. S. Supreme Court, a stipulation was made confessing error, which will likely make a decision of that Court in favor of the Iron mine. In addition the owners of the Luella and Tucson mines have conveyed their entire claim to the Iron company.

These decisions and compromises throw open to the Iron mine the entire body of ore on Iron Hill, and remove all hindrance to the progress of their development on what is admitted to be the most extensive body of ore in the Leadville camp.

Zero!

ALBANY, 22.—Telegrams received to-day from Utica, Rome, Syracuse, Rochester and Fort Edward speak of the cold, ice and snow, and state that the canals are closed at the points named. Ice breakers, and all the men that can be put to work on them are employed and, unless the present cold snap continues, the canals will be reopened. At Schenectady the ice in the canals is four inches thick.

A telegram this afternoon from Whitehall announces that Lake Champlain was frozen over this morning with ice two inches thick. Every effort will be made by the canal officials to get boats through. At Whitehall at 5 a.m. to-day the thermometer indicated nine degrees below zero.

Railroad Personnel.

CHICAGO, 22.—It is reported that S. H. H. Clark, of the Union Pacific road, will take a rest and make Thomas L. Kimball assistant general manager.

Daniel W. Hitchcock, general passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, has accepted the position of general Western passenger agent of the Union Pacific Railroad for the Pacific Coast, with headquarters at San Francisco. He is an old, experienced and energetic railroad man, thoroughly acquainted with the country he goes to.

Governor Williams' Funeral.

INDIANAPOLIS, 21.—A meeting of the State officers and prominent citizens was held last night and arrangements perfected for the funeral obsequies of Gov. Williams. The remains will be in state in the Court House from 11 o'clock a. m. until 5 p. m. Monday, and will be taken to Vincennes Tuesday morning, and will be in state in this place during the afternoon and will then be taken to the Governor's late home near Wheatland Tuesday night. The final funeral services will take place on Wednesday. Invitations were telegraphed last night to President Hayes, the Governors of Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois and Michigan, to all the Congressmen and Senators in the State and other prominent men.

A telegram was received to-day from President Hayes expressing sympathy and regret that official duties will prevent him from being present to take part in the ceremonies in honor of the memory of the late chief magistrate of Indiana. Gov. Foster, of Ohio, telegraphs that it will be impossible for him to be present, but Mr Barnes, secretary of State, will attend the funeral. Gov. Cullom, of Illinois, notified the committee that he will be here on Tuesday morning and join the funeral escort to Vincennes.

Vigilantes' Work.

DEADWOOD, 22.—For months back a band of outlaws have kept the citizens of the town of Fort Pierre on the bank of the Missouri River in terror, until the respectable portion of the community organized a vigilance committee. A fight ensued, which resulted in the killing of Arkansas Joe, leader of the gang, with four others. The vigilantes escaped
